Death in Contemporary Popular Culture Adriana Teodorescu, Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2019-11-26

With intense and violent portrayals of death becoming ever more common on television and in cinema and the growth of death centric movies series texts songs and video clips attracting a wide and enthusiastic global reception we might well ask whether death has ceased to be a taboo What makes thanatic themes so desirable in popular culture Do representations of the macabre and gore perpetuate or sublimate violent desires Has contemporary popular culture removed our unease with death Can social media help us cope with our mortality or can music and art present death as an aesthetic phenomenon This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach to the discussion of the social cultural aesthetic and theoretical aspects of the ways in which popular culture understands represents and manages death bringing together contributions from around the world focused on television cinema popular literature social media and the internet art music and advertising

Governing Death and Loss Stephen Conway, 2011 Political economic social cultural and technological changes have led to profound transformations in the ways that death and loss are perceived and managed in contemporary society Over the last few decades the long term shift to chronic illness as a major causal factor has significantly increased the time scale of dying Most people die in institutions and care is typically medical Many communities and ordinary citizens now relinquish control and involvement to experts in the last stages of life However at global and local levels new institutional arrangements are emerging to govern the changing face of death and a new model is being developed to counter claims of the creeping medicalisation of death and dying Emphasising the international context of the issues involved this book illustrates the interlinking nature of society death and loss and gives examples of governance that promotes the empowerment participation and the increasing need for the involvement of ordinary people and communities in differing social and cultural contexts All chapters are written at an accessible level and will appeal to a wide readership Part 1 of the book provides a sociological understanding of the governance of death and loss in international and historical contexts and the implications for practice

Part 2 provides examples of good practice drawing upon a sociological understanding Western Cavaliers Albert Henry Redford,1876 Howell's Annotated Statutes of the State of Michigan Michigan,Andrew Howell,1914 Maryland Digest Annotated, Covering All Reported and Many Unreported Decisions, from 1 Harris and McHenry to 123 Maryland ... Language death is an aspect of language contact which has occupied the interest of linguists from the past twenty five years or so Although the phenomenon of language death is occurring all over the world very few instances of it have been dealt with both from a sociolinguistic and formal linguistic standpoint Those that spring to mind are the works of Nancy Dorian on East Sutherland Gaelic and Hans J rgen Sasse on the Albanian dialect of Arvan tika in Greece In both instances it is dialects of languages that are treated and not complete languages themselves The study of language death in the Isle of Man deals with the decline and extinction of Manx Gaelic as a community language and as a language in its own right After setting the scenario of language death this study then looks into the sociolinguistic reasons which led to the decline and death of Manx in Man There then follows a detailed look into the study of language and language use in Man from early observations to the present day This section includes a detailed description of phonetic and sound recordings made of Manx over the period This leads to an in depth study into the formal linguistic situation of Manx tracing the development in its phonology morphophonology morphology morphosyntax and syntax idiom and lexicon which ultimately led to its demise As language revival is in itself a facet of language death the study concludes with a short excursus into the various efforts at language revival and maintenance in Man from the latter part of the 19th century to the present day The appendices include Professor Carl Marstrander s diary of his visits to Man 1929 33 published for the first time The diary contains percipient observations of the state of Manx in its final phase In short this study looks in some detail into the mechanics of language death on a once thriving and vibrant community language A Networked Self and Birth, Life, Death Zizi Papacharissi,2018-08-06

We are born live and die with technologies This book is about the role technology plays in sustaining narratives of living dying and coming to be Contributing authors examine how technologies connect disrupt or help us reorganize ways of parenting and nurturing life They further consider how technology sustains our ways of thinking and being hopefully reconciling the distance between who we are and who we aspire to be Finally they address the role technology plays in helping us come to terms with death looking at technologically enhanced memorials online rituals of mourning and patterns of grief enabled through technology Ultimately this volume is about using technology to reimagine the art of life Digest of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Washington Arthur Remington,1912 Atlantic Reporter ,1914 American Digest ,1928 Developing Language and Literacy Ronit Levie,Amalia Bar-On,Orit Ashkenazi,Elitzur Dattner,Gilad Brandes,2022-10-07
