Renewing Social and Economic Progress in Africa D. Ghai, 2000-05-08 With contributions by eminent specialists this book analyses critical political social and economic problems in Sub-Saharan Africa and proposes strategies and policies for revival and progress. The major themes discussed are civil wars, political instability and repression, economic crisis, unemployment, poverty, urbanization, social development, environmental degradation, regional co-operation and globalization. The book puts forward policy approaches for reconstruction of war-torn societies, strengthening of democratic institutions and processes, health improvements, promotion of economic growth and employment, environmental regeneration and integration of African economies at regional and global levels.

Renewing Social and Economic Progress in Africa Dharam P. Ghai, 2000 This text analyzes critical political social and economic problems in sub-Saharan Africa and proposes strategies and policies for revival and progress. The major themes discussed are civil wars, political instability and repression, economic crisis, unemployment, poverty, urbanization, social development, environmental degradation, regional co-operation and globalization. The book puts forward policy approaches for reconstruction of war-torn societies, strengthening of democratic institutions and processes, health improvements, promotion of economic growth and employment, environmental regeneration and integration of African economies at regional and global levels.

Overcoming the Persistence of Inequality and Poverty Valpy FitzGerald, Judith Heyer, 2011-03-24 International experts evaluate new policy directions in economic development and poverty reduction building on the ideas of a pioneer in the new discipline of Development Studies. Frances Stewart Combining ideas and evidence on technological change, human development and conflict prevention to address the issue of the persistence of inequality.

Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa P. Carmody, 2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past 25 years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty. This book explores with case studies why such policies continue to be implemented and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization, depoliticization, regionalization and securitization.

The Policy Paradox in Africa Elias Ayuk, Mohamed Ali Marouani, 2007 It provided technical and financial support to economic research centres in sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) so that they can undertake policy relevant research with the goal of influencing economic policy making. In January 2005 the Secretariat organized an international conference in Dakar, Senegal during which participants from key economic think tanks presented their experiences in the policy development process in Africa. Of particular interest was the role of economic research and economic researchers in policy making. The authors examine the extent to which economic policies that are formulated in the sub-continent draw from research based on local realities and undertaken by local researchers and research networks in Africa.
