Resources in Education ,2001-04 Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy,2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them

Critical Theories, Radical Pedagogies, and Social Education ,2010-01-01 A refreshing collection of essays that offers a range of critical and radical voices which are generally marginalized in the critical social studies mainstream This collection is a good read with valuable insights that can impact teaching practice Canadian Social Studies Canada s National Social Studies Journal Volume 45 Issue 1 Award American Educational Studies Association AERA Critics Choice Book Award 2011 This edited collection begins with the assertion that there are emergent and provocative theories and practices that should be part of the discourse on social studies education in the 21st century Anarchist eco activist anti capitalist and other radical perspectives such as disability studies and critical race theory are explored as viable alternatives in responding to current neo conservative and neo liberal educational policies shaping social studies curriculum and teaching Despite the interdisciplinary nature the field and a historical commitment to investigating fundamental social issues such as democracy human rights and social justice social studies theory and practice tends to be steeped in a reproductive framework celebrating and sustaining the status quo encouraging passive acceptance of current social realities and historical constructions rather than a critical examination of alternatives These tendencies have been reinforced by education policies such as No Child Left Behind which have narrowly defined ways of knowing as rooted in empirical science and apolitical forms of comprehension This book comes at a pivotal moment for radical teaching and for critical pedagogy bringing the radical debate occurring in social sciences and in activist circles where global protests have demonstrated the success that radical actions can have in resisting rigid state hierarchies and oppressive regimes worldwide to social studies education The Social Studies Wars Ronald W. Evans, 2004-01-01

Ronald Evans describes and interprets the continuing battles over the purposes content methods and theoretical foundations of the social studies curriculum This fascinating volume addresses the failure of social studies to reach its potential for dynamic teaching because of a lack of consensus in the field links the ever changing rhetoric and policy decisions to their influence on classroom practice and helps to clarify the meaning direction and purposes of social studies instruction in schools Social Studies in Elementary Education Walter Parker, 2009 The author wrote this new edition of the most popular elementary social studies methods text on the market with the following three goals in mind to present the most powerful social studies content and pedagogy for children in elementary school to offer the material in simple and accessible ways and to write in a first person active voice The purpose of this book is to introduce new teachers to the world of social studies teaching and learning in elementary and middle schools Geography history government and the other social sciences are delivered into the palm of the new teacher's hand along with a suite of tools for bringing social studies to life in the classroom The book is organized into three sections the first orients the reader to the mission of social studies education to the increasingly diverse children we teach the second concentrates on the curriculum and the third deals with instruction how we plan and teach this curriculum Three central themes continue to pervade the book democratic citizenship diversity and the social sciences to ultimately encourage teachers to excite their students about closing the gap between social realities and democratic ideals An exceptionally strong chapter on multicultural issues Chapter 2 helps future teachers truly understand the changing demographics of the American classroom Abridged NCSS standards and their classroom applications are automatically packaged with every copy of the book The Social Studies in Secondary Education

Murry R. Nelson, 1994 This document contains a reprint of the 1916 The Social Studies in Secondary Education A Six Year Program Adapted Both to the 6 3 3 and the 8 4 Plans of Organization and Report of the Committee on Social Studies of the Commission on the Reorganization of Secondary Education of the National Education Association widely believed to be the most important document in the history of citizenship education in the United States It legitimated the term social studies to designate formal citizenship education and placed squarely in the field all of those subjects that were believed to contribute to that end While recognizing the importance of history and the social sciences as contributing to citizenship education the Committee's report recognized that citizenship education is something more than mastery of separate disciplines It recognized the study of social problems as a necessary part of the education of citizens and outlined a content for the social studies that was widely adopted and has remained remarkably unchanged to the present This book includes annotations by Murry R Nelson the editor of the present document on the 1916 report Commentaries include 1 The Social Contexts of the Committee on Social Studies Report of 1916 Murry M Nelson and 2 Thomas Jesse Jones Doing God s Work and the 1916 Report Stephen T Correia The book also contains a 35 page select annotated bibliography from the ERIC database on social studies reform The table of contents of the 1915 report on The Teaching of Community Civics is included in an appendix Author DK

Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies
