Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age Samuel Dill,1926 Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age Samuel Dill,1926 Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age... Samuel Dill,1956 Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age Samuel Dill,1926 The Laws of the Salian Franks ,2012-05-23 Following the collapse of the western Roman Empire the Franks established in northern Gaul one of the most enduring of the Germanic barbarian kingdoms They produced a legal code which they called the Salic law at approximately the same time that the Visigoths and Burgundians produced theirs but the Frankish code is the least Romanized and most Germanic of the three Unlike Roman law this code does not emphasize marriage and the family inheritance gifts and contracts rather Lex Salica is largely devoted to establishing fixed monetary or other penalties for a wide variety of damaging acts such as killing women and children striking a man on the head so that the brain shows or skinning a dead horse without the consent of its owner An important resource for students and scholars of medieval and legal history made available once again in Katherine Fischer Drew's expert translation the code contains much information on Frankish judicial procedure Drew has here rendered into readable English the Pactus Legis Salicae generally believed to have been issued by the Frankish King Clovis in the early sixth century and modified by his sons and grandson Childbert I Chlotar I and Chilperic I In addition she provides a translation of the Lex Salica Karolina the code as corrected and reissued some three centuries later by Charlemagne Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason,2018-03-29 Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 A Guide for Studying and Teaching empowers students by providing them with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period Throughout the book major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence The book's aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non written sources Accessibly written and containing over 70 carefully selected maps and images Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 is an essential resource for students studying this period for the first time as well as an invaluable aid to university teachers devising and delivering courses and modules on the period Poems to Friends Venantius Fortunatus,2010-09-15 Owing to the rich storehouse of information it contains the poetry of Venantius Fortunatus c 535 600 has long been mined as a historical source for Merovingian society a focus that overshadows an appreciation of the poems literary value This volume offering free verse translations of Fortunatus personal poetry remains faithful to the historical sweep of the poet's lines while paying attention to the literary qualities that make these poems masterpieces of their kind The volume includes an overview of late antique Gaul Fortunatus biography interpretations of the poems prosopographical introductions maps bibliography and indices The Battle of Vouillé, 507 CE Ralph W. Mathisen, Danuta Shanzer, 2012-07-04 This volume highlights the heretofore largely neglected Battle of Vouill in 507 CE when the Frankish King Clovis defeated Alaric II the King of the Visigoths Clovis victory proved a crucial step in the expulsion of the Visigoths from Francia into Spain thereby leaving Gaul largely to the Franks It was arguably in the wake of Vouill that Gaul became Francia and that France began The editors have united an international team of experts on Late Antiquity and the Merovingian Kingdoms to reexamine the battle from multiple as well as interdisciplinary perspectives The contributions address questions of military strategy geographical location archaeological footprint political background religious propaganda consequences both in Francia and in Italy and significance There is a strong focus on the close reading of primary source material both textual and material secular and theological The Middle Ages Edward Maslin Hulme, 1929 The Early Medieval World Michael Frassetto, 2013-03-14 This book examines a pivotal period in ancient human history the fall of the Roman Empire and the birth of a new European civilization in the early Middle Ages The Early Medieval World From the Fall of Rome to the Time of Charlemagne addresses the social and material culture of this critical period in the evolution of Western society covering the social political cultural and religious history of the Mediterranean world and northern Europe The two volume set explains how invading and migrating barbarian tribes spurred by raiding Huns from the steppes of Central Asia contributed to the fall of the Western Roman Empire and documents how the blending of Greco Roman Germanic and Christian cultures birthed a new civilization in Western Europe creating the Christian Church and the modern nation state A Z entries discuss political transformation changing religious practices in daily life sculpture and the arts material culture and social structure and provide biographies of important men and women in the transitional period of late antiquity The work will be extremely helpful to students learning about the factors that contributed to the decline of the Roman Empire an important and common topic in world history curricula
