Ward, Herman Wasserman, 2010-06-15 This volume explores the construction of an ethics for news media that is global in reach and impact Essays by international media ethicists provide leading theoretical perspectives on major issues and applies the ideas to specific countries contexts and problems addressing such questions as Are there universal values in journalism How would a global media ethics do justice to the cultural political and economic differences around the world Can a global ethic based on universal principles allow for diversity of media systems and cultural values What should be the principles and norms of practice of global media ethics The result is a rich source of ethical thought and analysis on questions raised by contemporary global media

Post-Conflict Security in South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu, 2019-07-25 Just eight years after the signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA and two years after gaining independence the world's newest nation state descended once more into violence and civil war Why have policies of liberal peacebuilding failed to bring lasting stability to the region And what now for South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu an academic with more than ten years practical advisory and policymaking experience adopts a holistic and multi thematic approach to answer these crucial questions Rooting her analysis as deeply as the initial militarisation of Sudan in the 1950s Wambugu considers the complex and overlapping issues that have afflicted the region since 2005 In the process Wambugu demonstrates the failure of the billions of dollars spent on liberal peacebuilding and elucidates the possibility of demilitarisation as a lasting and sustainable alternative Such issues are common in post conflict states and the book therefore acts as a case study for better understanding the deeply entrenched causes of instability and identifying the most sustainable paths to peace This meticulously researched account is essential reading for all students researchers and policymakers working on post conflict societies

Colonial and Decolonial Linguistics Ana Deumert, Anne Storch, Nick Shepherd, 2020-11-30 This wide ranging volume offers a detailed exploration of coloniality in the discipline of linguistics with case studies drawn from Africa Southeast Asia Europe and the Caribbean Colonial meanings and legacies have returned to the forefront of many academic fields in recent years and linguistics like several other disciplines has had an ambivalent relationship with its own histories of practice in colonial and postcolonial worlds The implications of these histories are still felt today as colonial paradigms of knowledge production continue to shape both academic linguistic practices and non specialist discussion of language and culture The chapters in this volume adopt a range of different conceptual frameworks including postcolonial theory southern theory and decolonial thinking to provide a nuanced account of the coloniality of linguistics at the level of knowledge and disciplinary practice crucially the contributors also expand their investigations beyond this ambivalent inheritance to imagine a decolonial linguistics The volume will be of interest to all linguists looking to critically assess their own practices and to engage with debates at the cutting edge of their discipline particularly in the areas of sociolinguistics field linguistics typology and linguistic anthropology as well as to those outside the discipline engaging with questions of coloniality

The Ndebele Nation Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2009

Marxist Theory, Black/African Specificities, and Racism Babacar Camara, 2010-12-01 This book sheds a radical light on the issue of race showing that social and racist discourses are ideological and political mystifications masking exploitation It deals with substantive issues that have the potential to enhance our understanding how Marxist theory can be quite useful in interpreting the race paradigm

Decolonization, Development and Knowledge in Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-04-30 This provocative book is anchored on the insurgent and resurgent spirit of decolonization of the twenty first century The author calls upon Africa to turn over a new leaf in the domains of politics economy and knowledge as it frees itself from imperial global designs and global coloniality With a focus on Africa and its Diaspora the author calls for a radical turning over of a new leaf predicated on decolonial turn and epistemic freedom The key themes subjected to decolonial analysis include 1 decolonization decoloniality articulating the meaning and contribution of the decolonial turn 2 subjectivity identity examining the problem of Blackness identity as external and internal invention 3 the Bandung spirit of decolonization as an embodiment of resistance and possibilities development and self improvement 4 development and self improvement of African political economy as entangled in the colonial matrix of power and the African Renaissance as weakened by undecolonized political and economic thought and 5 knowledge the role of African humanities in the struggle for epistemic freedom This groundbreaking volume opens the intellectual canvas on the challenges and possibilities of African futures It will be of great interest to students and scholars of Politics and International Relations Development Sociology African Studies Black Studies Education History Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies

