Representing Black Men:

Representing Black Men Marcellus Blount, George Cunningham, 2014-01-27 Representing Black Men focuses on gender race and representation in the literary and cultural work of black men

Black Men on Race, Gender, and Sexuality Devon Carbado, 1999-07 A groundbreaking anthology of essays providing commentary on gender and sexuality inclusion in the antiracist movement In late 1995 the Million Man March drew hundreds of thousands of black men to Washington DC and seemed even to skeptics a powerful sign not only of black male solidarity but also of black racial solidarity Yet while generating a sense of community and common purpose the Million Man March with its deliberate exclusion of women and implicit rejection of black gay men also highlighted one of the central faultlines in African American politics the role of gender and sexuality in antiracist agenda In this groundbreaking anthology a companion to the highly successful Critical Race Feminism Devon Carbado changes the terms of the debate over racism gender and sexuality in black America The essays cover such topics as the legal construction of black male identity domestic abuse in the black community the enduring power of black machismo the politics of black male white female relationships racial essentialism the role of black men in black women's quest for racial equality and the heterosexist nature of black political engagement Featuring work by Cornel West Huey Newton Henry Louis Gates Jr A Leon Higginbotham Jr Houston Baker Marlon T Riggs Dwight McBride Michael Awkward Ishmael Reed Derrick Bell and many others Devon Carbado's anthology stakes out new territory in the American racial landscape

Critical America A series edited by Richard Delgado and Jean Stephancic

Contemporary Black Men's Fiction and Drama Keith Clark, 2001 Demonstrating the extraordinary versatility of African American men's writing since the 1970s this forceful collection illustrates how African American male novelists and playwrights have absorbed challenged and expanded the conventions of black American writing and with it black male identity From the John Henry Syndrome a definition of black masculinity based on brute strength or violence to the submersion of black gay identity under equations of gay with white and black with straight the African American male in literature and drama has traditionally been characterized in ways that confine and silence him Contemporary Black Men's Fiction and Drama identifies the forces that limit black male discourse including traditions established by iconic African American male authors such as James Baldwin Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison This thoughtful volume also shows how contemporary black male authors use their narratives to put forward new ways of being and knowing that foster a more complete sense of self and more humane and open ways of communicating with and relating to others In the work of Charles Johnson Ernest Gaines and August Wilson contributors find paths toward broader less rigid ideas of what black literature can be what the connections among individual and communal resistance can be and how black men can transcend the imprisoning models of hyper masculinity promoted by American culture Seeking greater spiritual connection with the past John Edgar Wideman returns to the folk rituals of his family while Melvin Dixon and Brent Wade reclaim African roots and traditions Ishmael Reed struggles with a contemporary cultural oppression that he sees as an insidious echo of slavery while Clarence Major's experimental writing suggests how black men might reclaim their own voices in a culture that silences them Taking in a wide range of critical theoretical cultural gender and sexual concerns Contemporary Black Men's Fiction and Drama provides provocative new readings of a broad range of contemporary writers The Performative Representations of Masculinity in Quentin Tarantino's Cinema Justin Russell Greene, 2023-08-22 In this book Justin Russell Greene examines how Quentin Tarantino uses his auteur identity to further cement the masculine tropes of Hollywood and ultimately society through language visual aesthetics and performative representations of masculinity in his films and media appearances Greene posits that the careful crafting of his auteur persona allows Tarantino to project a consistent version of what it means to be a writer director artist and that through his interview and speeches he reveals the deeper intensions behind the representations his characters present in his films However although he is valorized by audiences media personalities and peers as an artistic genius Tarantino traffics in many of the systemic issues embedded within the United States socio cultural environment Greene argues that although Tarantino promotes a political vision in his films and public appearances that illuminates the restrictions of hegemonic masculinity this is not sufficiently effective at truly disrupting entrenched ideologies about masculinity in U S culture due to how Tarantino hides his critical takes within genre stereotypes Scholars of film studies gender studies and popular culture will find this book of particular interest Object Lessons Robyn Wiegman, 2012-01-11 A passionate advocate of identity studies and a keen reader of U S institutional politics Robyn Wiegman turns her attention in Object Lessons to the critical practices and political ambitions of identity based fields In a series of case studies drawn from women's studies queer studies ethnic studies and American studies she examines the unspoken belief that better theory will produce progressive social change in order to consider the political desire that fuels current scholarly debate Her metacritical analysis is neither a defense nor a dismissal of such political commitment but a sustained inquiry into the hope it generates the thinking it inspires and the conformity it inadvertently demands African Americans in Sports Gary A. Sailes, 2017-07-05 Research on African American athletes generally focuses on negative stereotypes of physical prowess and socially controversial themes Most studies investigate racism prejudice discrimination and exploitation experienced by African American athletes Many studies contrast African American and white athletes on a number of variables that support prevailing elitist stereotypes and denigrate African American athletes But few studies investigate the diverse and complex cultural dichotomies within the infrastructure of sport in the African American community Gary Sailes maintains that it is crucial to develop a more eclectic and immersed cultural approach when investigating African American involvement in competitive sports The contributors to African Americans in Sports show that there are also intrinsic cultural paradigms that are evident presenting an informative and interesting narrative regarding African American athletes The chapters that make up this volume were written by noted scholars who were selected based on their expertise in their specific academic areas They write about different components of the experience of African American male athletes Chapters and contributors include Race and Athletic Performance A Physiological Review by David W Hunter The Athletic Dominance of African Americans Is There a Genetic Basis by Vinay Harpalani African American Player Codes on Celebration Taunting and Sportsmanlike Conduct by Vernon L Andrews and Stacking in Major League Baseball by Earl Smith and C Keith Harrison Many chapters were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of African American Men This volume should be read by all those involved in athletics as well as by sports sociologists and African American studies scholars

