Piscinae Artificial Fishponds In Roman Italy:

Piscinae James Arnold Higginbotham, 1997 Pisciculture _the process of raising fish_ held a lasting fascination for the people of ancient Rome Whether bred for household consumption cultivated for sale at market or simply kept in confinement for reasons of aesthetic appreciation fish remained a The Economic Integration of Roman Italy Tymon C.A. de Haas, Gijs Tol, 2017-08-10 Over the past decades archaeological field surveys and excavations have greatly enriched our knowledge of the Roman countryside Drawing on such new data the volume The Economic Integration of Roman Italy edited by Tymon de Haas and Gijs Tol presents a series of papers that explore the changes Rome s territorial and economic expansion brought about in the countryside of the Italian peninsula By drawing on a variety of source materials e g pottery settlement patterns environmental data they shed light on the complexity of rural settlement and economies on the local regional and supra regional scales As such the volume contributes to a re assessment of Roman economic history in light of concepts such as globalisation integration economic performance and growth The Freedman in Roman Art and Art History Lauren Hackworth Petersen, 2011-09-19 From monumental tombs and domestic decoration to acts of benefaction and portraits of ancestors Roman freed slaves or freedmen were prodigious patrons of art and architecture Traditionally however the history of Roman art has been told primarily through the monumental remains of the emperors and ancient writers who worked in their circles In this study Lauren Petersen critically investigates the notion of freedman art in scholarship dependent as it is on elite authored texts that are filled with hyperbole and stereotypes of freedmen such as the memorable fictional character Trimalchio a boorish ex slave in Petronius Satyricon She emphasizes integrated visual ensembles within defined historical and social contexts and aims to show how material culture can reflect preoccupations that were prevalent throughout Roman society Interdisciplinary in scope this book explores the many ways that monuments and artistic commissions by freedmen spoke to a much more complex reality than that presented in literature Farmers and Agriculture in the Roman Economy David B. Hollander, 2018-07-11 Often viewed as self sufficient Roman farmers actually depended on markets to supply them with a wide range of goods and services from metal tools to medical expertise However the nature extent and implications of their market interactions remain unclear This monograph uses literary and archaeological evidence to examine how farmers from smallholders to the owners of large estates bought and sold lent and borrowed and cooperated as well as competed in the Roman economy A clearer picture of the relationship between farmers and markets allows us to gauge their collective impact on and exposure to macroeconomic phenomena such as monetization and changes in the level and nature of demand for goods and labor After considering the demographic and environmental context of Italian agriculture the author explores three interrelated questions what goods and services did farmers purchase how did farmers acquire the money with which to make those purchases and what factors drove farmers economic decisions This book provides a portrait of the economic world of the Roman farmer in late Republican and early Imperial Italy The Roman Villa in the Mediterranean Basin

Annalisa Marzano, Guy P. R. Métraux, 2018-07-12 This volume offers a comprehensive survey of Roman villas in Italy and the Mediterranean provinces of the Roman Empire from their origins to the collapse of the Empire The architecture of villas could be humble or grand and sometimes luxurious Villas were most often farms where wine olive oil cereals and manufactured goods among other products were produced They were also venues for hospitality conversation and thinking on pagan and ultimately Christian themes Villas spread as the Empire grew Like towns and cities they became the means of power and assimilation just as infrastructure such as aqueducts and bridges was transforming the Mediterranean into a Roman sea The distinctive Roman Italian villa type was transferred to the provinces resulting in Mediterranean wide culture of rural dwelling and work that further unified the Empire Caligula's Barges and the Renaissance Origins of Nautical Archaeology Under Water John M. McManamon, 2016-12-09 Sometime around 1446 A D Cardinal Prospero Colonna commissioned engineer Battista Alberti to raise two immense Roman vessels from the bottom of the lago di Nemi just south of Rome By that time local fishermen had been fouling their nets and occasionally recovering stray objects from the sunken ships for 800 years Having no idea of the size of the objects he was attempting to recover Alberti failed For most of the next 500 years various attempts were made to recover the vessels Finally in 1928 Mussolini ordered the draining of the lake to remove the vessels and place them on the lake shore In 1944 the ships burned in a fire that was generally blamed on the Germans John M McManamon connects these attempts at underwater archaeology with the Renaissance interest in reconstructing the past in order to affect the present Nautical and marine archaeologists as well as students and scholars of Renaissance history and historiography will appreciate this masterfully researched and gracefully written work Art and Inscriptions in the Ancient World Zahra Newby, Ruth Leader-Newby, 2007 This book explores the juxtapositions of image and text in a wide variety of ancient works of art The Oxford Handbook of Animals in Classical Thought and Life Gordon Lindsay Campbell, 2014-08-28 The Oxford Handbook of Animals in Classical Thought and Life is the first comprehensive guide to animals in the ancient world encompassing all aspects of the topic by featuring authoritative chapters on 33 topics by leading scholars in their fields As well as an introduction to and a survey of each topic it provides guidance on further reading for those who wish to study a particular area in greater depth Both the realities and the more theoretical aspects of the treatment of animals in ancient times are covered in chapters which explore the domestication of animals animal husbandry animals as pets Aesop's Fables and animals in classical art and comedy all of which closely examine the nature of human animal interaction More abstract and philosophical topics are also addressed including animal communication early ideas on the origin of species and philosophical vegetarianism and the notion of animal rights The Triumph and Trade of Egyptian Objects in Rome Stephanie Pearson, 2021-04-06 From gleaming hardstone statues to bright frescoes the unexpected and often spectacular Egyptian objects discovered in Roman Italy have long presented an interpretive challenge How they shaped and were shaped by religion politics and identity formation has now been well researched But one crucial function of these objects remains to be explored their role as precious goods in a collector's economy The Romans imported and recreated Egyptian goods in the most opulent materials available gold gems expensive wood ivory luxurious textiles and displayed them like true treasures This is due in part to the way Romans encountered these items as argued in this book first as dazzling spolia from the war against Cleopatra then as costly wares exchanged over the expanding Roman trade routes In this respect Romans treated Egyptian art surprisingly similarly to Greek art By examining the concrete mechanisms through which Egyptian objects were acquired and displayed in Rome this book offers a new understanding of this impressive material at the crossroads of Hellenistic Roman and Egyptian culture

