Toni De Leseleuc,2009-01-27 In this lost world where there is very little hope we all need to reach out to lift up and encourage each other every day This anthology of inspirational poems was written in the hopes that someone out there would read one of the poems and see themselves or their situation in my words Reflect and be comforted by this thought God never forsakes us or abandons us I pray that people would receive hope love joy peace and salvation through our Lord and savior Jesus Christ The second part of the book about mothers is to make us reflect on our childhood It was written to encourage mothers all over the world and to let them know that they are very special to all of us I pray that this book will be a source of reflection healing prayer and encouragement I hope that this vessel of a book will help heal the lost and broken hearted for without God and each other we have nothing Poetic Measures Galina Sarah McKenzie,2019-01-10 Galina McKenzie has suffered and endured great pain and hardship in her life When Galina was only five her mother fled abuse and moved them to California An immigrant in a strange land she was bullied ruthlessly at school until her self-esteem was torn to pieces As an adult she endured heartbreak and divorce and even severe physical injury following a car accident Due to her injury Galina was forced to slow down which she now sees as divine intervention She began enjoying the joys and wonders of life to inhale love and happiness and embrace serenity and liberty She surrendered completely to her Eternal Father whose voice inspired her to write The Spirit of the Most High revealed a precious treasure hidden deep within her being Poetic Measures is a collection of over one hundred poems an extension of Galina's soul spirit and heart that embraces her trials tribulations transformation and revitalization These divinely inspired poems were created for not only Galina but for all souls She shares them with the universe in hope that the human race will enjoy and feel the same healing powers she experienced and more

Markus H. McDowell,2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women s religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men s prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men NLT One Year Chronological Study Bible
