Abstract. Writing a research report is something that must be done for every student in the university. That is why the students must have competence in academic writing. For both English and Non-English students, academic writing for research report is one of the most difficult assignments undertaken by the students at university. This study focused on the students' context on academic writing in the class to write a research report. The method used in this study was a survey research in a small class of English and Non-English classrooms. The survey was asking some questions in the written form. The findings showed that they face linguistic problems with unfamiliar styles in English version. Besides linguistics problem, they also do not understand how to create research report as a process of academic writing that is consists of an introduction, review of related literature, methodology, findings and discussion, and conclusion. Pedagogically, teaching academic writing effectively in any university classroom needs a lot of practice.

1 Introduction

In education and learning, one of the most important abilities is writing. It is acknowledged as one of the most crucial abilities for students in higher education [1]. As part of their curriculum and to communicate with professionals in their lecture, the students need to write articles, critiques, reviews, and argumentation processes [2]. In this case, an academic writing becomes the most arduous tasks for English and Non-English students in the classroom [3–8]. Moreover, understanding genres makes it challenging for the students [5, 6, 9].

In writing a report, the students are required to have a skill to write effectively and meaningfully based on the context of writing e.g. a research report. Besides, they are also use writing to express their thoughts, ideas, and feelings. As a result, to have successful written communication in their subjects, the learners must acquire the writing abilities [10].

Economic Development P. Prasad,A.R. Negandhi,2012-12-06 That a developing economy needs management even more than resources is now becoming abundantly clear to all students of growth There was perhaps a facile assumption in the earlier years that the rate of growth in a developing country depended in almost direct proportion to two factors the resources available within the country the land water minerals savings and other relevant inputs and the initial importation of aid from without in terms of capital and skills not available within but the factor of good management was somehow ignored as also the attitudes of the people and their leadership to growth These two factors are now coming into their own as being crucial to development and there is a new appreciation of the need for a good supply of well trained managers and providing them with an environment that is permissive and encouraging These essays are a timely analysis of this new felt need and a valuable source of new leads and hypotheses for they examine the multi facets of the problem of India s growth but with keeping the professional manager squarely in the middle of the study And after all it is he upon whom the major responsibility for develop ment and growth will depend given the chance The contributors to this symposium are seven young Indians all management educators of distinction at universities in the United States and one hopes that they will themselves pick up some of the leads and pursue them P L Non-Detention System In School Education M.N. Jyothi,2003

Government of Andhra Pradesh has introduced the non detention system a system of automatic promotion at the school level realising that education is best imparted in an atmosphere of free progress where the incentive and urge to improve spring from within the educational process rather than from the terror of examination and detentions Under this system the students will be automatically promoted to the next class provided they put in a stipulated percentage of attendance However there will be two common public examinations during the school career one at the end of the upper primary stage and the other at the end of the secondary stage This non detention system evoked a mixed reaction from the educational elite A study hence was conducted to evaluate the non detention system and the results of the study are quite interesting This research monograph on non detention system will be great use to the educational planners administrators researcher and teachers

India Higher Education Report 2022 N.V. Varghese,Nidhi Sabharwal,2023-07-31 This book studies the various dimensions of gender inequality that persist in higher education and employment in India It presents an in depth analysis of the complex challenges women face in higher education participation and in translating higher education opportunities into labour market success and into leadership positions including in academia It argues that despite substantial progress towards gender equality in enrolment these inequalities act as barriers to realising the transformative role that higher education can have for women s well being and for the nation s development The volume looks at the issues that keep women from accessing the areas of their choice and the challenges they face in leadership positions in higher education An important critique of higher education policy and planning the volume will be of interest to teachers students and researchers of education public policy political science and international relations economics feminism women s studies gender studies law and sociology It will also be useful for academicians policymakers and anyone interested in the study of gender in Indian Higher Education Selected Works of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad ,1991 EDUCATION IN