Sport in Films Emma Poulton, Martin Roderick, 2019-05-30 Sport offers everything a good story should have heroes and villains triumph and disaster achievement and despair tension and drama Consequently sport makes for a compelling film narrative and films in turn are a vivid medium for sport Yet despite its regularity as a central theme in motion pictures constructions and representations of sport and athletes have been marginalised in terms of serious analysis within the longstanding academic study of films and documentaries In this collection it is the critical study of film and its connections to sport that are examined The collection is one of the first of its kind to examine the ways in which sport has been used in films as a metaphor for other areas of social life Among the themes and issues explored by the contributors are Morality tales in which good triumphs over evil The representation and ideological framing of social identities including class gender race and nationality The representation of key issues pertinent to sport including globalization politics commodification consumerism and violence The meanings spoken by films and the various readings which audiences make of them This is a timely collection that draws together a diverse range of accessible insightful and ground breaking new essays This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Progressive Black Masculinities? Athena D. Mutua, 2006-11-06 In the struggle for pride and political agency the imperative to be a man has been central to the lives of black males Yet what it means to be a black man in terms of both racial and gender identity has been subject to continual debate in public and academic spheres alike Progressive Black Masculinities brings together leading black cultural critics including Michael Eric Dyson Mark Anthony Neal and Patricia Hill Collins to examine an alternatively demonized and mythologized black masculinity Collectively they offer a roadmap for new progressive models of black masculinity that may chart the course for the future of black men

Feminism and Politics, 1998-03-12 Series Blurb Oxford Readings in Feminism provide accessible one volume guides to the very best in contemporary feminist thinking assessing its impact and importance in key areas of study Collected together by scholars of outstanding reputation in their field the articles chosen represent the most important work on feminist issues and concise lively introductions to each volume crystallize the main line of debate in the field Is there too much gender in politics too much stereotyping of female and male Or is there too little gender too little attention to differences between women and men Should feminists be challenging male dominance by opening up politics to women Or is women a fictitious entity that fails to address differences by class or race Is equality best served by denying differences between the sexes Or best promoted by stressing the special needs of women The essays in Feminism and RPolitics answer these questions in a variety of ways but all see feminism as transforming the way we think about and act in politics Spanning issues of citizenship and political representation the ambiguities of identity politics and the problems in legislating for sexual equality the readings provide an exciting overview of recent developments This outstanding collection will be essential reading for any feminist who has doubted the importance of political studies and any student of politics who has doubted the relevance of feminism

The Michael Eric Dyson Reader Michael Eric Dyson, 2008-08-05 Over the past ten years the work of Michael Eric Dyson has become the first stop for readers writers and thinkers eager for uncommon wisdom on the racial and political dynamics of contemporary America Whether writing on religion or sexuality or notions of whiteness on Martin Luther King Jr or Tupac Shakur Dyson s keen insight and rhetorical flair continue to surprise and challenge This collection gathers the best of Dyson s growing body of work his most incisive commentary his most stirring passages and his sharpest most probing and broadminded critical analyses From Michael Jordan to Derrida Ralph Ellison to the diplomacy of Colin Powell the mastery and ease with which Dyson tackles just about any subject is without parallel