A Cultural History of Food in Antiquity Paul Erdkamp, 2014-05-22 From Archaic Greece until the Late Roman Empire c 800 BCE to c 500 CE food was more than a physical necessity it was a critical factor in politics economics and culture On the one hand the Mediterranean landscape and climate encouraged particular crops notably cereals vines and olives but with the risks of crop failure ever present control of food resources was vital to economic and political power On the other hand diet and dining reflected complex social hierarchies and relationships What was eaten with whom and when was a fundamental part of the expression of one's role and place in society In addition symbolism and ritual suffused foodstuffs their preparation and consumption

A Cultural History of Food in Antiquity presents an overview of the period with essays on food production food systems food security safety and crises food and politics eating out professional cooking kitchens and service work family and domesticity body and soul representations of food and developments in food production and consumption globally

Aquaculture Landscapes Michael Ezban, 2019-07-26 Aquaculture Landscapes explores the landscape architecture of farms reefs parks and cities that are designed to entwine the lives of fish and humans In the twenty first century aquaculture's contribution to the supply of fish for human consumption exceeds that of wild caught fish for the first time in history Aquaculture has emerged as the fastest growing food production sector in the world but aquaculture has agency beyond simply converting fish to food

Aquaculture Landscapes recovers aquaculture as a practice with a deep history of constructing extraordinary landscapes These landscapes are characterized and enriched by multispecies interdependency performative ecologies collaborative practices and aesthetic experiences between humans and fish

Aquaculture Landscapes presents over thirty contemporary and historical landscapes spanning six continents with incisive diagrams and vivid photographs Within this expansive scope is a focus on urban aquaculture projects by leading designers including Turenscape James Corner Field Operations and SCAPE that employ mutually beneficial strategies for fish and humans to address urban coastal resiliency wastewater management and other contemporary urban challenges Michael Ezban delivers a compelling account of the coalitions of fish and humans that shape the form function and identity of cities and he offers a forward thinking theorization of landscape as the preeminent medium for the design of ichthyological urbanism in the Anthropocene With over two hundred evocative images including ninety original drawings by the author Aquaculture Landscapes is a richly illustrated portrayal of aquaculture seen through the disciplinary lens of landscape architecture As the first book devoted to this topic Aquaculture Landscapes is an original and essential resource for landscape architects urbanists animal geographers aquaculturists and all who seek and value multispecies cohabitation of a shared public realm Destinations in Mind Kimberly

Cassibry,2021-05-18 This is a book about the Roman Empire s places how they were represented on circulating objects and how they helped viewers imagine distant destinations The book will interest readers fascinated by Roman sports forts resorts ports and travel It explores the craftsmanship of lustrous silver translucent glass and colorfully enameled vessels now on display in museums around the world Scholars working on souvenirs material texts and globalization will be drawn to the new framework established for the analysis of artifacts depicting landmarks The book complements recent work on mapping and travel by recovering the nuanced senses of place that Romans had in mind A Primer of Ecological Aquaculture

