On the Seashore Rodolfo Baldassarri, 2020-10-31 Rome Summer 1986 Meet Valerio Redi a modern day Dorian Gray All his life he has yearned for love dreamed of love written of love Yet always it has eluded him Through the ever beautiful but sometimes sordid streets of Rome Valerio pursues one woman after another in his never ceasing quest to find his soulmate One affair follows the next each woman more beautiful than the last and yet the spark is never quite there They toss him aside or he tosses them aside and Valerio's desire for love goes unfulfilled Until finally one day on the seashore he notices Barbara She captures his heart as he captures hers and what follows is a whirlwind of passion fury and romance as Valerio's dark side threatens to ruin his one true chance of happiness At its heart On the Sea Shore is a story of love anger and obsession A man battling with himself a man struggling to be good but drowning under the need to be bad In the end it is this inner turmoil that is Valerio's undoing

Juana. Adieu. A drama on the seashore. The red inn. The recruit. El verdugo. The elixir of life. The hated son. Maître Cornélius Honoré de Balzac, 1896 The Seashore Francis Martin Duncan, 1912 Sermonettes

from the Seashore Barry Blackstone, 2019-05-23 Coming from this preacher's love of the seashore is a series of sermonettes he heard while walking along some of the world's sandy beaches Stroll with this man as he shares his insights from days spent on seashores in the counties of Israel India Canada and Australia as well as the states of Alaska California Florida New Jersey and Maine Listen with him as he hears surf and sea sermons tide and tern tenets beach and breeze benedictions and sand and storm sermonettes Look with him into the face of a coastal nor easter watch with him as sea creatures and shoreline birds play together along the sea edge behold brilliant sunrises and amazing sunsets over distant shores with family and friends and observe the rising and falling of the great tides all events along a seashore that inspired these spiritual messages from the Almighty So take off your shoes let the sand fill the cracks between your toes lift your eyes toward the sea open your ears to the sound of the surf and be still and know that I am God Ps 46 10 What does God want to say The Seashore I Know William Percival Westell, Henry E. Turner, 1913 The Crab on the Seashore Jennifer Coldrey, 1986 Describes in text and photographs the lives of crabs in their natural habitat explaining how they feed defend themselves and breed Conversations on the Beach Gotz Hoeppe, 2007-01-01 Already on the margins of an agrarian society the marine fisherfolk of the South Indian state of Kerala are faced with a severe environmental problem overfishing The actions of trawlers and industrial fishing ships it seems have caused the resources on which they depend to dwindle rapidly Yet what may appear to be a clear cut case of cause effect and responsibility turns out to be a complex issue Local perceptions of the environment are deeply enmeshed with notions of morality the self and people's understanding of their place in society Overfishing is one of several environmental issues that bring into focus parallel knowledges giving rise to contradictory views on what the problems are whether changes are good or bad and how they are to be remedied As the fisherfolk confront the state a discourse develops on what is innate to the environment or natural and on what its malleability entails Based on ethnographic fieldwork among Hindus and Muslims in a coastal village this book explores the fisherfolk's environmental knowledge its transformation in a period of rapid socio economic and political change as well as its role in dealing with the state and the science putatively universal and objective upon which the state's policies are claimed to be based The book emphasises conversation as a cultural process metaphors and figurative speech in the investigation of knowledge as well as the use and limits of memory in conceptualising environmental change An Investigation of the Effects of Vehicular Traffic on the Beach Face Stephen P. Leatherman, 1977 Rabindranath Tagore Patrick Colm Hogan, Lalita Pandit, 2003 This collection provides a lucid introduction for those unfamiliar with Tagore's work while simultaneously presenting important new scholarship and novel interpretation Rabindranath Tagore is considered the greatest modern writer of India He is also one of the great social and political figures in modern Indian history After he received the Nobel Prize for literature in 1913 Tagore's reputation in the West has been based primarily on his mystical poetry But beyond poetry Tagore wrote novels of social realism treating nationalism religious intolerance and violence He wrote analytic works on social reform education and science even engaging in a brief dialogue with Albert Einstein Without ignoring religion and mysticism the essays in this collection concentrate on this other Tagore They explicate Tagore s writings in relation to its historical and literary context and at the same time draw out those aspects of Tagore s work that continue to bear on contemporary society RSPB Handbook of the Seashore Maya Plass,2016-04-21 A brand new RSPB guide to help you become a confident and learned explorer of the seashore How often have you visited the seashore and wished you knew more about the diverse and alien wildlife found on the UK s coastline There are incredible stories to discover about our coastal species so if the tantalising glimpses you ve caught of this semi aquatic environment between the tides has left you curious to learn more the RSPB Handbook of the Seashore is for you It will help you to easily identify and learn about the life cycles and anatomy of the species you discover and features useful sections on the tidal cycle how to read tide tables where to look conservation and climate change concerns and who to call should you come across something unexpected on your next beach visit Featuring over 200 species accounts each with a photo full description and details of distribution and zonation this brand new guide is written throughout in engaging text suitable for families students and anyone who loves to visit the seashore At the Beach Jean-Didier Urbain,2003 Around the world when people think of vacation it s the beach they want even when long distances must be traversed the seashore is the place to escape the rigors of modern life How did this come to be and what does our ongoing love affair with the beach mean How do shore vacations differ from traditional tourism and what does this tell us about our fears and dreams In At the Beach Jean Didier Urbain offers witty and insightful answers to these questions Urbain traces the transformation of the beach from a place of mythological threats and a demanding workplace fraught with danger to a destination for medical treatment and the pursuit of pleasure He looks to the emergence of the modern vacation in the nineteenth century examines representations of beachgoing in literature and the arts and shows the transgressive side of beach culture from nudism to hedonism to various scandals about costume behavior and sexuality that make the beach the site of social spectacle as well as leisure Urbain s ultimate focus is the paradoxical enterprise of the residential seaside vacationer who travels in order to stay in one place and who leaves the everyday world behind to reconstruct an idealized version of it at the shore He argues that unlike tourists who move from place to place beach vacationers are not seeking to explore nature to discover other cultures or even to get away from it all rather they are attempting to re create their own identities through a simplified community they can no longer find elsewhere Blending history with social observation Urbain presents an original incisive and entertaining account of this enduring ritual of escape and recreation Map Camp Project Israel Final Integrated Report and Selected Documents: Map Technical Reports Series 134 ,2001-12-31 The Influence of Aural Training in Music on the Perceptive Performance of Adult Learners' Sound-Discrimination Abilities in an Unknown Foreign Language Friederike Flottmann,2011 Can aural training in music enhance your sound discrimination abilities for languages The study sets off to answer this question by testing 50

