Pioneers and Progress Alix Clive Historical Club,1974 Alberta Newspapers 1880-1982: An Historical Directory Gloria Strathern,1988 Studies of Alberta s newspapers have generally concentrated on better known newspapers published in major centres and the organs of significant political parties Gloria H Strathern s exhaustive historical directory makes it possible to review the role of the press on a more comprehensive basis Finding Flora Elinor Florence,2025-04 A feminist historical fiction novel about a community of only women in early twentieth century Alberta all of whom are running from their pasts Imperial Plots Sarah Carter,2016-10-07 Sarah Carter s Imperial Plots Women Land and the Spadework of British Colonialism on the Canadian Prairies examines the goals aspirations and challenges met by women who sought land of their own Supporters of British women homesteaders argued they would contribute to the spade work of the Empire through their imperial plots replacing foreign settlers and relieving Britain of its surplus women Yet far into the twentieth century there was persistent opposition to the idea that women could or should farm British women were to be exemplars of an idealized white femininity not toiling in the fields In Canada heated debates about women farmers touched on issues of ethnicity race gender class and nation Despite legal and cultural obstacles and discrimination British women did acquire land as homesteaders farmers ranchers and speculators on the Canadian prairies They participated in the project of dispossessing Indigenous people Their complicity was however ambiguous and restricted because they were excluded from the power and privileges of their male counterparts Imperial Plots depicts the female farmers and ranchers of the prairies from the Indigenous women agriculturalists of the Plains to the array of women who resolved to work on the land in the first decades of the twentieth century Calgary's Grand Story Donald B. Smith,2005 Calgary was a boomtown of 50 000 people in 1912 the year the Lougheed Building and the adjacent Grand Theatre were built Through the great days of Vaudeville and classic cinema through the Depression two world wars and the oil and gas boom the Lougheed and the Grand were cornerstones of downtown Calgary As the city grew up around them questions about their future arose Complemented by over 140 historical images Calgary s Grand Story is a fascinating tribute to the Lougheed and the Grand and celebrates their unrivalled position in the city s political economic and cultural history FROM ALBERTA HOMESTEADS TO LIVING AND WORKING WORLDWIDE Dave Fretwell,Janet Fretwell,Family,2025-01-30 There is no available About the Book Information at the moment Subject Catalog, 1975 Library of Congress,1975 Place Names of Alberta Aphrodite Karamitsanis,Tracey Harrison,1991 A must for any namedropper If you need to know where you are in relation to somewhere else this is the series for you The books are more than gazetteers each place name entry includes the distance from the nearest well known populated place as well as the origin meaning and location of the geographical name The third in the most complete and current series about Alberta s toponymy Volume III reveals the fascinating history and unique cultural heritage of central Alberta There are full colour photographs in each volume Among the geographical names are many that pay tribute to the individuals and groups who contributed so much of their lives to a variety of enterprises that have made Alberta what it is today Place Names of Alberta Alberta. Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism, Geographical Names of Alberta Society. Friends, Tracey Harrison, 1991 Telling Tales Catherine A. Cavanaugh, Randi R. Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada's past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book covers a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West's characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement
