Recent History Atlas:

Recent History Atlas 1860 to 1960 Martin Gilbert, 1978 Recent History Atlas 1860 to 1960 Martin Gilbert, 1970
Recent History Atlas, 1860 to 1960 Martin Gilbert, John Flower, 1970 Recent History Atlas Martin Gilbert, John Flower, 1970 Recent History Atlas 1860 to 1960 Martin Gilbert, 1975 Recent History Atlas Martin Gilbert, John Flower, 1966 The Boys Martin Gilbert, 1998-09-15 Relates the experiences of a group of Jews male and female from Poland and Hungary who survived the concentration camps as teenagers Historical Atlases Walter Goffart, 2011-04-15

Today we can walk into any well stocked bookstore or library and find an array of historical atlases The first thorough review of the source material Historical Atlases traces how these collections of maps for history maps whose sole purpose was to illustrate some historical moment or scene came into being Beginning in the sixteenth century and continuing down to the late nineteenth Walter Goffart discusses milestones in the origins of historical atlases as well as individual maps illustrating historical events in alternating paired chapters He focuses on maps of the medieval period because the development of maps for history hinged particularly on portrayals of this segment of the postclassical modern past Goffart concludes the book with a detailed catalogue of more than 700 historical maps and atlases produced from 1570 to 1870 Historical Atlases will immediately take its place as the single most important reference on its subject Historians of cartography medievalists and anyone seriously interested in the role of maps in portraying history will find it invaluable Visualizing the Past Kathrin Maurer, 2013-03-22 Visual media had a decisive impact on how the past was perceived in historicist culture in nineteenth century Germany The panorama photography and book illustrations can portray the past under the auspices of spatiality Research on historicist culture often neglects this dimension of space and concentrates on traditional historicist paradigms such as temporality narrative and teleology By investigating the visual vocabulary of different historicist genres academic historiography illustrated history books historical maps this volume expands an understanding of German historicist culture as a multi medial phenomenon and shows that past is conveyed in spatial forms such as travel locations national and colonial spaces as well as geographical areas Tracing these concepts of historical space this volume demonstrates that the image works as a powerful tool to propagate the ideology of German imperialism in the nineteenth century but also can critically reflect the political agendas of national historicism An Historical Atlas of Modern Europe from 1789 to 1914 Sir Charles Grant Robertson, John George Bartholomew, 1915 European Decolonization 1918-1981: An Introductory Survey Robert F. Holland, 1985-03-04 One of the most dramatically significant themes of the twentieth century has been the decline and final dismemberment of the European colonial empires This book outlines the general features which influence this decline and by concentrating on a series of case studies emphasises the varieties of experience within this broad historical process While primarily concerned with events in the British Empire the largest of the imperial systems Dr Holland also considers developments in the French Belgian Dutch and Portuguese dependencies The chronologically arranged sections focus on the sources of weakness in the European empires between 1918 and 1939 the impact of the Second World War the upheavals of the post war crisis the move to decolonization in the later 1950 s and early 1960 s and the subsequent realignment of relations between advanced and non advanced nations The aim of this study is to provide an introductory text for sixth form and university students on a vital dimension of change within international relationships in twentieth century

The Day the War Ended Martin Gilbert, 2007-04-01 One of Britain's most acclaimed historians presents the experiences and ramifications of the last day of World War II in Europe May 8 1945 23 30 hours With war still raging in the Pacific peace comes at last to Europe as the German High Command in Berlin signs the final instrument of surrender After five years and eight months the war in Europe is officially over This is the story of that single day and of the days leading up to it Hour by hour place by place this masterly history recounts the final spasms of a continent in turmoil Here are the stories of combat soldiers and ordinary civilians collaborators and resistance fighters statesmen and war criminals all recounted in vivid dramatic detail But this is more than a moment by moment account for Sir Martin Gilbert uses every event as a point of departure linking each to its long term consequences over the following half century In our attempts to understand the world we inherited in 1945 there is no better starting point than The Day the War Ended BECOMING AND BEING John O'Loughlin, 2022-03-06 This project is quite unusual in that it combines in separate parts autobiographical writings with biographical sketches of some of the writers who have influenced John O Loughlin most including Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus Aldous Huxley Arthur Koestler Henry Miller Hermann Hesse and Lawrence Durrell At the end Mr O Loughlin has appended a list of books borrowed from his local library during a twelve year period coinciding in part with the composition of this text so that one can compare his reading material and what he thought of it with the original material of this project as a guide to how becoming eventually turned for him into being European Armies and the Conduct of War Hew Strachan, 2005-07-28 Discussing the key issues of modern warfare Hew Strachan's work examines the theory and practice of land warfare in Europe since 1700 Looking at warfare in the context of social and political change Dr Strachan interprets his subject matter as widely as possible and European Armies and the Conduct of War considers the roles of air power and the impact of the United States on European military developments Through the eyes of the major theorists of the day European Armies examines how the social and political influences which shape armies also mould the attitude of those armies to warfare the story of technical innovation the mounting pace of industrialization and its impact of warfare Recent military history has tended to focus on the relationship between armies and society and there has been much original research on the subject of the conduct of war This book brings these approaches together providing information and insight vital to the study of this fascinating era A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer s nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication The American Catalogue ,1881 American national trade bibliography Educational Times ,1891 Educational Times and Journal of the College of Preceptors ,1912

 Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson,1989 A system of Modern Geography, with the outlines of Astronomy John WHITE (Teacher, etc. Edinburgh.),1863
