Practical Journalism Edwin Llewellyn Shuman, 1903. Works consulted p. 255. Zapruder Øyvind Vågnes, 2012-08-24. Winner Peter C. Rollins Book Award 2012. As the fiftieth anniversary of the Kennedy assassination approaches, the traumatic aspects of the tragedy continue to haunt our perceptions of the 1960s. One reason for this lies in the home movie of the incident, filmed by Abraham Zapruder, a bystander who became one of the twentieth century's most important accidental documentarians. The first book devoted exclusively to the topic, Zapruder traces the journey of the film and its effect on the world's collective imagination. Providing insightful perspective as an observer of American culture, Norwegian media studies scholar Øyvind Vågnes begins by analyzing three narratives that are projections of Zapruder's images: performance group Ant Farm's video The Eternal Frame, Don DeLillo's novel Underworld, and an episode from Seinfeld. Subsequent topics he investigates include Dealey Plaza's Sixth Floor Museum, Zoran Naskovski's installation Death in Dallas, assassin video games, and other artifacts of the ways in which the footage has made a lasting impact on popular culture and the historical imagination. Vågnes also explores the role of other accidental documentarians, such as those who captured scenes of 9/11. Zapruder's footage has never yielded a conclusive account of what happened in Dealey Plaza. Zapruder thoroughly examines both this historical enigma and its indelible afterimages in our collective imagination.

Authorship in Comics Journalism Laura Schlichting, 2021-08-09. What is Comics Journalism and Why is the author not dead at all? Because literature and journalism deal differently with authorship, and authorship this work renegotiates these concepts. It analyzes the author's importance in comics journalism, especially concerning the verification and authentication of the production process. This study gives a broad and extensive overview of the various forms of contemporary comics journalism and argues that authorship in comics journalism can only be adequately understood by considering the author both on the textual and extratextual level. By combining comics analyses with cultural, sociological, and literary studies approaches, this study introduces the comics journalistic pact, which is an invisible agreement between author and reader addressing issues of narration, voice, testimony, face, and journalistic engagement. It categorizes comics journalism as a borderline genre between literature, culture, art, and journalism due to its interdisciplinary nature.
