From International Relations to Relations International Philip Darby, 2015-12-22 This book brings postcolonial critique directly to bear on established ways of theorizing international relations Its primary concern is with the non-European world and its relations with the North In advancing an alternative conception of relations international the book draws on alternative source material and different forms of writing It also features short stories an interview and explores the role of poetics and performance The suzerainty of the disciplinary writ is challenged on three primary grounds Firstly on its Eurocentrism which leads the discipline to pass lightly over the distinctive life experiences of most of the world's people Secondly on the discipline's failure to engage in any systematic way with other bodies of knowledge about the international as for example international political economy postcolonialism and development Lastly it confronts the top-down nature of the politics of the discipline and that seldom addresses everyday life From squatter towns to the evasions of the poor from law through to literature this work raises a number of problems for International relations It challenges a colonial mindset de-centres the west and opens the field to new approaches that are far more interdisciplinary than international relations generally allows It is a provocative contribution for students and scholars of IR and Postcolonial studies alike The

Bootleg Guide Garry Freeman, 2003-07-14 The Bootleg Guide is the ultimate in reference works for the 1960s and the 1970s bootleg recordings Within these pages lies a history of rock at its best as performed on stage or in the studio Each entry is catalogued by title date featured tracks and contains a quality rating and comments on the nature and origin of the recording Cross references are provided to other titles and extensive information is available on alternate titles of bootlegs In many cases quirky facts about a particular title are given something that in itself may make a title a highly desirable and sought-after rarity amongst collectors Limited editions are listed to help the reader and collector develop a clearer picture of just how obtainable a bootleg may be Bootlegs are unofficial live and studio recordings of artists and bands that are released onto vinyl tape or CD By definition most are so rare that they change hands only for vastly inflated sums or are traded by networks of dedicated collectors worldwide Serious fans and collectors have been known to spend as much as 225 for an original scratchy vinyl recording of bands like Deep Purple and the Grateful Dead dating back to the early seventies The rarest of all are akin to valuable paintings as far as collectors and traders are concerned A Destiny in the Making Boudewijn

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism. At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid.

Under Our Skin Donald McRae, 2012-03-29 Don McRae grew up in a South Africa where his father would call the black men he met boy and where his mother insisted that their black servants used tin mugs plates and cutlery as they ate the family's left over food in the backyard of their grand suburban property. The McRaes like so many white people seemed oblivious to the violent injustices of apartheid. As the author grew up the political differences between father and son widened and when Don refused to join up for National Service risking imprisonment or exile overseas the two were torn apart. It wasn't until years later that the author discovered that the father with whom he had fought so bitterly had later in his life transformed himself into a political hero. Risking everything one dark and rainy night Ian McRae travelled secretly into the black township of Soweto to meet members of Nelson Mandela's then banned African National Congress to discuss ways to bring power to black South Africa. He had no political ambitions he was just a man trying to replace the worst in himself with something better.

Under Our Skin is a memoir of these tumultuous years in South Africa's history as told through the author's family story. It offers an intimate and penetrating perspective on life under apartheid and tells a story of courage and fear hope and desolation and love and pain especially between a father and his son.
