Security Arrangements In The Gulf:

US Security Arrangements in the Persian Gulf, 1987      Security Arrangements in the Persian Gulf Mahboubeh F. Sadeghinia, 2011 Helps us to understand the reasons for the failure of security models in the Persian Gulf This book provides a fresh model that addresses the need for a stable and peaceful structure of relationships provides security for individual littoral states and also assures the interests of the external powers      The Culture of National Security Peter J. Katzenstein, 1996 The political transformations of the 1980s and 1990s have dramatically affected models of national and international security Particularly since the end of the Cold War scholars have been uncertain about how to interpret the effects of major shifts in the balance of power Are we living today in a unipolar bipolar or multipolar world Are we moving toward an international order that makes the recurrence of major war in Europe or Asia highly unlikely or virtually inevitable Is ideological conflict between states diminishing or increasing      Regional Security Arrangements Jusuf Wanandi, 1996

Security Arrangements in the Gulf Caspar W. Weinberger, 1988      The Greater Middle East in Global Politics Mehdi Amineh, 2007-10-30 This anthology unites in one volume two studies of the Greater Middle East in global politics each conceptual and empirical First it is a historical comparative study of politics and societies in selected Greater Middle Eastern countries from Napoleon's invasion of Ottoman Egypt in 1798 up until today It addresses development and change in these societies as results of the complex interactions between external developments the rise and expansion of European industrialized powers and internal developments the disintegration of Islamic Empires their transformation into nation states and their efforts to industrialize and modernize Second it is an empirical case study of states and societies of the Greater Middle East in global politics addressing themes such as nationalism revolution political Islam democracy globalization regionalism revolution war energy and conflict and cooperation The book is comprised of three parts and nineteen chapters Contributors include Mehdi Parvizi Amineh Simon Bromley Robert M Cutler Louisa Dris A t Hamadouche S N Eisenstadt Femke Hoogeveen Henk Houweling B M Jain Mehran Kamrava Roger Kangas Fred H Lawson Prithvi Ram Mudiam Nilgun Onder Wilbur Perlot Richard Pomfret Kurt W Radtke Mirzohid Rahimov Eva Patricia Rakel and Yahia H Zoubir      Facets of Security in the United Arab Emirates William Gueraiche, Kristian Alexander, 2022-01-23 The United Arab Emirates UAE has elaborated its own philosophy of security Driven by emergencies and increasing risks both in the region and globally Emirati authorities have developed a sense of anticipation as well as an agility to react promptly to new threats through the ability to assess the risks in any given situation War and the avatars of conflict are a constant reality in the Middle East Transnational threats including the regional context the war in Yemen insecurity in the Levant and tensions with Iran affect the overall stability of the Peninsula and consequently that of the UAE Owing to the inclusion of the UAE in the networks of globalization non traditional security issues are not relegated to the background Issues such as COVID 19 immigration cybersecurity and human trafficking need to be addressed domestically as well as globally This volume offers a comprehensive and multifaceted examination of the traditional and non traditional security measures present in the UAE that allow the country to remain politically stable in an otherwise volatile region and aims to offer a comprehensive overview of all forms of security in the UAE powers old and new to intervene The authors argue that this situation may turn into an additional source of instability and that the creation of an inclusive and comprehensive regional security architecture as well as the strengthening of regional multilateralism should be the priority of all stakeholders in the coming decade Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czesław Mesjasz, John Grin, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, Béchir Chourou, Pál Dunay, Joern Birkmann, 2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions

Iran's Regional Relations Seyed Mohammad Houshisadat, 2020-10-05 Focusing on the interplay between domestic level changes and region wide interaction this book provides a comprehensive analytical and theoretical survey of Iranian foreign relations in the Middle East from Antiquity until the Islamic Republic It charts developments from the earliest regimes in Persia including the Median kingdom and the Sassanid Empire through rule by amongst others Abbasids Mongols Safavids and Qajars up to the modern states of the Shah and the Islamic Republic Throughout the author reflects on the enduring factors which have shaped Iran's relations with the rest of the region factors such as geography culture the belief systems of policy makers the structures of decision making and government and sub regional systems Overall the book provides a deep analysis of Iranian foreign relations in the Middle East over 4 700 years The Regionalization of Warfare James Brown, 2023-03-31 Three wars have dominated world events in recent years The conflict which erupted between the United Kingdom and Argentina over the Falkland Malvinas Islands the multinational conflict in Lebanon involving Israeli Syrian and FLO forces in Lebanon and the savage struggles between ground and air units of the Iranian and Iraqi forces The scale and intensity of these wars their potential for global conflict make them crucial for an understanding among citizens in general and defense and political analysts in particular The authors and contributors to this most unusual volume come to several common conclusions professionalism is a crucial factor in military effectiveness but not necessarily dependent on modes of recruitment high technology is crucial but only in relation to the quality and training of the personnel public support is necessary to sustain military morale in democratic and authoritarian regimes alike These are only some of the incisive findings registered and explored in The Regionalization of Warfare The volume assembles experts not only on these three major regional and interregional conflicts but on current U S defense policies Soviet strategic interests in Middle East and Persian Gulf conflicts and a series of papers on lessons learned and unlearned as a result of these small wars of the early 1980s For those interested in military history global strategy and regional rivalries this collection of finely written sophisticated papers will prove to be of intense concern The Development of Saudi-Iranian Relations since the 1990s Fahad M. Alsultan, Pedram Saeid, 2016-08-25 Saudi Arabia and Iran have established themselves as the two regional heavyweights in one of the world's most tumultuous but critically significant regions The two countries compete on many fronts including regional politics oil prices and for leadership of the Islamic world a competition with undeniable repercussions for the Greater Middle East and for the world Some observers have gone so far as to claim that virtually everything that happens in this area of the world can be viewed as part of the Saudi Iranian power struggle With increasing importance of the region as the dominant supplier of world energy and the birthplace of Islamic militant groups the consequences of not understanding Saudi Iranian rivalry in the region have never been more serious A range of internal and external explanatory factors explains the ups and downs of Saudi Iranian relations since the 1990s This book captures this complexity by drawing on multicausal explanations through multiple levels of interdisciplinary analysis This is the first book on the subject that is co-authored by one author from Saudi Arabia and one from Iran This collaboration allowed the authors to make the best use of Persian and Arabic sources generating a locally meaningful account of the two countries relationship As Iranian and Saudi nationals they encountered less difficulty in gaining access to research participants building rapport and conducting interviews with Iranian and Saudi scholars and informants Middle East and Europe B. A. Roberson, 2005-06-23 Leading commentators on Europe and the Middle East explore many of the key issues which have informed the relationship between the two regions Ranging from Europe's colonial legacies to an uncertain economic future in the region the book covers the Cold War and after the profound influence of the US the rise of political Islam case studies including Europe and the Iranian revolution France's experiences in Algeria and Turkey's position between the two regions The EU it is argued has more influence over economic strategies than security issues in the Middle East These strategies have in turn promoted stability in the form of free trade zones ensuring vital economic development between the Middle East and Europe Middle East Contemporary Survey, Volume Xvi, 1992 Ami Ayalon, 1994-12 A number of contributors explore contemporary Middle East countries and look at how and if they have moved forward It looks at the rise of religious extremists and the Arab Israeli peace process stimulated by the change of government in Israel
