The Power of Saying No Vanessa Patrick PhD, 2023-06-01 USA Today Bestseller If you re tired of agreeing to annoying asks and thankless tasks read this book The Power of Saying No offers the smartest advice I ve ever encountered for declining requests without risking your reputation or your relationships This essential guide will sharpen your mind and steel your spine to live life on your own terms Daniel H Pink 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Power of Regret Drive and To Sell Is Human Stop saying yes Start saying no Change your life You have probably said yes to bosses partners family friends and even strangers when you actually want to say no Maybe you wish you could say no more often but you re not sure how or if it s even possible to do so

You're not alone. We're taught to say yes as often as we can. After all, if you say no, aren't you likely to miss out on opportunities and sever important relationships? Isn't saying no a harmony buster? In The Power of Saying No, award-winning professor and researcher Vanessa Patrick delves into the new science of saying no. She introduces the ground-breaking concept of empowered refusal, a proven framework for saying no that puts you in charge of your life and reveals some surprising secrets about the power of the word no. Dr. Patrick shares why empowered refusal is a valuable superskill that helps us say no in a way that does not invite pushback from others. The toolkit of three competencies you need to develop to effectively communicate an empowered no response. A framework to help separate the good for me from the not good for me activities and engagements that come our way. How to establish and implement personal policies that empower your refusal. How to use empowered refusal to manage difficult askers, strengthen your relationships, and realize your full potential. It's more important than ever to protect your time, focus on your top priorities, and use the power of saying no to reach your goals at work and at home. Empowered refusal is a unique, positive, and meaning-filled approach to managing your energy and ambition effectively, allowing you to make lasting positive changes in your life. This empowering book is a fascinating read that will help you with conflict resolution, boundaries, communication, and difficult conversations. The Power of Saying No will stay within arm's reach for me. It offers the explanations and the inspirations I need to take charge of my life and career with concrete tools to make it happen. I was able to put Vanessa Patrick's lessons to work the day I started reading the book and have continued every day since. Read this book twice. Dolly Chugh, author of The Person You Mean to Be and A More Just Future. Jacob B. Melnick, Term Professor at the NYU Stern School of Business.

Couple Skills Matthew McKay, Patrick Fanning, Kim Paleg, 2006-12-01. The new edition includes ways to use acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT) principles for better conflict management.

Win the Leadership Game Every Time Payal Nanjiani, 2022-07-29. Far away in the jungle of Africa, every morning a deer wakes up and decides to run faster than the fastest lion in that jungle. In the same jungle, every morning a lion wakes up and decides to run faster than the fattest deer in that jungle. Both the deer and the lion wake up with the aim to win. The deer wants to win to save its life. The lion wants to win to satisfy its hunger. They each have their reason to win. They are in the game for winning. None of them know whether or not they will win, yet they decide each day to win. Are you in the leadership game to win, or are you just a player in the game? Do you wake up each morning deciding to win, or do you wake up to go to work and simply complete your tasks? There is a huge difference between going to work to win and going to work to just be in the game. It is this difference that decides where each of us is on the growth ladder and where we will be. Those who are here to just be in the game are very concerned about their paycheck and job security. They fear taking risks and are overly cautious. These people view the game as an I win, you lose proposition. But those leaders who play to win do whatever is necessary to move things forward.

They're not reckless but proactive. They make the call that they fear. They have difficult conversations. They deal with the tricky issues that may put their outcomes at risk if things go south on them. These are the people who wake up each morning with the will to win. They know that winning has nothing to do with power, status, quo, position, or playing corporate politics. Winning is purely about being relentless and moving ahead in the game by focusing on your improvement and on the well-being of others. Winning is about having faith in yourself and in your abilities. Almost 75% of the people in the workforce get stuck at the mid-management level in the organization. These people have the best skills and abilities yet aren't able to move the needle significantly. This is because they don't know what it takes to win and get unstuck. The purpose of the nine crucial laws described in this book is to guide you to methodologically win the leadership game. There are two ways of winning the game. One by playing dirty corporate politics, bumping others to reach your goal, thinking solely about your growth and being selfish. Another and better way is to work on transforming yourself so you improve in the game each day. The rules of business are changing. The game is evolving with speed. New markets are emerging. A new generation of workforce is entering the game. We have entered into a digitally transformed world. The new leadership game cannot be played with old rules and competencies. Working with some great leaders has shown me how a leader can move with agility, speed, and flexibility to revamp the organization when faced with a business crisis. A leader's decisive and bold actions and their rapid and insightful response to crisis demonstrated the value of speed and serenity in setting a new course for their company. What are the new rules and competencies? How do we play and win the leadership game every time?
