Poor Discipline Jonathan Simon,1993 Breaking the Pendulum Philip Russell Goodman,Joshua Page,Michelle Phelps,2017 In Breaking the Pendulum Philip Goodman Joshua Page and Michelle Phelps debunk the pendulum model of American criminal justice arguing that it distorts how and why punishment changes From the birth of the penitentiary through recent reforms the authors show how the struggle of players in the penal field shapes punishment The Criminology of Criminal Law William Laufer,2017-07-05 The Criminology of Criminal Law considers the relation between criminal law and theories of crime criminality and justice This book discusses a wide range of topics including the way in which white collar crime is defined new perspectives on stranger violence the reasons why criminologists have neglected the study of genocide the idea of boundary crossing in the control of deviance the relation between punishment and social solidarity the connection between the notion of justice and modern sentencing theory the social reaction to treason and the association between politics and punitiveness Contributors include Bonnie Berry Don Gottfredson David F Greenberg Marc Riedel Jason Rourke Kip Schlegel Vered Vinitzky Seroussi Leslie T Wilkins Marvin E Wolfgang and Richard A Wright The Criminology of Criminal Law concludes with an analysis of the results of a study on the most cited scholars in the Advances in Criminological Theory series This work will be beneficial to criminologists sociologists and scholars of legal studies Advances in Criminological Theory is the first series exclusively dedicated to the dissemination of original work on criminological theory It was created to overcome the neglect of theory construction and validation in existing criminological publications Paper Families Estelle T.
