Security Protocols Bruce Christianson, Bruno Crispo, James A. Malcolm, Michael Roe, 2003-06-30 The Cambridge International Workshop on Security Protocols has now run for eight years Each year we set a theme focusing upon a specific aspect of security protocols and invite position papers Anybody is welcome to send us a position paper yes you are invited and we don't insist they relate to the current theme in an obvious way In our experience the emergence of the theme as a unifying thread takes place during the discussions at the workshop itself The only ground rule is that position papers should formulate an approach to some unresolved issues rather than being a description of a finished piece of work When the participants meet we try to focus the discussions upon the conceptual issues which emerge Security protocols link naturally to many other areas of Computer Science and deep water can be reached very quickly Afterwards we invite participants to redraft their position papers in a way which exposes the emergent issues but leaves open the way to their further development We also prepare written transcripts of the recorded discussions These are edited in some cases very heavily to illustrate the way in which the different arguments and perspectives have interacted We publish these proceedings as an invitation to the research community Although many interesting results first see the light of day in a volume of our proceedings laying claim to these is not our primary purpose of publication Rather we bring our discussions and insights to a wider audience in order to suggest new lines of investigation which the community may fruitfully pursue

Trust Management Ketil Stølen, William H. Winsborough, Fabio Martinelli, Fabio MASSACCI, 2006-08-29 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Trust Management iTrust 2006 30 revised full papers and 4 revised short papers are presented together with 1 keynote paper and 7 trust management tool and systems demonstration reports Besides technical issues in distributed computing and open systems topics from law social sciences business and philosophy are addressed

Data Protection in a Profiled World Serge Gutwirth, Yves Pouillet, Paul De Hert, 2010-08-03 One of the most challenging issues facing our current information society is the accelerating accumulation of data trails in transactional and communication systems which may be used not only to profile the behaviour of individuals for commercial marketing and law enforcement purposes but also to locate and follow things and actions Data mining convergence interoperability ever increasing computer capacities and the extreme miniaturisation of the hardware are all elements which contribute to a major contemporary challenge the profiled world This interdisciplinary volume offers twenty contributions that delve deeper into some of the complex but urgent questions that this profiled world addresses to data protection and privacy The chapters of this volume were all presented at the second Conference on Privacy and Data Protection CPDP2009 held in Brussels in January 2009 www.cpdpconferences.org The yearly CPDP conferences aim to become Europe's most important meeting where academics practitioners policy makers and activists come together to exchange ideas and discuss emerging issues in information technology privacy and data protection and law This volume reflects the richness of the conference containing chapters by leading lawyers policymakers computer technology assessment and social scientists The chapters cover generic themes such as the evolution of a new generation of data protection laws and the constitutionalisation of data protection and more specific issues like security breaches unsolicited adjustments social networks surveillance and electronic voting This book not only offers a very close and timely look on the state of data protection and privacy in our profiled world but it also explores and invents ways to make sure this world remains a world we want to live in Security Protocols XX Bruce Christianson,James Malcolm, Frank Stajano, Jonathan Anderson, 2012-11-28 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post workshop proceedings of the 20th International Workshop on Security Protocols held in Cambridge UK in April 2012 Following the tradition of this workshop series each paper was revised by the authors to incorporate ideas from the workshop and is followed in these proceedings by an edited transcription of the presentation and ensuing discussion The volume contains 14 papers with their transcriptions as well as an introduction i e 29 contributions in total The theme of the workshop was Bringing protocols to life Security Protocols XVI Bruce Christianson, James Malcolm, Vashek Matyas, Michael Roe, 2011-07 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post proceedings of the 16th International Workshop on Security Protocols SP 2008 held in Cambridge UK in April 2008 The 17 revised full papers presented together with edited transcriptions of some of the discussions following the presentations have gone through multiple rounds of reviewing revision and selection The theme of this workshop was Remodelling the Attacker with the intention to tell the students at the start of a security course that it is very important to model the attacker but like most advice to the young this is an oversimplification Shouldn't the attacker's capability be an output of the design process as well as an input The papers and discussions in this volume examine the theme from the standpoint of various different applications and adversaries Formal Aspects of Security Steve A. Schneider, 2003-12-03 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post proceedings of the First International Conference on Formal Aspects of Security FASec 2002 held in London UK in December 2002 The 11 revised full papers presented together with 7 invited contributions were carefully reviewed selected and improved for inclusion in the book The papers are organized in topical sections on protocol verification analysis of protocols security modelling and reasoning and intrusion detection systems and liveness Information Security and Privacy Colin Boyd, Juan M. González Nieto, 2005-07-11 ACISP 2005 was held at Queensland University of Technology in Brisbane during July 4-6 2005

Wireless Sensor Networks Shafiullah Khan, Al-Sakib Khan Pathan, Nabil Ali Alrajeh, 2016-04-21 Wireless sensor networks WSNs utilize fast cheap and effective applications to imitate the human intelligence capability of sensing on a wider distributed scale But acquiring data from the deployment area of a WSN is not always easy and multiple issues arise including the limited resources of sensor devices run with one time batteries Additi Managing Trust in Cyberspace Sabu M. Thampi, Bharat Bhargava, Pradeep K. Atrey, 2013-12-14 In distributed open systems like cyberspace where the behavior of autonomous agents is uncertain and can affect other agents welfare trust management is used to allow agents to determine what to expect about the behavior of other agents The role of trust management is to maximize trust between the parties and thereby provide a basis for cooperation

Regulating and Combating Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Nkechikwu Azinge-Egbiri, 2021-03-01 This book analytically reviews the impact of the global anti money laundering and counter terrorist financing AML CFT framework on the compliance trajectory of a number of jurisdictions to this framework The work begins by examining the international financial sector reform and its evolution to inculcate the global framework for AML CFT regulations It challenges the resulting uniform AML CFT due to its paradoxical impact on the compliance trajectory of African countries and emerging economies ACs EEs This is done through an examination of the pre conditions for effective regulation and compliance drivers for ACs EEs that reveals the behavioural impact of the AML CFT standards on the bloc of countries Through the application of agency theory it explores the relationship between ACs EEs on the one hand and the international financial institutions that formulate disseminate and facilitate compliance with the global framework for AML CFT standards on the other The remaining chapters review empirically the compliance pressures and resulting compliance trajectory of ACs EEs with the AML CFT standards The final part of the book provides a detailed explanation of the compliance challenges of ACs EEs and the legitimacy concerns that facilitate this This book offers a new direction on the impact of global AML CFT standards on ACs EEs and contributes to the understanding of the conditions under which the global standards are likely to facilitate proactive compliance within these blocs of countries As such it will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in this area