book take issue with some of the directions of human rights politics in the immediate post apartheid period They look at the relationship between different sets of rights within the political contestations in South Africa To the terms of social struggles for rights and justice this book brings perspectives from narrative psychoanalysis political philosophy and medical history and from the history of national liberation struggles nationalism and citizenship Fortifications, Post-colonialism and Power João Sarmiento, 2016-04-15 For more than 500 years the Portuguese built or adapted fortifications along the coasts of Africa Asia and South America At a macro scale mapping this network of power reveals a gigantic territorial and colonial project Forts articulated the colonial and the metropolitan and functioned as nodes in a mercantile empire shaping early forms of capitalism transforming the global political economy and generating a flood of images and ideas on an unprecedented scale Today they can be understood as active material legacies of empire that represent promises dangers and possibilities Forts are marks and wounds of the history of human violence but also timely reminders that buildings never last forever testimonies of the fluidity of the material world Illustrated by case studies in Morocco Cape Verde S o Tom and Pr ncipe and Kenya this book examines how this global but chameleonic network of forts can offer valuable insights into both the geopolitics of Empire and their postcolonial legacies and into the intersection of colonialism memory power and space in the postcolonial Lusophone world and beyond Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP s policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP s record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses Domination Through Law Mohamed Sesay, 2021-01-29 Winner of the 2021 Lee Ann Fujii Book Award International Studies Association The positive effects of rule of law norms and institutions are often assumed in the fields of global governance and international development with empirical work focusing more on the challenges of using law to engineer social change abroad Questioning this assumption the book contends that purportedly good rule of law standards do not always deliver benign benefits but rather often have negative consequences that harm the very local constituents which rule of law promoters promise to help In particular the book argues that rule of law promotion in post colonial societies reinforces socioeconomic and political inequality which disproportionately favors dominant actors who have the wealth education and influence to navigate the state legal system In addition to an historical account of legal development in settler colonial environments this argument is also drawn from a comparative study which focuses on the UK supported justice sector development programs in Sierra Leone and the US funded rule of law projects in Liberia

Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal Aliou Cissé Niang, 2009-05-20 Faith and Freedom in Galatia and Senegal reads Galatians 2:11-15 and 3:26-29 through the lens of the 19th-20th century experiences of French colonialism by the Diola people in Senegal West Africa and portrays the Apostle Paul as a sociopostcolonial hermeneut who acted on his self understanding as God's messenger to create through faith in the cross of Christ free communities a self definition that is critical of ancient Graeco Roman and modern colonial lore that justify colonization as a divine mandate Aliou C Niang ingeniously compares the colonial objectification of his own people by French colonists to the Graeco Roman colonial objectifications of the ancient Celts Gauls Galatians and Paul's role in bringing about a different portrayal

Conversations in Philosophy F. Ochieng'-Odhiambo, 2009-10-02 Conversations in Philosophy Crossing the Boundaries consists of essays that revolve around the question of the nature and meaning of philosophy even as it demonstrates philosophy's significance and relevance to some fundamental human problems and issues The essays present diverse views of what philosophy might be and might aspire to be with contributors being influenced by a wide range of philosophical approaches and traditions The conversations also cut across disciplinary boundaries to interrogate and utilize ideas taken from ethics epistemology metaphysics literary studies cultural studies and the sociology of science Traversing regional boundaries the essays show philosophical analysis at work in exploring some issues pertinent to African Caribbean European and American experiences even while not ignoring Asian traditions The collection presents interesting and intriguing views on how philosophical inquiry can illuminate various pressing problems development conflict the discriminating preservation of worthwhile traditions and the prevalence of apathy It also reflects the vitality and multifaceted nature of philosophical discourse in grappling with live issues Conversations in Philosophy is a comprehensive balanced and unique anthology of readings capturing the diversity of philosophical investigation

The African Affairs Reader Nic Cheeseman, Lindsay Whitfield, Carl Death, 2017-05-19 African Affairs is the top journal in African Studies and has been for some time This book draws together some of the most influential important and thought provoking articles published in its pages over the last decade In doing so it collates essential cutting edge research on Africa and makes it easily available for students teachers and researchers alike The African Affairs Reader is broken down into four sections that cover some of the biggest themes and questions facing the continent today including the African State the Political Economy of Development Africa's Relationship with the World and Elections Representation Democracy Within each section articles deal with some of the most significant recent trends and events such as the prospects for democratization in Ghana and Nigeria the factors underpinning Rwanda's economic success the rise of political corruption in South Africa the spread of the drugs trade the struggle against gender based violence and the growing influence of China Each section is introduced by a new purpose written essay by the journal's editors that explains the evolution of the wider debate highlights key contributions and suggests new ways in which the discussion can be taken forward Taken together the essays and articles included in the volume provide both a coherent introduction to the study of Africa and a compelling commentary on the current state of play on the continent Postcolonial Identities and West African Literature Anwesha Das, 2022-11-29

Anchored in postcolonial theory this book highlights the concept of postcolonial soliloquies as an original idea in analyzing West African literature It uses the political theory of dialogue to broaden the reader's understanding of history culture identity and indigenous memories The book shows how the novels of T Obinkaram Echewa plunge into the known territory of colonial history with new boundaries
