Seeing Kyoto:

Seeing Kyoto Juliet Winters Carpenter, 2005 Kyoto is the heart and soul of Japan the repository and guardian of its ancient spirit With an informative text and 150 stunning colour images this beautifully produced book reveals all the charm and elegance of Japan's most loved city Part 1 looks at historical Kyoto Part 2 portrays the life and culture of the city Part 3 introduces its immediate predecessor as capital and close neighbour Nara Part 4 tackles the juxtaposition of old and new in the Kyoto of today Seeing Japan Charles T. Whipple, 2005 The scenes and images that best typify Japan are showcased in this lavish introduction full colour photographs throughout with a succinct and illuminating text Part 1 presents the tremendous range of landscapes and customs in the various distinctive regions of this surprisingly large and diverse nation while Part 2 concentrates on the arts and traditions of culture that has been nurtured over centuries Part 3 offers essential background on the country's history language and people

Urban Spaces in Japan Christoph Brumann, Evelyn Schulz, 2012 Urban Spaces in Japan explores the workings of power money and the public interest in the planning and design of Japanese space Through a set of vivid case studies of well known Japanese cities including Tokyo Kobe and Kyoto this book examines the potential of civil society in contemporary planning debates Further it addresses the implications of Japan's biggest social problem the demographic decline for Japanese cities and demonstrates the serious challenges and exciting possibilities that result from the impending end of Japan's urban growth Presenting a synthetic approach that reflects both the physical aspects and the social significance of urban spaces this book scrutinizes the precise patterns of urban expansion and shrinkage In doing so it also summarizes current theories of public space urban space and the body in space which are relevant to both Japan and the wider international debate With detailed case studies and more general reflections from a broad range of disciplines this collection of essays demonstrates the value of cross disciplinary cooperation As such it is of interest to students and scholars of geography and urban planning as well as history anthropology and cultural studies

Intelligent Agents and Multi-Agent Systems Kazuhiro Kuwabara, Jaeho Lee, 2002-08-05 Autonomous agents and multi agent systems are computational systems in which several semi autonomous agents interact with each other or work together to perform some set of tasks or satisfy some set of goals These systems may involve computational agents that are homogeneous or heterogeneous they may involve activities on the part of agents having common or distinct goals and they may involve participation on the part of humans and intelligent agents This volume contains selected papers from PRIMA 2002 the 5th Pacific Rim International Workshop on Multi Agents held in Tokyo Japan on August 18 19 2002 in conjunction with the 7th Pacific Rim International Conference on Artificial Intelligence PRICAI 02 PRIMA is a series of workshops on autonomous agents and multi agent systems integrating activities in the Asian and Pacific Rim countries PRIMA 2002 built on the great success of its predecessors PRIMA 98 in Singapore PRIMA 99 in Kyoto Japan PRIMA 2000 in Melbourne Australia and PRIMA 2001 in Taipei Taiwan We received 35 submissions to this workshop from 10 countries Each paper was reviewed by three internationally renowned program committee members After careful reviews 15 papers were selected for this volume We would like to thank all the authors who submitted papers to the workshop We would also like to thank all the program committee members for their splendid work in reviewing the papers Finally we thank the editorial staff of Springer Verlag for publishing this volume in the Lecture Notes in Artificial Intelligence The Big Stall Donald Gutstein, 2018-10-02 In fall 2015 the newly elected Trudeau government endorsed the Paris Agreement and promised to tackle global warming In 2016 it released a major report which set out a national energy strategy embracing clean growth technological innovation and carbon pricing Rather than putting in place tough measures to achieve the Paris targets however the government reframed global warming as a market opportunity for Canada's clean technology sector The Big Stall traces the origins of the government's climate change plan back to the energy sector itself in particular Big Oil It shows how in the last fifteen years Big Oil has infiltrated provincial and federal governments academia media and the non profit sector to sway government and public opinion on the realities of climate change and what needs to be done about it Working both behind the scenes and in high profile networks Canada's energy companies moved the debate away from discussion of the measures required to create a zero carbon world and towards market based solutions that will cut carbon dioxide emissions but not enough to prevent severe climate impacts This is how Big Oil and think tanks unraveled the Kyoto Protocol and how Rachel Notley came to deliver the Business Council of Canada's energy plan Donald Gutstein explains how and why the door has been left wide open for oil companies to determine their own futures in Canada and to go on drilling new wells building new oil sands plants and constructing new pipelines This book offers the background information readers need to challenge politicians claiming they are taking meaningful action on global warming Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States. President, 1985 The Red Cross Magazine, 1916 Potters of Japan Bill Geisinger, 2010-05 From 2005 through 2007 the author studied nine families from the original 1968 documentary film Potters of Japan by Richard and Marj Peeler The Kondo Shimaoka Ichino Kaneshige Mori Kat Fujiwara Waraku and Takahashi family names are synonymous with Japanese pottery Each produces ceramic work that is respected and admired by thousands of Japanese and individuals throughout the world This book is a review of each family since the original film and essentially a study of contemporary Japanese Ceramics from 1968 to the present There are as many similarities as differences among this group of potters Tradition is pivotal here family name prestige artistic and technical secrets are passed from generation to generation with each family developing their own expression and unique qualities Today studio pottery in Japan has grown and there are many more people working and expanding the traditions of the original six old kilns rokkouyo and this book is an introduction to studio pottery in Japan today The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee, 1922 Includes section Reviews and notices of books Folk Tales from Japan Priyanka Bhandarkar, Discover the rich tapestry of Japanese Folktales from ancient Shinto myths to timeless tales of yokai spirits This book contains a collection of stories which guarantee to transport the reader into a world of magic