German speaking students of non linguistic degrees for their abilities to discriminate between sounds in Finnish a language previously entirely unknown to them 25 randomly selected subjects then went through an aural training in music for two weeks before all the subjects were retested in their aural perceptive abilities in the Finnish language by means of a similar test containing different test items The hypothesised positive effect of the musical intervention could be partially proved by a statistically significant mean enhancement in the final scores achieved by the trained group compared to an insignificant enhancement achieved by the control group

Collecting Seashells by the Seashore Christine O'Neil

Harrison,2014-01-24 Those idyllic years on the cape those childhood days that shaped and formed and left such wistful memories of a bygone era of what could have been but perhaps never was For the mind can play such tricks as it ages becoming a selective as a thief stealing the good and leaving the rest But even the fragments left behind can change and shine just as bright expanding into that empty space that childhood once occupied How best then does one recover what s lost but to put pen to paper as Christine O Neil Harrison has done in her new book Collecting Seashells by the Seashore

The Outer Beach Robert Finch,2017-05-09 Finch is today s best most perceptive Cape Cod writer in a line extending all the way back to Henry David Thoreau Christian Science Monitor Weaving together Robert Finch s collected writings from over fifty years and a thousand miles of walking along Cape Cod s Atlantic coast The Outer Beach is a poignant candid chronicle of an iconic American landscape anyone with an appreciation for nature will cherish

Modernism at the Beach

Hannah Freed-Thall,2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought
