

Judaism

- What are the main Jewish festivals?

Passover is celebrated to commemorate the liberation of the Israelites who were led out of slavery in Egypt by Moses.

It is a major eight day festival, beginning with a special meal called the Seder.

Matzah (unleavened bread) is eaten throughout the festival, as are other foods that contain no leaven.

Hanukkah is the Jewish Festival of Lights. It is an eight day holiday and celebrates the miracle of the burning oil. This is where the oil of Menorah (the candelabrum in the temple) miraculously burned for eight whole days even though there was only enough oil for one.

Sukkot commemorates the years that the Jews spent in the desert on their way to the Promised Land. During the festival, some Jews build their own Sukkah (a hut made from leaves and branches).