Reel to Real bell hooks, 2012-12-06 Movies matter that is the message of Reel to Real bell hooks classic collection of essays on film They matter on a personal level providing us with unforgettable moments even life changing experiences and they can confront us too with the most profound social issues of race sex and class Here bell hooks one of America s most celebrated and thrilling cultural critics talks back to films that have moved and provoked her from Quentin Tarantino s Pulp Fiction to the work of Spike Lee Including also her conversations with master filmmakers such as Charles Burnett and Julie Dash Reel to Real is a must read for anyone who believes that movies are worth arguing about

Intersectional Discrimination Shreya Atrey, 2019-09-19 This book examines the concept of intersectional discrimination and why it has been difficult for jurisdictions around the world to redress it in discrimination law Intersectionality was coined by Kimberl Crenshaw in 1989 Thirty years since its conception the term has become a buzzword in sociology anthropology feminist studies psychology literature and politics But it remains marginal in the discourse of discrimination law where it was first conceived Traversing its long and rich history of development the book explains what intersectionality is as a theory and as a category of discrimination It then explains what it takes for discrimination law to be reimagined from the perspective of intersectionality in reference to comparative laws in the US UK South Africa Canada India and the jurisprudence of the European Courts CJEU and ECtHR and international human rights treaty bodies

Can't I Love What I Criticize? Susan Neal Mayberry, 2010-01-25 Taking a close look at all the key male figures in Toni Morrison's eight novels this book explores Morrison's admitted but critically neglected interest in the relationships between African American men and women and the axes on which these relationships turn Most Morrison scholarship deals with her female characters Can't I Love What I Criticize offers a response to this imbalance and to Morrison's call for more work on men who remain in her words outside of that little community value thing The book also considers the barriers between black men and women thrown up by their participation in a larger historically racist culture of competition ownership sexual repression and fixed ideals about physical beauty and romantic love Black women Morrison says bear their crosses extremely well and black men although they have been routinely emasculated by white men period have managed to maintain a feisty magic that everybody wants but nobody else has Understanding Morrison's treatment of her male characters says Susan Mayberry becomes crucial to grasping her success in countering the damage done by a spectrum of sometimes misguided isms including white American feminism Morrison's version of masculinity suggests that black men have successfully retained their special vitality in spite of white male resistance and that their connections to black women have saved their lives To single out her men is not to negate the preeminence of her women rather it is to recognize the interconnectedness and balance between them

Freeing Black Girls Tamara Lomax, 2025-03-07 In Freeing Black Girls Tamara Lomax offers an insurgent feminist love letter to Black girls women mothers and othermothers Exploring what it means to mother Black children in the twenty first century Lomax shares her journey from her traditionalist Black girlhood to finding the path to revolutionary Black motherhood Along the way she shows how all Black people are endangered by white supremacist capitalist heteropatriarchal dominance and emphasizes the power of looking and talking back Lomax insists on Black feminist ways of living that value and nourish whole persons sketching a radical dream that will allow Black women and girls to survive America while being able to love themselves others and collective Black freedom Ultimately Lomax declares that Black women and girls are emphatically not defective second class or immanent nurturers they are sacred and revolutionary beings who deserve to live a life free of predation patriarchy misrecognition misogyny and violence

Yearning bell hooks, 2014-10-10 For bell hooks the best cultural criticism sees no need to separate politics from the pleasure of reading Yearning collects together some of hooks's classic and early pieces of cultural criticism from the 80s Addressing topics like pedagogy postmodernism and politics hooks examines a variety of cultural artifacts from Spike Lee's film Do the Right Thing and Wim Wenders's film Wings of Desire to the writings of Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison The result is a poignant collection of essays which like all of hooks's work is above all else concerned with transforming oppressive structures of domination

expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Blacks Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be a indispensable text for the study of African American intellectual culture Contributors include Sandra Adell Michael Awkward Houston A Baker Jr Hazel V Carby Barbara Christian W E B DuBois Ann duCille Ralph Ellison Henry Louis Gates Jr Addison Gayle Jr Carolyn F Gerald Evelynn Hammonds Phillip Brian Harper Mae Gwendolyn Henderson Stephen E Henderson Karla F C Holloway Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Joyce A Joyce Alain Locke Wahneema Lubiano Deborah E McDowell Harryette Mullen Larry Neal Charles I Nero Robert F Reid Pharr Marlon B Ross George S Schuyler Barbara Smith Valerie Smith Hortense J Spillers Sherley Anne Williams and Richard Wright
