Research Guide to People's Daily Editorials, 1949-1975 Michel Oksenberg, Gail Henderson, 2020-06-01 An indispensable aid to researching a crucial series of policy statements the present guide provides access to the only continuous source from China which illuminates high level policy Includes an extensive subject index Research Guide to People's Daily Editorials, 1949-1975 Michel Oksenberg, Gail Henderson, 1982-01-01 An indispensable aid to researching a crucial series of policy statements the present guide provides access to the only continuous source from China which illuminates high level policy Includes an extensive subject index Words Kill Cheng-Chih Wang, 2005-10-09 When Communist revolutionaries seized control of Mainland China in 1949 they faced enormous challenges of state and nation building China occupied a vast territory had a huge and poorly integrated population and suffered from a woefully backward economy Building a Socialist Chinese state required effectively managing significant opposition to the imposition of the Communist regime This study examines how the Chinese Communist Party employed language as an essential part of its strategy to achieving these goals Education in the People's Republic of China, Past and Present Franklin Parker, Betty June Parker, 2017-12-12 The 3 053 entries in this work first published in 1986 comprise the compilers attempt at a comprehensive annotated bibliography of the most useful locatable books monographs pamphlets regularly and occasionally issued serials scholarly papers and selected newspaper accounts dealing in a significant way with formal and informal public and private education in the People's Republic of China before and since 1949 New Perspectives on State Socialism in China Timothy Cheek, Tony Saich, 2016-12-05 Placing Chinese Communist Party history in the realm of social history and comparative politics this text studies the roots of the policy failures of the late Maoist period and the tenacity of the CCP Endogenous Origins of Economic Reforms in India and China Rajiv G. Maluste, 2011-07 Attitudinal change in the context of economic reforms has been referred to in Rodrik and Subramanian 2005 DeLong 2003 Kohli 1989 and Panagariya 2004 2008 This dissertation provides empirical support for this literature establishing an earlier start for India's economic policy liberalisation than presented in stylized accounts It demonstrates the endogenous nature of the origins of these policy shifts Attitudinal change literature had directed attention to the need for further research into India's policy changes of the early 1980s and for studying broader comparability issues in other developing countries This research makes a contribution towards filling these gaps This dissertation shows that India started its economic liberalisation under the Indira Gandhi administration from 1980 to 1984 These findings depart from the conventional view that India's economic policy changes were initiated by the Narasimha Rao government in 1991 or by the Rajiv Gandhi administration in the mid to late 1980s The dissertation establishes that policy shifts of the early 1980s had endogenous origins in the political leadership's attitudinal changes The Indira Gandhi administration of the early 1980s revisited the statist policies of its previous tenure from 1966 to 1977 The new approach entailed more openness towards private enterprise scaling back the role of the public sector and starting India's integration into the global economy. The dissertation also discusses the comparable role of attitudinal changes at the start of China's policy liberalisation led by Deng Xiaoping from 1978 to 1982. It focuses on the significance and challenges faced by China's political leadership in bringing about societal attitudinal change. The dissertation concludes by drawing comparisons between India and China developing a linkage between their endogenous attitudinal changes and economic policy liberalisation.

The Art of State Persuasion Assistant Professor of Political Science Frances Yaping Wang, Frances Yaping Wang, 2024. In a seminar held in 2011 attended by the heads of the Chinese Communist Party's propaganda departments across various government levels, Liu Yunshan, a senior Chinese propaganda official, underlined the necessity to strengthen mainstream public opinion and reach ideological consensus. During the Sino-Philippines arbitration case in 2016, People's Daily featured an article proclaiming the state's attitude and the public's stand are in unison, providing the public opinion basis and conditions for China to deal with the dispute. Remarks like these, which highlight the significance of establishing a consensus between the public and the state and the aspiration for unity in their actions, inspired the misalignment theory of this book. Routledge Library Editions: Education in Asia Various, 2021-07-14. This set of reissued books examines education in Asia from a variety of different angles. From the westernisation of early twentieth-century Chinese education to the impact of the Communist revolution to education and society in Korea to Asian women's experiences of education, this set collects some key texts by a range of original thinkers.

The Origins of the Cultural Revolution Roderick MacFarquhar, 1999-11. This is the final volume in a trilogy that examines the politics, personalities, economics, culture, and international relations of China from the mid 1950s to the mid 1960s. It seeks to answer the central question: Why did Chairman Mao Zedong launch the Cultural Revolution 1966-76, which plunged China into chaos and almost destroyed its Communist Party? The Coming of the Cataclysm starts with the great famine of the early 1960s, which resulted in tens of millions of deaths and set in train a series of emergency measures that increasingly divided Mao from his comrades in arms. His anger that they were prepared to adopt capitalist methods to rescue the country was sharpened by his belief that Moscow had actually gone capitalist and sold out to the imperialist West. From 1961 to 1966, the period covered by this volume, the increasingly urgent question for Mao was how to prevent a similar revolutionary degeneration in China. The Cultural Revolution was his answer. Drawing upon new evidence from Party documents, personal interviews, books, and journals, MacFarquhar details the growing rift between Mao and his colleagues as they attempted to cope with domestic privation and an increasingly hostile international environment until the Chairman finally decided to smash the unity of the Yan'an Round Table by unleashing society against the party state.

Calamity and Reform in China Dali L. Yang, 1996. This is the first book-length treatment of the political causes and consequences of the Great Leap Famine 1959-61, one of the worst tragedies in human history. Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004. Emphasizing reference works published since 1964, these volumes cover books, periodicals, and inclusions, i.e. chapters in edited volumes on
