The Nature of Accounting Regulation Ian Dennis, 2013-10-15 Accounting standards are an essential element in the regulation of current financial reporting Standard setters promulgate such standards and companies and professional accountants follow them in preparing financial reports

Although much has been written about the history of standard setting the conceptual underpinnings of accounting standards the process of setting them and whether such standards should be rules based or principles based there has been little written about the kind of thing they are This book examines the nature of accounting standards and the very idea of a rule of implementation guidance and of the objectives that are included in them It enables the reader to grasp the reasons for promulgating standards the role of the conceptual framework in setting standards in an institutional context and the kind of rules that are useful in regulating financial reporting The insights provided by this examination are used to throw light on the distinction between principles based and rules based standards and on the nature of good accounting standards

Accounting and Regulation Roberto Di Pietra, Stuart McLeay, Joshua Ronen, 2013-11-05 Since 1998 the world's leading experts on accounting and regulation have convened in a series of workshops to explore and analyze emerging issues in the field They have covered a wide array of topics including corporate governance auditing financial disclosure international standards boards and the dynamics of markets and institutions Most recently they have focused on the role that accounting practices and policies may have played in the global financial crisis of 2008 In this volume the editors showcase contributions from the workshops that represent the full spectrum of issues and perspectives relating to accounting and regulation Each paper incorporates the most current examples and references to reflect the latest insights with an emphasis on exploring future implications for theory and research practice and policymaking
