piety In these works the Virgin Mary is less exemplary for her compassion than for her understanding of doctrine In short this book offers new perspectives on vernacular Christology between about 1275 and 1475 Theresa Tinkle is a Professor within the Department of English Language and Literature at the University of Michigan USA as well as Director of the Gayle Morris Sweetland Center for Writing Previous publications include Medieval Venuses and Cupids Sexuality and Hermeneutics in English Poetry 1996 and Gender and Power in Medieval Exegesis Palgrave 2010 Theresa s academic training and publications include the study of medieval English and Latin literature the medieval reception of the Bible gender and sexuality studies paleography and manuscript studies composition and pedagogy and disability studies

Women and Economic Activities in Late Medieval Ghent S. Hutton, 2011-04-11 Contrary to the widespread view that women exercised economic autonomy only in widowhood Hutton argues that marital status was not the chief determinant of women s economic activities in the mid fourteenth century and that women managed their own wealth to a far greater extent than previously recognized Crafting Jewishness in Medieval England M. Krummel, 2011-01-31 Miriamne Ara Krummel challenges the accepted history of the English Middle Ages as a monolithic age of Christian faith By cataloguing and explicating the complex depictions of semitisms to be found in medieval literature and material culture this volume argues that Jews were always present in medieval England Berenguela of Castile (1180-1246) and Political Women in the High Middle Ages M. Aronson-Lehavi, 2011-03-28 Street Scenes offers a theory of late medieval acting and performance through a fresh and original reading of the Tretise of Miraclis Pleyinge The performance theory perspective employed here along with the examination of actor character dialectics paves the way to understanding both religious theatre and the complexity of late medieval theatricalities Sharon Aronson Lehavi demonstrates the existence of a late medieval discourse about the double appeal of theatre performance an artistic medium enacting sacred history while simultaneously referring to the present lives of its creators and spectators The Medieval Chastity Belt A. Classen, 2007-03-19 The chastity belt is one of those objects people have commonly identified with the dark Middle Ages This book analyzes the origin of this myth and demonstrates how a convenient misconception or contorted imagination of an allegedly historical practice has led to profoundly flawed interpretations of control mechanisms used by jealous husbands The Literary Subversions of Medieval Women Jane Chance, 2007-08-06 This study of medieval women as postcolonial writers defines the literary strategies of subversion by which they authorized their alterity within the dominant tradition To dismantle a colonizing culture they made public the private feminine space allocated by gender difference they constructed unhomely spaces They inverted gender roles of characters to valorize the female they created alternate idealized feminist societies and cultures or utopias through fantasy and they legitimized female triviality the homely female space to provide autonomy While these methodologies often overlapped in practice they illustrate how cultures impinge on languages to create what Deleuze and Guattari have identified as a minor literature specifically for women as dis placed Women writers discussed include Hrotsvit of Gandersheim Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France Marguerite Porete Catherine of Siena Margery Kempe Julian of Norwich and Christine de Pizan Julian of Norwich's Legacy S. Salih, D. Baker, 2009-11-09 Julian of Norwich the best known of the medieval mystics today The text of her Revelation has circulated continually since the fifteenth century but the twentieth century saw a massive expansion of her popularity Theological or literary historical studies of Julian may remark in passing on her popularity but none have attempted a detailed study of her reception This collection fills that gap it outlines the full reception history from the extant manuscripts to the present day looking at Julian in devotional cultures in modernist poetry and present day popular literature and in her iconography in Norwich both as a pilgrimage site and a tourist attraction The Medieval Poetics of the Religuary S. Chaganti, 2008-09-29 Through interdisciplinary readings of medieval literature and devotional artifacts The Medieval Poetics of the Reliquary shows how reliquaries shaped ideas about poetry and poetics in late medieval England Cannibalism in High Medieval English Literature H. Blurton, 2016-09-23 This book reads the surprisingly widespread representations of cannibals and cannibalism in medieval English literature as political metaphors that were central to England's on going process of articulating cultural and national identity Odd Bodies and Visible Ends in Medieval Literature S. Shimomura, 2016-04-30 This study traces how medieval audiences judge bodies from Doomsday visions to beauty contests Employing cultural and formalist approaches this study breaks new ground on the historical obsession about ends and changes reflected in different genres spanning several hundred years

Race, Class, and Gender in "Medieval" Cinema L. Ramey, T. Pugh, 2007-02-19 The medieval film genre is not in general concerned with constructing a historically accurate past but much analysis nonetheless centers on highlighting anachronisms. This book aims to help scholars and aficionados of medieval film think about how the re creation of an often mythical past performs important cultural work for modern directors and viewers. The essays in this collection demonstrate that directors intentionally insert modern preoccupations into a setting that would normally be considered incompatible with these concepts. The Middle Ages provide an imaginary space far enough removed from the present day to explore modern preoccupations with human identity.
