

SONNET 116

Let me not to the marriage of true minds Admit impediments. Love is not love Which alters when it alteration finds, Or bends with the remover to remove.
O no! it is an ever-fixed mark
That looks on tempests and is never shaken,
It is the star to every wand'ring bark,
Whose worth's unknown,
although his height be taken.
Lovers not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks Within his bending sickle's compass come,
Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,
But bears it out even to the edge of doom.
If this be error and upon me prov'd,
I never writ, nor no man ever lov'd.

Love Sonnets Pablo Neruda,2014-01-15 The happiness I feel in offering these to you is vast as a savanna Pablo Neruda wrote his adored wife Matilde Urrutia de Neruda in his dedication of One Hundred Love Sonnets Set against the backdrop of his beloved Isla Negra these joyfully sensual poems draw on the wind and tides the white sand with its scattering of delicate wildflowers and the hot sun and salty scent of the sea to celebrate their love Generations of lovers since Pablo and Matilde have shared these poems with each other making One Hundred Love Sonnets one of the most popular books of poetry of all time This beautifully redesigned volume perfect for gift giving presents both the original Spanish sonnets and graceful

Two Luis Estable,2012-12-26 One Hundred Sonnets Book Two is a collection of poems tending to achieve the lyrical vein without losing the power of emotion and the language of passion These poems for the most part were written with the thought of requiring no more than one good reading though some may give some trouble in getting all that they promise and as a result going to two or three readings Here you will find poems on various themes such as women sex love and so forth and any person liking what a well penned sonnet can do and the message it can convey will find times of delightful readings that are made memorable by some of the images that many of the poems imprint in the mind of the reader I have left my heart in these sonnets and I would like you to find you with the true emotion of the heart adorned by the power of the mind when you go through these pages as I did in my working out this meaningful writing I say this with much humbleness and never with the least impression that I am a tall figure but one that likes poetry so much that he would cry if not one person came to the pages of this book The pleasure of writing is in the result of its readers and without them the writer or poet becomes nothing Wishing you happy read I go now and thank you for your time
