Rescue Of Nanoose:

The Rescue of Nanoose Mary Borrowman,Chloe O'Loughlin,2004 On September 23 1994 an unusual rescue operation took place in the chilly waters off Telegraph Cove a tiny picturesque village perched on Vancouver Island s north coast It was not stranded hikers or fishermen who needed help but a large humpback whale which had become hopelessly entangled in a rope that had fallen off a fishing boat The resident community of whale watchers sprang into action and the skipper of a local vessel dove into the cold deep water with a knife to free the terrified animal In The Rescue of Nanoose featuring delightful full colour illustrations by Jacqueline Wang Mary Borrowman and Chloe O Loughlin tell the story of the fortunate whale who was able to joyfully taste freedom again thanks to the brave efforts of Captain Mike and Captain Jim This book will appeal to children of all ages

Boom & Bust Jennifer L. Butler,2019-06-11 Received Honourable Mention for the 2019 Lieutenant Governor s Medal for Historical Writing Telegraph Cove one of Vancouver Island s most visited tourist destinations has humble origins as a one shack telegraph station established a century ago The community grew first with a salmon saltery and sawmill then with new industries developed by the ingenuity of the Cove s inhabitants From the 1920s Irish Chinese Japanese German Danish Italian and English community members along with other old and new Canadians were neighbours in a place accessible only by boat In this book more than 25 women tell their own stories and memories of life in the Cove They faced down the impacts of isolation hazardous terrain war occupation immigration internment social change economic development community decline and environmental degradation remarkable given that Telegraph Cove s population peaked at 60 From these lives come stories of resilience resourcefulness heartbreak humour and triumph Boom and Bust draws the reader in for an intimate view accompanied by never before published archival photographs
