Calvert,2018-07-19 When the topic of homeschooling comes up there often seem to be various assumptions as to why we homeschool our children which are simply wrong or at the most inadequate Yes the government schools have bullies yes the government schools might be bigger targets for armed shootings and yes the government schools even the ones in good school districts have kids or teachers who will teach our children language or experiences that we would rather them not learn that early in life or at all And while all those things are true and good reasons to educate our children at home even if those problems were corrected we and many other parents would still be committed to homeschooling our children Why The purpose of this book is to answer that question and to answer it from the Scriptures Nurturing Faith Fred P. Edie, Mark A. treatment of a topic he first dealt with in Rediscovering the Lost Tools of Learning Douglas Wilson proposes an alternative to government operated school by advocating a return to classical Christian education with its discipline hard work and learning geared to child development stages As an educator Wilson is well equipped to diagnose the cause of America s deteriorating school system and to propose remedies for those committed to their children s best interests in education He maintains that education is essentially religious because it deals with the basic questions about life that require spiritual answers reading and writing are simply the tools Offering a review of classical education and the history of this movement Wilson also reflects on his own involvement in the process of creating educational institutions that embrace that style of learning He details elements needed in a useful curriculum including a list of literary classics Readers will see that classical education offers the best opportunity for academic achievement character growth and spiritual education and that such quality cannot be duplicated in a religiously neutral environment
