Philosophical Hermeneutics Reinterpreted Paul Fairfield, 2011-08-11 Examines hermeneutics in relation to existentialism pragmatism critical theory and poststructuralism Karl Jaspers' Theory of Irrationality Daniel Adsett, 2024-12-16 Defending the view that Karl Jaspers concept of irrationality Widervernunft is better able to account for pathological patterns of individual and collective thinking Karl Jaspers Theory of Irrationality From Delusions to Worldviews argues that irrationality is incorrigibility a blockage of reason as the will to communication Highlighting the importance of freedom and creativity at the heart of reason Vernunft Daniel Adsett analyzes examples of delusional thought through a Jaspersian lens He shows that irrationality arises when we hold to certain attitudes with an incorrigible conviction and refuse to genuinely consider the possibility that we might need to revise or change our beliefs In presenting these arguments Adsett offers a novel contribution to contemporary debates about the character of reason while rehabilitating an often neglected aspect of Jaspers thought The Anthem Companion to Karl Jaspers Hans Joas, Matthias Bormuth, 2025-04-15 This collection of articles by an international group of leading experts has its special focus on the relevance of Karl Jaspers s philosophy for the social sciences It also includes classical evaluations of Jaspers s thinking by renowned authors Talcott Parsons and Jürgen Habermas Several chapters are devoted to the relationship between Jaspers and his teacher Max Weber his famous student Hannah Arendt and crucial figures in his intellectual world Wilhelm Dilthey Georg Simmel Others deal with his relevance for disciplines from psychiatry to the study of religion and the historico sociological research about the Axial Age a term coined by Jaspers In his introduction editor Hans Joas tries to systematise Jaspers s relevance for the contemporary social sciences and to explain why Parsons had called him a social scientist s philosopher The book promises to become an indispensable source in the re evaluation of Jaspers s thinking in the years to come Darren Aronofsky's Films and the Fragility of Hope Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2015-11-19 The first sustained analysis of the current oeuvre of film director Darren Aronofsky examining the many intersections between his filmic work and his philosophical positions Karl Jaspers. Richard Wisser, 1993 The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01 Stephen Moroney s fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin Abraham Kuyper and Emil Brunner Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff Lastly Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of interest to scholars of theology

The Publishers Weekly, 1972 The Aesthetics of Desire and Surprise Jadranka Skorin-Kapov, 2015-10-08 The Aesthetics of Desire and Surprise Phenomenology and Speculation covers issues central to contemporary continental philosophy desire expectations excess rupture transcendence immanence surprise The proposed term desire surprise captures the phenomenological speculative character of the pair not yet and no longer Non obvious parallels between different thinkers are drawn and the argumentation is organized around philosophical figures relevant in the sequence desire excess pause rupture break recuperation surprise The works of Levinas i ek Bataille Blanchot Foucault and Ricoeur are interpreted and positioned according to the proposed template of desire excess pause The consideration of limit experiences involves authors fascinated by transgression and the question of whether excess is immanent or transcendent This discussion considers works by Nietzsche Deleuze i ek and Foucault The analysis of surprise and the beginning of recovery after the pause considers works by Fink Merleau Ponty Nancy Lyotard Dufrenne Bachelard and Seel The provocative argument elaborated in this work is that surprise starts with indifference Furthermore the argument is that surprise begins where the concept reaches its ending hence that the limit of speculative thinking at its ending is the limit of aesthetics at its beginning The work of Hegel Schelling and Jaspers are discussed in order to argue for the beginning of aesthetics there where knowledge ends Philosophical thematic is contextualized via sections on artists such as Duchamp and Mondrian and on some films provoking interest of aestheticians working in art history and cultural studies departments

The Embers and the Stars Erazim Kohák, 2015-07-10 It is hard to put this profound book into a category Despite the author s criticisms of Thoreau it is more like Walden than any other book I have read The book makes great strides toward bringing the best insights from medieval philosophy and from contemporary environmental ethics together Anyone interested in both of these areas must read this book Daniel A Dombrowski The Thomist Those who share Koh k s concern to understand nature as other than a mere resource or matter in motion will find his temporally oriented interpretation of nature instructive It is here in particular that Koh k turns moments of experience to account philosophically turning what we habitually overlook or avoid into an opportunity and basis for self knowledge This is an impassioned attempt to see the vital order of nature and the moral order of our humanity as one Ethics
