Libby,Robert N. Whitehurst,Jessie Bernard,1973 This Old Spouse Sharyn Wolf,2007 Wolf a therapist and relationships expert has written a smart and witty guide to repairing the problems that creep into committed partnerships once the honeymoon glow has faded Every Season in a Marriage Has Benediction Dr Anniekie Ravhudzulo,2015-10-30 The Seasons of Marriage Marriage life has different seasons It doesnt matter whether you are a newlywed or have been married for years there will definitely be times in your marriage relationship when you feel frustrated sad angry irritated or confused On the hand there will also be times in your marriage when you feel completely in love bonded connected secure and happy Moments of thoughtfulness playfulness exploration discovery and quiet time together can make you feel like you are living in your own world There is nothing good than feeling loved like everything in your relationship is just connecting In marriage there are two big categories of seasons namely internal and external External marital seasons are those difficult situations matters and issues of which we have absolutely no control Internal marital problems are issues that develop from within the marriage over which both spouses have control A successful couple understand that in order to maintain happiness and balance in their marriage they must learn how to change their gears When complications arise these couples communicate take the risk to express their feelings listen to one another and work TOGETHER to create a solution Marriage is a journey with different seasons as you travel Remember that every season is a unique adventure Live and enjoy the season you are in and enjoy the benedictions through Better communication More quality time together Affair preventions Lowered odds for divorce Reactivated sex life Flexibility to succeed despite conflicting differences Finally good and bad seasons are natural in marriage everyone knows that Sometimes everything is working right for you Sometimes your marriage is facing trials hardships and challenges Sometimes everything seems stagnant and frozen You must know that you can t fast forward rewind or skip reasons No season is for no reason God brings us through every season for divine reason The beauty of marriage is in facing the changes together as a team

Handbook of Contemporary Families Marilyn Coleman, Lawrence H Ganong, 2004 Coleman and Ganong recruited an outstanding group of scholars to contribute to the Handbook of Contemporary Families Authors represent a wide array of disciplines and the topics touch on every aspect of family life The organization of the book is excellent and the writing of high quality Scholars and students alike will find the book a valuable resource Alan Booth Penn State University Marilyn Coleman and Larry Ganong have produced a comprehensive handbook exploring the changes and challenges confronting contemporary families The chapters written by some of the most distinguished social scientists studying families give a balanced research based analysis of some of the most contentious issues of our time E Mavis Hetherington University of Virginia This useful handbook brings together many of the most important new findings and provocative ideas about America s diverse and changing families An excellent resource Stephanie Coontz author of The Way We Really Are Coming to Terms with America s Changing Families What has happened to marriage and families What is the current state of families Where are families headed Where is family scholarship headed As families face challenges today brought on by events that have changed their perception of the world there is a need for a clear assessment of what has happened to families in the past and an examination of some data based theories about what is likely to happen in the future The Handbook of Contemporary Families explores how families have changed in the last 30 years and speculates about future trends Editors Marilyn Coleman and Lawrence H Ganong along with a multidisciplinary group of contributors critique the approaches used to study relationships and families while suggesting modern approaches for the new millennium The Handbook looks at how changes within the contemporary family have been reflected in family law family education and family therapy Features of this Handbook Examines a diverse array of families and relationships in which people live including chapters on alternative lifestyles gay and lesbian relationships economically distressed families religion and families racial and ethnic diversity a feminist vision for families older families and the effect of computers and other technology on family relationships Includes both a historical review and future speculation on the subjects covered in each chapter Interdisciplinary contributors representing a variety of fields such as history family studies sociology law therapy social work psychology nursing and human development The Handbook of Contemporary Families is an excellent resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students researchers educators and practitioners who study and work with families in several disciplines including Family Science Human Development and Family Studies Sociology Marriage Family Therapy and Social Work

Family and the State of Theory David J. Cheal, 1991-01-01 Family studies play an increasingly important role in contemporary sociology David Cheal provides an up to date and comprehensive survey of modern sociological theories about family life While recognizing that these theories are both diverse and fragmented he argues that such divisions are a positive and integral aspect of studying contemporary family theory Cheal takes a broad comparative approach to the theories analysed using empirical examples from North America Europe and Australia and examining how old and new approaches interact with one another He argues that it is possible to make sense of a contemporary family theory by analysing its divisions as the result of different experiences of modernity These experiences lie along three axes first the opposition between social modernism and its anti modernist critics second the ideological effects of contradictions within modernity itself and third the emerging difference between modernist idealism and post modernist scepticism Another major theme of the book is the profound impact of feminism on contemporary family studies and how this has been the catalyst for so much rethinking of the subject in recent years By comparing a wide range of theories in this way and providing a conceptual framework to explain and encourage theoretical pluralism David Cheal has produced a major new work for students and researchers of family sociology and social theory worldwide

A New Look at Love Elaine Hatfield, G. William Walster, 1985 This fascinating review of what social psychologists know about love sex and intimacy puts to rest some tired clichés on the subject Begins by asking What is this thing called love and finds that people distinguish between two kinds of love passionate love and companionate love This study answers a variety of questions about love such as Where is the best place to find someone to love Do men and women want different things from love How can couples make love last Originally published by Addison Wesley in 1978 it won the American Psychological Foundation National Media Award in 1979

Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman, 2019-11-01 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage

The Renovation of International Law D. Josephus Jitta, 1919 I have written my work during THE WAR The idea of a collectivity of the States is interwoven all through my work but of course the project of a League of nations which has been elaborated during the armistice could not be taken into consideration This is moreover a subject matter which can only be dealt with in an experimental way in future times Besides I dare say that my work does not fall short with regard to the plans of the day so far as the juridical community of mankind is concerned it is even ahead of its time

MARCH 1919 JITTA CONTENTS CHAPTER I OBJECT AND SCHEME OF THE WORK page My object Mankind as a community de facto Mankind as a juridical community The unity of international law Scheme of the system The positive rules of the law of war The egotism of the States The burden of the subject matter The causticity of some of the materials The use of a language CHAPTER II THE SYSTEM FIRST PART Public International Law First Section THE GENERAL DIRECTION OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS I The Sovereignty of the State and the Sovereignty of Mankind 7 The sovereignty of the State The qualifications to be given to the sovereignty of the State according to reasonable principles The qualifications of the sovereignty in positive law The religious and patriotic impediments of the evolution of positive law as to sovereignty

Renovate Your Relationships Scott Vaudrey, MD,2019-08-06 Doctor turned pastor Scott Vaudrey shows readers how to have stronger more meaningful relationships by mastering the balance between building bridges and setting boundaries We all have people in our lives who are difficult a demanding boss an annoying neighbor a manipulative family member or a controlling spouse When you reach a point where something must change in that troubling relationship how do you narrow the gap between where things are and where you want them to be In Renovate Your Relationships Scott Vaudrey draws on his experience as both an emergency room physician and a pastor to reveal how we can diagnose the problems in our specific relationships and then master the balance between building bridges toward people and setting boundaries with them Using real life stories illuminating dialogues and ground breaking practical tools he unearths the root cause of our relational breakdowns and helps us make changes that enable us to move forward with a new more productive pattern of relating Gay Relationships John P. De Cecco,1988 A book certain to appeal to many readers Experts discuss the intricacies of maintaining a positive affirming relationship Entire sections of this large and impressive 300 page anthology cover the gamut of gay relationships including what can go right or what can go wrong where to look for lovers what it takes to maintain a gay relationship how to solve problems in a relationship difficulties in role expectations depression excessive drinking and much more The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne W. Churchill,2017-03-02 Suzanne Churchill s well researched and superbly crafted study is the first book length treatment of Others an important and neglected little magazine that served as a laboratory for modernist poetic experimentation In discussions of influential poets such as Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams whose careers Others helped launch Churchill counters the notion of Modernism as aesthetically self isolating and socially disengaged Rather she traces a correspondence between formal innovation and social change in American modernist poetry and argues that this dimension of modernist formalism is lost when poems are studied in isolation Others provides a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism The little magazine not only anchors modernist poetry in a social context but also leads to new insight into major modernist texts Churchill s commitment to her subject s broad cultural contexts makes her book important for students and teachers of Modernism as well as for those working in the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory periodical studies and cultural studies Marriage and Alternatives Roger W. Libby,Robert N. Whitehurst,1977 Gay Midlife and Maturity John Alan Lee,1991 Aging is stressful for anyone in youth oriented Western societies Elderly people encounter difficulties and discrimination sometimes because of reduced income transportation and housing problems and failing health but often due to the persistent negative stereotypes that color others attitudes and behavior toward old people Gay men and lesbians experience these stresses as well as the numerous additional problems associated with their sexual orientation Gay Midlife and Maturity is a dynamic and positive volume that challenges the long held stereotype of the sad and lonely old homosexual A growing body of international literature much of which is featured in this book rejects this myth and illustrates that older gay men and lesbians cope well with the aging process and are comparable to younger homosexuals in social and psychological adjustment A much needed and major contribution Gay Midlife and Maturity contains an enormous amount of information for readers interested in gerontology and homosexuality Experts for the first time examine the relationship between the adjustment of gay people to later life and the age and sequence of the resolution of these typically early developmental processes raising many questions about traditional theories of gay development The existing contradictions and debates about gay men and accelerated aging are addressed Other valuable chapters focus on a theory of successful aging a comparison of the traditional gay community pre Stonewall versus the organized gay community the vital role of communication in gay relationships the sexual attitudes and behaviors of older gay men and much more Additional interesting and worthwhile chapters of this thought provoking new book include an in depth interview with Don Bachardy about his 33 year relationship Christopher Isherwood a renowned English writer who was 30 years his senior and a review of the growing literature on gay aging

Renovation of the Church Kent Carlson, Mike Lueken, 2013-11-21 Copastors Kent Carlson and Mike Lueken tell the decade long story of how God took their thriving consumer oriented church and transformed it into a modest congregation of unformed believers committed to the growth of the spirit even when it meant a decline in numbers
