Women Laurie Delgatto, Marilyn Kielbasa, 2002 Church Women Probing History with Girls outlines strategies for discovering the richness of women's contributions to the life of the Church. Some of the women featured in this manual lived centuries ago like Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich. Some are heroines of recent times like Sr Helen Prejean, several martyred women of El Salvador and a young woman from Iowa named Carrie Mach. All have one thing in common: they changed their world because of their faith, courage, conviction, and action.

Prayer Marilyn Kielbasa, 2002 Prayer Celebrating and Reflecting with Girls provides ideas for community prayer services and suggestions for enriching girls' personal prayer lives. Twenty-three experiences rich in symbol and ritual are designed to put the hearts and minds of adolescent girls in touch with the sacred. Themes include discernment, nature, wisdom, friendship, peace, brokenness, heritage, life's burdens, and saying yes to God.

Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers, Ashley Cocksworth, 2024-02-21 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in-depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements. Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject, The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present. Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers. The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide. It offers new perspectives on key twentieth-century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts. There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non-Christian traditions and on Christian theology's engagement with the arts and sciences. A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism, racism, and the environmental crisis. Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward, The Modern Theologians explores Christian theology's engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions. Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology. Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross-contextual comparisons. Positions individual theologians in geographical regions, trans-local movements, and ecclesial contexts. Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements, topics, and individuals. Providing in-depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research.

It is also an invaluable resource for researchers, those involved in various forms of Christian ministry, teachers of religious studies, and general readers engaged in independent study.
