Place Of Maurice Blanchot:

Yale French Studies, 1948 Faux Pas Maurice Blanchot, Charlotte Mandell, 2001 Published in France in 1943 Faux Pas is the first collection of essays on literature and language by Maurice Blanchot the most lucid and powerful French critic of the second half of the 20th century Roots and Routes: Poetics at New College of California Patrick James Dunagan, Marina Lazzara, Nicholas James Whittington, 2020-10-06 Roots and Routes gathers essays talks interviews statements notes and other prose writings by poets who studied and or taught at the New College of California's Masters in Poetics program over the course of its nearly 30 year existence The collection evokes a much needed anti hierarchical even anarchic pedagogy in poetry poetics and the literary arts and is part of a general reevaluation of standard higher education models on Creative Writing As such it will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars interested in America's recent literary history as well as to poets outside the academy and the general reader interested in US poetry and poetics The Instant of My Death /Demeure Maurice Blanchot, Elizabeth Rottenberg, 2000 This volume a powerful short prose piece by Blanchot with an extended essay by Derrida records a remarkable encounter in critical and philosophical thinking The Unavowable Community Maurice Blanchot, 2006-06 The Unavowable Community is an inquiry into the nature and possibility of community asking whether there can be a community of individuals that is truly communal The problem for Blanchot is that the very terms of an ideal community make an avowal of membership in it a violation of the terms themselves This meditation ranges from the problematic effects of a defect in language to actual historical experiments in community The latter involves the life and work of George Bataille whose concerns e.g. the negative community occupy the foreground of Blanchot's discussion Taking as his point of departure an essay by French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy Blanchot appears once again as one of the most attentive readers of what is truly challenging in French thought His deep interest in the fiction of Marguerite Duras extends this inquiry to include The Community of Lovers emerging from certain themes in Duras' recit The Malady of Death As Blanchot's first direct treatment of a subject that has long figured in or behind his work this small but highly concentrated book stands as an important addition to his own contribution to literary philosophical social and political thought figuring as it does at the center of the emerging concern for a redefinition of politics and community Readers of Blanchot know not to expect answers to the great questions that move his thought rather to live with the questions at the new level to which they have been raised in his discourse The Continental Aesthetics Reader Clive Cazeaux, 2017-10-03 The Continental Aesthetics Reader brings together classic and contemporary writings on art and aesthetics from the major figures in continental thought The second edition is clearly divided into seven sections Nineteenth Century German Aesthetics Phenomenology and Hermeneutics Marxism and Critical Theory Excess and Affect Embodiment and Technology Poststructuralism and Postmodernism Aesthetic Ontologies Each section is clearly placed in its historical and philosophical context and each philosopher has an introduction by Clive Cazeaux An updated list of readings for this edition includes selections from Agamben Butler Guattari Nancy Virilio and iek Suggestions for further reading are given and there is a glossary of over fifty key terms Ideal for introductory courses in aesthetics continental philosophy art and visual studies The Continental Aesthetics Reader provides a thorough introduction to some of the most influential writings on art and aesthetics from Kant and Hegel to Badiou and Ranci

Metamorphosis and Place Mohamed Bakari,Joshua Parker,Lucie Tunkrova,2009-05-27 If personal and national identity is often constructed in terms of place how do our identities and values change as places themselves are transformed What happens to the spaces in which we live as societal values and identities change These questions can be asked of almost any discipline whether one is taking a photograph or mapping a literary topography tracing linguistic change in a geographic region or language s importance to our conception of a political territory building a house or place of worship on a physical plot of land or constructing them from words on a page or computer software Few places are ever uniquely our own We share them knowing that the geographic points stabilizing our own identities serve on their reverse side to support an entirely different set of meanings We project our cultural or disciplinary markers onto landscapes which are already hardly blank but full of others meanings This collection brings together scholars from a range of disciplines including literary and cultural studies history political science architecture anthropology photography and art history communications sociology lexicography linguistics tourism management and theoretical psychoanalysis each shedding light on how place is both a transforming subject and a transformed object

The Beast and the Sovereign, Volume II Jacques Derrida,2017-02-02 Following on from The Beast and the Sovereign Volume I this book extends Jacques Derrida s exploration of the connections between animality and sovereignty In this second year of the seminar originally presented in 2002 2003 as the last course he would give before his death Derrida focuses on two markedly different texts Heidegger s 1929 1930 course The Fundamental Concepts of Metaphysics and Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe As he moves back and forth between the two works Derrida pursuesthe relations between solitude insularity world violence boredom and death as they supposedly affect humans and animals in different ways Hitherto unnoticed or underappreciated aspects of Robinson Crusoe are brought out in strikingly original readings of questions such as Crusoe s belief in ghosts his learning to pray his parrot Poll and his reinvention of the wheel Crusoe s terror of being buried alive or swallowed alive by beasts or cannibals gives rise to a rich and provocative reflection on death burial and cremation in part provoked by a meditation on the death of Derrida s friend Maurice Blanchot Throughout these readings are juxtaposed with interpretations of Heidegger s concepts of world and finitude to produce a distinctively Derridean account that will continue to surprise his readers

The Event Ilai Rowner, 2015 What is an event From a philosophical perspective events are irregular occurrences moments of change and interruption categorized by human perception language and thought While philosophers have pored over the subject of events extensively in recent years The Event Literature and Theory seeks to ground it What is literature's approach to the event How does literature produce and give testimony to events Ilai Rowner's study not only revisits some of the most important thinkers of our time including Maurice Blanchot Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida and Martin Heidegger it also develops a critical approach to literature that questions the meaning of the literary event through examinations of literary works by Marcel Proust Louis Ferdinand Celine and T S Eliot Rowner offers a new method of thinking about the particular characteristics of the event within literary works and defines the creative value of literature as the aspiration toward the un happening within the happening In this study the experience of literature as an act of both writing and reading becomes the struggle to capture the excessive movement of the event while also revealing the creative energy within that work of literature
