Architecture and Urban Form in Kuala Lumpur

Yat Ming Loo, 2016-04-08 Kuala Lumpur the capital city of Malaysia is a former colony of the British Empire which today prides itself in being a multicultural society par excellence However the Islamisation of the urban landscape which is at the core of Malaysia's decolonisation projects has marginalised the Chinese urban spaces which were once at the heart of Kuala Lumpur Engaging with complex colonial and postcolonial aspects of the city from the British colonial era in the 1880s to the modernisation period in the 1990s this book demonstrates how Kuala Lumpur's urban landscape is overwritten by a racial agenda through the promotion of Malaysian Architecture including the world famous mega projects of the Petronas Twin Towers and the new administrative capital of Putrajaya Drawing on a wide range of Chinese community archives interviews and resources the book illustrates how Kuala Lumpur's Chinese spaces have been subjugated This includes original case studies showing how the Chinese re appropriated the Kuala Lumpur old city centre of Chinatown and Chinese cemeteries as a way of contesting state's hegemonic national identity and ideology This book is arguably the first academic book to examine the relationship of Malaysia's large Chinese minority with the politics of architecture and urbanism in Kuala Lumpur It is also one of the few academic books to situate the Chinese diaspora spaces at the centre of the construction of city and nation By including the spatial contestation of those from the margins and their resistance against the state ideology this book proposes a recuperative urban and architectural history seeking to revalidate the marginalised spaces of minority community and re script them into the narrative of the postcolonial nation state

Muslims in Britain

Peter Hopkins, 2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli      Religion, Identity and Human Security Giorgio Shani, 2014-04-03 Religion Identity and Human Security seeks to demonstrate that a major source of human insecurity comes from the failure of states around the world to recognize the increasing cultural diversity of their populations which has resulted from globalization Shani begins by setting out the theoretical foundations dealing with the transformative effects of globalization on identity violence and security The second part of the volume then draws on different cases of sites of human insecurity around the globe to develop these ideas examining themes such as securitization of religious symbols retreat from multiculturalism rise of exclusivist ethno religious identities post 9 11 state religion colonization and the racialization of migration Highlighting that religion can be a source of both human security and insecurity in a globalizing world Shani offers a critical human security paradigm that seeks to de secularize the individual by recognizing the culturally contested and embedded nature of human identities The work argues that religion serves an important role in re embedding individuals deracinated from their communities by neo liberal globalization and will be of interest to students of International Relations Security Studies and Religion and Politics
