Iraq Heather Bleaney, Roper, Peter Sluglett, 2004-06-01 Well considered answers to the many questions raised by the situation in Iraq past and present are rare. This first comprehensive thematically organised bibliography devoted to Iraq is based on the full Index Islamicus database and is drawn from a wide variety of European language journals and books. Featuring an extensive introduction to the subject and its literature by Peter Sluglett, this bibliography will help readers to find their way through the massive secondary literature now available. Following the pattern established by the Index Islamicus, both journal articles and book publications are included as well as important internet resources. The editors have taken care to add much new material to bring its coverage up to date and supplement the previously published volumes while the most important and/or influential publications are conveniently highlighted in the introduction. An indispensable gateway for all those with a more than superficial interest in what is and what has been happening in this nation so much the focus of attention today.

Arms Control and Missile Proliferation in the Middle East Bernd Kubbig, Sven-Eric Fikenscher, 2012-03-29 This edited volume provides a systematic analysis of the missile threat and proliferation issue in the Middle East region. The question of how to increase the level of security in the Middle East is not a new one given the conflict ridden nature of the region. The solution attempted for this predicament has typically revolved around intense arms build ups, a strategy which can prove self defeating due to the subsequent countermeasures employed by neighbouring states. Arms Control and Missile Proliferation in the Middle East focuses on the strategic proliferation of arms with a specific emphasis on missiles. This unique emphasis enables the contributors to provide a dynamic new perspective on conceptual and political disarmament efforts, thereby distinguishing this volume from many other related works on the region which deal mainly with weapons of mass destruction. The book also explores the possibility of a reduction in weapon arsenals, examining a more promising cooperative security concept which includes confidence and security building measures (CSBMs). This book will be of much interest to students of arms control, Middle Eastern politics, Gulf Security, war and conflict studies, security studies and IR.

Gulf Oil and Gas The Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research, 2007-08-13 In recent years geopolitical disruptions, tightening oil supply, refining constraints and rising demand have combined to maintain high oil prices, allowing Arabian Gulf oil producers to capitalize on the resulting revenue windfall. However, formidable challenges still loom ahead. What long term production strategy should the Gulf OPEC members adopt? Can Gulf oil producers allay the supply security concerns of major consumer nations? How will limitations in crude quality and constraints in refining capacity impact on global energy markets How can OPEC maintain reasonable oil prices in the face of exhaustible oil supplies and inexhaustible global demand How will growing non OPEC production affect OPEC's predominant market position in the future The ECSSR 11th Annual Energy Conference Gulf Oil and Gas Ensuring Economic Security held from September 25-27 2005 in Abu Dhabi assembled international experts to discuss crucial energy developments and outline strategies for the Arabian Gulf states to strengthen their future economic security The conference presentations in this book focus on vital energy issues the globalization of the gas trade trends in crude quality cooperation between consumers and producers links between national and foreign oil companies future demand for Gulf energy prospects for augmented Gulf production sustainability of Saudi Arabia's excess capacity concerns over oilfield security imperatives for attracting investment and the need for additional oil refining capacity Conference deliberations indicated that for the Arabian Gulf producers ensuring economic security means going beyond petroleum resource management to formulate policies leading to diversified national development and greater economic cohesion while safeguarding the region's strategic position in an integrated world economy

A History of Slavery and Emancipation in Iran, 1800-1929 Behnaz A. Mirzai, 2017-05-16 The first history of slavery in this key Middle Eastern country and how it shaped the nation's unique character Slavery in the Middle East is a growing field of study but the history of slavery in a key country Iran has never before been written This history extends to Africa in the west and India in the east to Russia and Turkmenistan in the north and to the Arab states in the south As the slave trade between Iran and these regions shifted over time it transformed the nation and helped forge its unique culture and identity Thus a history of Iranian slavery is crucial to understanding the character of the modern nation Drawing on extensive archival research in Iran Tanzania England and France as well as fieldwork and interviews in Iran Behnaz A Mirzai offers the first history of slavery in modern Iran from the early nineteenth century to emancipation in the mid twentieth century She investigates how foreign military incursion frontier insecurity political instability and economic crisis altered the patterns of enslavement as well as the ethnicity of the slaves themselves Mirzai's interdisciplinary analysis illuminates the complex issues surrounding the history of the slave trade and the process of emancipation in Iran while also giving voice to social groups that have never been studied enslaved Africans and Iranians Her research builds a clear case that the trade in slaves was inexorably linked to the authority of the state During periods of greater decentralization slave trading increased while periods of greater governmental autonomy saw more freedom and peace This is a major contribution to the study of enslavement in Iran which will doubtlessly become a must read for any future studies of Middle Eastern and Islamic enslavement and abolition as well as for any work on Iranian history in general Ehud R Toledano Tel Aviv University author of As If Silent and Absent Bonds of Enslavement in the Islamic Middle East While this book will be revelatory to scholars of Iran it also promises to engage with theoretical trends in the study of slavery elsewhere It frames many research questions broadly to engage with scholars of slavery in other Muslim lands as well as slavery elsewhere Kamran Scot Aghaie University of Texas at Austin coeditor of Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity
