 Richards,1986 Among the most commonly argued legal questions are those involving victimless crimes consensual adult sexual relations including homosexuality and prostitution the use of drugs and the right to die How can they be distinguished from proper crimes and how can we as citizens judge the complex moral and legal issues that such questions entail David Richards a teacher of law in the areas of constitutional and criminal law and a moral and legal philosopher concerned with the investigation of legal concepts applies an interdisciplinary approach to the question of overcriminalization he draws on legal and philosophical arguments and links the subject to history psychology social science and literature To demonstrate how gross and unjust overcriminalization has developed Professor Richards explores basic assumptions that often underlie the common American sense of proper criminalization Library Book Catalog National Institute of Law Enforcement and

 Drury,2019-09-09 Originally published in 1982 The Shaman and the Magician draws on the author s wide experience of occultism western magic and anthropological knowledge of shamanism to explore the interesting parallels between traditional shamanism and the more visionary aspects of magic in modern western society In both cases as the author shows the magician encounters profound god energies of the spirit and it is up to the individual to interpret these experiences in psychological or mythological terms The book demonstrates that both shamanism and magic offer techniques of approaching