Dietmar Kültz,2022 A concise primer that introduces students to the basic concepts opportunities and challenges of aquaculture with an emphasis on ecological considerations providing a critical assessment of current aquaculture practices from a broad interdisciplinary perspective Allegories of Farming from Greece and Rome Leah Kronenberg,2009-05-14 In this book Professor Kronenberg shows that Xenophon s Oeconomicus Varro s De Re Rustica and Virgil s Georgics are not simply works on farming but belong to a tradition of philosophical satire which uses allegory and irony to question the meaning of morality These works metaphorically connect farming and its related arts to political life but instead of presenting farming in its traditional guise as a positive symbol they use it to model the deficiencies of the active life which in turn is juxtaposed to a preferred contemplative way of life Although these three texts are not usually treated together this book convincingly connects them with an original and provocative interpretation of their allegorical use of farming It also fills an important gap in our understanding of the literary influences on the Georgics by showing that it is shaped not just by its poetic predecessors but by philosophical dialogue Butrint 7 David Hernandez,Richard Hodges,2020-12-14 This volume brings together unpublished Italian and Albanian archaeological reports and new archaeological studies from recent fieldwork that throw new light on the archaeology and history of the Pavllas River Valley the Mediterranean alluvial plain in the territory of Butrint ancient Buthrotum in southwestern Albania It gives prominence for the first time to two important sites Kalivo and uka e Aitoit which are here reinterpreted and shown to have played major roles in the early history of Butrint as it evolved in the later first millennium BC to emerge as the key city of Chaonia in Epirus Butrint 7 also presents the full excavation report of the Late Bronze Age and Hellenistic fortified site of Mursi in addition to other Butrint Foundation surveys and excavations in the hinterland of Butrint including the Roman villa maritima at Diaporit the villa suburbana on the Vrina Plain and Roman sites on Alinura Bay and at the Customs House as well as new surveys of the early modern Triangular Fortress and a survey to locate the lost Venetian village of Zar pulo The volume also features a new study of the Hellenistic bronze statuette of Pan found on Mount Mile and of his sanctuary at Butrint The volume concludes with a comprehensive reassessment of the Pavllas River Valley in relation to Butrint from the Palaeolithic to the modern eras examining how dominion territory environment and the corrupting sea reshaped Butrint and its fluvial corridor diachronically and particularly brought profound territorial economic and social alterations under the Roman Empire Constructing Autocracy Matthew B. Roller, 2016-05-31 Rome's transition from a republican system of government to an imperial regime comprised more than a century of civil upheaval and rapid institutional change Yet the establishment of a ruling dynasty centered around a single leader came as a cultural and political shock to Rome's aristocracy who had shared power in the previous political order How did the imperial regime manage to establish itself and how did the Roman elites from the time of Julius Caesar to Nero make sense of it In this compelling book Matthew Roller reveals a dialogical process at work in which writers and philosophers vigorously negotiated and contested the nature and scope of the emperor's authority despite the consensus that he was the ultimate authority figure in Roman society Roller seeks evidence for this thinking out of the new order in a wide range of republican and imperial authors with an emphasis on Lucan and Seneca the Younger He shows how elites assessed the impact of the imperial system on traditional aristocratic ethics and examines how several longstanding authority relationships in Roman society those of master to slave father to son and gift creditor to gift debtor became competing models for how the emperor did or should relate to his aristocratic subjects By revealing this ideological activity to be not merely reactive but also constitutive of the new order Roller contributes to ongoing debates about the character of the Roman imperial system and about the politics of literature Imperium and Cosmos Paul Rehak, 2009-05-20 Caesar Augustus promoted a modest image of himself as the first among equals princeps a characterization that was as popular with the ancient Romans as it is with many scholars today Paul Rehak argues against this impression of humility and suggests that like the monarchs of the Hellenistic age Augustus sought immortality an eternal glory gained through deliberate planning for his niche in history while flexing his existing power Imperium and Cosmos focuses on Augustus's Mausoleum and Ustrinum site of his cremation the Horologium Solarium a colossal sundial and the Ara Pacis Altar to Augustan Peace all of which transformed the northern Campus Martius into a tribute to his major achievements in life and a vast memorial for his deification after death Rehak closely examines the artistic imagery on these monuments providing numerous illustrations tables and charts In an analysis firmly contextualized by a thorough discussion of the earlier models and motifs that inspired these Augustan monuments Rehak shows how the princeps used these on such an unprecedented scale as to truly elevate himself above the common citizen The Ocean of Life Callum Roberts, 2012-05-24 A Silent Spring for oceans written by the Rachel Carson of the fish world The New York Times Who can forget the sense of wonder with which they discovered the creatures of the deep In this vibrant hymn to the sea Callum Roberts one of the world's foremost conservation biologists leads readers on a fascinating tour of mankind's relationship to the sea from the earliest traces of water on earth to the oceans as we know them today In the process Roberts looks at how the taming of the oceans has shaped human civilization and affected marine life We have always been fish eaters from the dawn of civilization but in the last twenty years we have transformed the oceans beyond recognition Putting our exploitation of the seas into historical context Roberts offers a devastating account of the impact of modern fishing techniques pollution and climate change and reveals what it would take to steer the right course while there is still time Like Four Fish and The Omnivore's Dilemma The Ocean of Life takes a long view to tell a story in which each one of us has a role to play
