Renoir The Man The Painter And His World:

Renoir: the Man, the Painter, and His World Lawrence Hanson, 1968 The era of impressionism that transformed the world of art at the end of the nineteenth century is described through the life of Auguste Renoir Renoir served his apprenticeship as a decorator of porcelain in Paris He painted portraits for a living until he won serious critical attention Illness made his years an enduring battle against physical affliction Renoir Lawrence Hanson, 1968 The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals Nineteenth Century Painters and Painting Geraldine Norman, 2023-12-22 The Look of the Past Ludmilla Jordanova, 2012-09-27 How can we use visual and material culture to shed light on the past Ludmilla Jordanova offers a fascinating and thoughtful introduction to the role of images objects and buildings in the study of past times Through a combination of thematic chapters and essays on specific artefacts a building a piece of sculpture a photographic exhibition and a painted portrait she shows how to analyse the agency and visual intelligence of artists makers and craftsmen and make sense of changes in visual experience over time Generously illustrated and drawing on numerous examples of images and objects from 1600 to the present this is an essential guide to the skills that students need in order to describe analyse and contextualise visual evidence The Look of the Past will encourage readers to think afresh about how they like people in the past see and interpret the world around them Luncheon of the Boating Party Susan Vreeland, 2007-05-03 From the bestselling author of GIRL IN HYACINTH BLUE A vivid exploration of one of the most beloved Renoir paintings in the world done with a flourish worthy of Renoir himself USA Today With her richly textured novels Susan Vreeland has offered pioneering portraits of artists lives As she did in Girl in Hyacinth Blue Vreeland focuses on a single painting Auguste Renoir s instantly recognizable masterpiece which depicts a gathering of Renoir s real friends enjoying a summer Sunday on a caf terrace along the Seine Narrated by Renoir and seven of the models the novel illuminates the gusto hedonism and art of the era With a gorgeous palette of vibrant captivating characters Vreeland paints their lives loves losses and triumphs so vividly that the painting literally comes alive The Boston Globe Dreaming by the Book Elaine Scarry, 2013-05-21 A pathbreaking work about the way literature teaches us to use our imagination We often attribute to our imaginative life powers that go beyond ordinary perception or sensation In Dreaming by the Book the noted scholar Elaine Scarry explores the apparently miraculous but in fact understandable processes by which poets and writers confer those powers on us how they teach us the work of imaginative creation Writers from Homer to Heaney Scarry argues instruct us in the art of mental composition even as their poems progress just as painters understand paint composers musical sounds and sculptors stone or metal verbal artists understand and deploy the only material in which their creations will get made the backlit tissue of the human imagination In her brilliant synthesis of cognitive psychology literary criticism and philosophy she explores the five principal formal practices by which writers bring things to life for their readers she calls them radiant ignition rarity dyadic addition and subtraction stretching and floral supposition The transforming power of these mental practices can be seen in their appearance in great literature of course but also in applying them to and watching how they revise our own daydreams Dreaming by the Book is not only an utterly original work of literary analysis but a sequence of on the spot mental experiments

In Search of La Grande Illusion Nicholas Macdonald, 2013-11-22 This is an extended analysis of the film from different perspectives The first half is largely a discussion of the cinematic technique with key sequences analyzed shot by shot The second half approaches the film from many other angles including its history the critical reception Renoir's life and career and film theory e.g. film in relation to music A case is made that Renoir's career was inconsistent especially after La Règle du jeu but also during the 1930s And rather than emphasizing the humanist anti-war thrust of La Grande Illusion the film is approached as a work of art that is deeply expressive cinematically

Arts & Decoration, 1919

Somewhere Over the Rainbow Daniel Ross Goodman, 2020-08-24 Why do we watch movies If we read in search of more life as Harold Bloom is fond of saying then we watch movies this book proposes in search of wonder We watch movies in search of awe inspiring visions transformative experiences and moments of emotional transcendence and spiritual sublimity We watch movies for many of the same reasons that we engage in religion to fill our ordinary evenings and weekends with something of the extraordinary to connect our isolated individual selves to something that is greater than ourselves and because we yearn for something that is ineffable but absolutely indispensable This book through an exploration of some of the most intriguing films of the past two decades illustrates how movies are partners with religion in inspiring conveying and helping us experience what Abraham Joshua Heschel refers to as radical amazement the sense that our material universe and our ordinary lives are filled with more wonders than we can ever imagine and that it takes spiritually as well as cinematically trained eyes to uncover these ever present ocular gems In addition to illustrating how films utilize religious themes and theological motifs to convey a sense of wonder this book offers new interpretations of key films from canonical American directors such as Martin Scorsese Terrence Malick Richard Linklater Wes Anderson and the Coen brothers
