Roots Of Revolution An Interpretive History Of Modern Iran:

Roots of Revolution Nikki R. Keddie, Yann Richard, 1981-01-01 A history of Iran focuses on the Shah's rise and fall and the causes of the Iranian revolution Keddie, Nikki R., Roots of revolution : an interpretive history of modern Iran Bert G. Fragner, 2018 Modern Iran Nikki R. Keddie, Yann Richard, 2003 In this revised and expanded version of Nikki Keddie's work Roots of Revolution the author brings the story of modern Iran to the present day exploring the political cultural and social changes of the past quarter century Keddie provides insightful commentary on the Iran Iraq war the Persian Gulf War and the effects of 9 11 and Iran's strategic relationship with the US She also discusses developments in education health care the arts and the role of women Modern Iran Nikki R. Keddie, Yann Richard, 2006 Presents the historical and ideological context of recent events in Iran A Century of Revolution John Foran, 1994 This volume offers a much needed look into the historical social and political developments leading up to the Iranian revolution Bringing together a group of scholars historians and social scientists most of them Iranian in origin the book documents an extraordinary revolutionary heritage that predates this century Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida's anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists Sexual Politics in Modern Iran Janet Afary, 2009-04-09 This book charts the history of Iran's sexual revolution from the nineteenth century to today. The resilience of the Iranian people forms the basis of this sexual revolution, one that is promoting reforms in marriage and family laws and demanding more egalitarian gender and sexual relations Problems of Communism, 1983

Politics of the Dispossessed Hafizullah Emadi, 2001-08-30 This study provides a comprehensive analysis of state society development in the most volatile region of the world. In the Middle East, various anti-systemic movements and radical Islam often clashed and resisted the political, cultural, economic, and military domination of the region by the world's major imperial powers. Emadi investigates state revolution and development in the Middle Eastern states of Afghanistan, Iran, Iraq, and Syria in the immediate post-World War II period. Maintaining that the state is an instrument of class domination, exhibiting a certain degree of autonomy in the creation and design of domestic development programs, he details the role of class in an attempt to provide a better understanding of the diverse factors at work. Politics of the Dispossessed provides an alternative analysis of development in regional politics and its context in world politics, aspects that are generally neglected by most mainstream studies. It examines state formation, internal development strategies, and how class conflict and ideology led to class alliance on an international basis, as well as the external interference in the internal affairs of these societies. It also explores the process of political and ethnic integration of the Middle East into the global economic system and the resulting counter-strategies of the nationalist and Islamic resistance to the increasing superpower domination of the international system The Battle for God Karen Armstrong, 2011-08-10 In the late twentieth century, fundamentalism has emerged as one of the most powerful forces at work in the world, contesting the dominance of modern secular values and threatening peace and harmony around the globe. Yet it remains incomprehensible to a large number of people. In The Battle for God, Karen Armstrong brilliantly and sympathetically shows us how and why fundamentalist groups came into existence and what they yearn to accomplish. We see the West in the sixteenth century beginning to create an entirely new kind of civilization, which brought in its wake change in every aspect of life, often painful and violent, even if liberating. Armstrong argues that one of the things that changed most was religion. People could no longer think about or experience the divine in the same way they had to develop new forms of faith to fit their new circumstances. Armstrong characterizes fundamentalism as one of these new ways of being religious that have emerged in every major faith tradition. Focusing on Protestant fundamentalism in the United States, Jewish fundamentalism in Israel, and Muslim fundamentalism in Egypt and Iran, she examines the ways in which these movements, while not monolithic, have each sprung from a dread of modernity, often in response to assault, sometimes unwitting, sometimes intentional, by the mainstream society. Armstrong sees fundamentalist groups as complex, innovative, and modern, rather than as throwbacks to the past, but contends that they have failed in religious terms. Maintaining that fundamentalism often exists in symbiotic relationship with an aggressive modernity, each

impelling the other on to greater excess she suggests compassion as a way to defuse what is now an intensifying conflict

BONUS This edition contains an excerpt from Karen Armstrong's Twelve Steps to a Compassionate Life Book of Queens

Pardis Mahdavi, 2023-08-22 The untold story of generations of Middle Eastern freedom fighters horsewomen who safeguarded an ancient breed of Caspian horse and their efforts to defend their homelands from the Taliban and others seeking to destroy them A breathtaking book that revisits nearly one hundred years of Iranian history highlighting the power and beauty of women who refuse to be subdued Alison Hawthorne Deming author of A Woven World Book of Queens reaches back centuries to the Persian Empire and a woman disguised as a man facing an invading army protected only by light armor and the stallion she sat astride Mahdavi draws a thread from past to present from her fearless Iranian grandmother who guided survivors of domestic violence to independent mountain colonies in Afghanistan where the women led by a general named Mina became their country's first line of defense from marauding warlords To the female warriors who helped train and breed the horses used by US Green Berets when they touched down in October 2001 with a mission but insufficient intelligence on the ground women whose contributions were then forgotten Pardis Mahdavi chases the legacy of Caspian horses and the women whose lives are saved by them drawing on decades of research newly discovered diaries and exclusive military sources Among those intersecting stories is that of American Louise Firouz who helped bring the breed back from the brink of extinction connecting Virginia traders to British royals to the son of the Shah Firouz's life is forever changed when she meets Mahdavi's own family who run an unusual smuggling operation in addition to raising horses in a wild bid for freedom Book of Queens is an epic tale of hidden women whose communal knowledge was instrumental in saving an animal as ancient as civilization and who were the genesis of their own liberation The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14

Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively Iran and the United States Seyed Hossein Mousavian, Shahr Shahidsaless, 2014-06-19

Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2014 Scores of books have been written by Western experts mainly American looking at the root causes of the conflict between Iran and the US However none of them have presented an inside look at this complex relationship from within the Iranian culture society and most importantly the Iranian policy making system This gap has been the cause of misperceptions misanalyses and conflict followed by the adoption of US policies that have failed to achieve their objectives Seyed Hossein Mousavian worked for over 30 years on diplomatic efforts between Iran and the West serving in numerous official posts and as a confidante colleague and peer to many former and current high ranking Iranian officials including now President Hassan Rouhani and Iranian Foreign Minister Javad Zarif Here the former diplomat gives an insider s history of the troubled relationship between Iran and the US His unique firsthand perspective blends memoir analysis and never before seen details of the many near misses in the quest for rapprochement With so much at stake the book concludes with a roadmap for peace that both nations so desperately need

State and Rural Development in the Post-Revolutionary Iran A. Shakoobi, 2001-05-04 Rural reform policy has been an important part of the government policy in post revolutionary Iran This book seeks to examine the post revolutionary rural policies and their socio economic impact on rural people After reviewing the main debates on rural development literature and providing the historical background of agrarian change in the pre revolutionary era it examines the post revolutionary rural reforms in separate parts the effects of the government agricultural policies on agricultural performance and the post revolutionary reorganisational policies and the impact of rural strategies on the socio economy of the rural life at village level

The Soviet Union and Revolutionary Iran (RLE Iran D) Aryeh Yodfat, 2012-04-27 Relations between the USSR and Iran during the period from the overthrow of the Shah and the establishment of the Islamic Republic up to early 1983 are reviewed in this book It begins with a brief survey of Russian Persian relations in earlier years with a focus on the developments that served as a background to the current events It examines Soviet attitudes and reactions to Iran s foreign and internal policy and highlights the way in which the Soviets often raise events of which they do not approve in order to draw Iran closer to them In particular the book discusses the Soviet response to the Iran Iraq war and the position of the Tudeh Party and the other leftists within Iran Iran s policy towards the USSR is treated at length and it is shown that it is suspicious of a tacit USA USSR agreement over the fate of Iran Khomeini s attempts to isolate Iran from both East and West are also reviewed This book was one of the first to discuss this crucial dimension in Middle East politics and it makes a significant contribution to our understanding of the forces driving the Iranian Revolution

Islamic Economy and Social Mobility: Cultural and Religious Considerations Shahpari,

Hasan,2016-01-12 In an era of globalization and cross cultural awareness an interest in the relationship between economics and religion politics and social behavior is alive and well In particular the Islamic economy has become a focal point of interest for economists and government leaders around the world interested in understanding the relationship between religion and economics among primarily Islamic regions Islamic Economy and Social Mobility Cultural and Religious Considerations analyzes the social cultural religious and political implications of the Islamic economy at the global level Highlighting the foundations upon which Islamic ideology is formed and how it impacts socio cultural and economic systems both within and outside of primarily Islamic regions this publication is an ideal reference source for economists sociologists international relations professionals researchers academics and graduate level students Religion and Politics in Iraq Muhammad Ismail Marcinkowski,2004 Religion and Politics in Iraq features four chapters that outline the major political developments faced by Iraq s Muslim clerics from the end of the 19th century under the ailing Ottoman empire to the 1980s This crucial period saw fierce internal struggles foreign intervention and bloody persecution of the political opposition as well as the emergence of a totalitarian one party system with absolute control over all sectors of social and religious life During this period Baathist Iraq attacked its Muslim neighbours Kuwait and Iran and used poison gas in its ethnic cleansing campaign against the Kurds This book focuses on the dilemma of Iraq s clerics within this setting caught between political activism and quietism It addresses also major developments in neighbouring Iran insofar as they had a bearing on Iraq

Social Movements in Twentieth-Century Iran Stephen C. Poulson,2005-10-17 In this work Stephen C Poulson a scholar of collective action and social movements investigates cycles of social protest in Iran from 1890 to the present era He illuminates the following social movements the 1890 1892 Tobacco Movement the 1906 1909 Constitutional Revolution two post World War II movements the Tudeh Masses and the National Front the 1963 Qom Protest and the 1978 1979 Iranian Revolution These movements confronted two primary questions How should the Iranian state achieve independence in the world and what rights should individual Iranians enjoy in their political and social system Poulson examines the framing of these questions and their answers by various Iranian political actors over time revealing both continuity and change

Historical Dictionary of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec,2016-12-14 Muslims believe that the Koran is God s message in Arabic revealed through the medium of the Prophet Muhammad for the guidance of the Arabs and subsequently for all humanity There is both unity and variety in the Islamic world Muslims are not a homogeneous people who can be explained solely by their normative texts the Koran and the Sunnah Muslims differ vastly in their interpretation of Islam modernists want to reinterpret Islam to adapt to the requirements of modern times while traditionalists tend to look to the classical and medieval periods of Islam as their model of the Islamic state This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Islam contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on major sects schools of theology and jurisprudence as well as aspects of Islamic culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Islam
