Seductions Studies In Reading And Culture:

Seductions Jane Miller, 1991 One of the deadliest of seductions for feminists is their seduction by theorists by theories With this boldly polemical stroke Jane Miller begins her exploration stealthily cumulatively and with a deft and compelling intelligence In looking at the complex relation of women to culture and literature and to theory and politics and in recalling her own coming to feminism she asks how women experience themselves within ideas and traditions which simultaneously include and exclude them take their presence for granted and deny it Seduction as a category binds together the ambivalence the pleasure and the invisible coercions of male female relations while at the same time transgressing the implicit imperative in patriarchal societies to confine eroticism and its politics to the closet Seductions consists of five loosely connected almost autonomous chapters which nevertheless trace a historical progression from the eighteenth century to the present Miller borrows Antonio Gramsci's idea of hegemony using it to contextualize her readings of two famous literary seductions as told through Richardson's Clarissa and Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility The second chapter focuses on Raymond Williams novels and criticism using them to chart the larger exclusions of feminism by Marxism The author enlists Carolyn Steedman's Landscape for a Good Woman in an attempt to survey Williams telling silences The third chapter reconstructs and analyzes the life and career of Clara Collet Miller's great aunt close friend of George Gissing civil servant and expert on women's education and work Through Collet Miller bestows individual color on the pressures inflicted on professional women to assume male perspectives and procedures The fourth chapter is superb Bracketed by discussions of Charlotte Brontë's Villette and Toni Morrison's Beloved it questions influential treatments of colonialism and orientalism which use women as a metaphor without listening for the testimony of real women It is a moving plea to set the category of women alongside more privileged categories of class and race The final chapter counterpoints the internal contradictions in the polyphonic theories of Bakhtin and Volosinov with an account of women's distrust of other women in Margaret Atwood's Cat's Eye By ending with an evocation of women's self dislike Miller emphasizes the chilling ways in which cultural exclusions and degradations of women are internalized and replicated by complicitous victims Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas

Orientalism and Religion Richard King, 2013-04-03 Orientalism and Religion offers us a timely discussion of the implications of contemporary post colonial theory for the study of religion Richard King examines the way in which notions such as mysticism religion Hinduism and Buddhism are taken for granted He shows us how religion needs to be reinterpreted along the lines of cultural studies Drawing on a variety of post structuralist and post colonial thinkers such as Foucault Gadamer Said and Spivak King provides us with a challenging series of reflections on the nature of Religious Studies and Indology

Women and the Media Maggie Andrews, Sallie McNamara, 2014-04-24 The media have played a significant role in the contested and changing social position of women in Britain since the 1900s They have facilitated feminism by both providing discourses and images from which women can construct their identities and offering spaces where hegemonic ideas of femininity can be reworked This volume is intended to provide an overview of work on Broadcasting Film and Print Media from 1900 while appealing to scholars of History and Media Film and Cultural Studies This edited collection features tightly focused and historically contextualised case studies which showcase current research on women and media in Britain since the 1900s The case studies explore media directed at a particularly female audience such as Woman's Hour and magazines such as Vogue Woman and Marie Claire Women who work in the media issues of production and regulation are discussed alongside the representation of women across a broad range of media from early 20th century motorcycling magazines Page 3 and regional television news

The Company She Keeps Hey, Valerie, 1997-01-01 This lively and revealing study explores a sociologically invisible but important social relationship girls' friendships It uncovers often suppressed school girl cultures at times representing in their most condensed and dramatic form issues of intimacy secrecy and struggle Most women have memories of and most mothers of young daughters become re immersed in these all consuming but little understood passions This taken for granted ordinary relationship is examined using girls notes talk diaries and interviews gathered by observing girls groups within city schools An important and previously ignored question is addressed by examining how girls intimacy is structured through class gender sexuality and race especially its paradoxical role in maintaining and challenging compulsory heterosexuality In this way a series of case studies analyses how girls variously come to understand and construct difference In addition this detailed analysis of girls friendship contributes to our understanding of how girls simultaneously survive their schools their families their relations and subordination to boys and men Valerie Hey returns the reader to the terrain of loss and recollection of girls pleasure and pain in their friendship and asserts the claims of the social through identifying how this is written into the cultural forms of girls relationships with each other Students of women s studies education sociology and social psychology will find this book to be an invaluable exploration of how every day obvious experience is played out as forms of subjectivity and power Postmodern

Revisionings of the Political Anna Yeatman, 2014-02-25 A challenging reassessment of the concepts and institutions of modern liberal democracy in the light of postmodern theory and the politics of difference Female Stories, Female

Bodies Lidia Curti, 1998-01-19 This interdisciplinary book explores women s narratives in a wide variety of media and genre from soap opera and film to the post modern novel and Shakespearian drama Adopting an innovative feminist perspective it focuses particularly on the themes of hybridity and monstrosity in language and the body In doing so it raises issues to do with closure and temporal and spatial dislocation drawing on themes of passion paranoia and desire Raymond Williams

Elizabeth Eldridge, John Eldridge, 2005-10-10 This book provides a critical introduction to the full range of Williams work fiction and non fiction It assesses the significance of his contribution in understanding culture politics and society Fair minded accurate and sensitive the book makes crucial connections between the different aspects of Williams work and the underlying concern for a democratic polity which informed it It Looks At You Wheeler W. Dixon, 1995-01-01 This is a study of the returned gaze from the cinema screen demonstrating that the films that we watch watch us guide us control our gaze and enforce societal codes Political Gender Sally Ledger, Josephine McDonagh, Jane Spencer, 2014-07-10 In recent years feminist scholars through their insistence on the key role of gender in critical analysis have brought about a profound revitalization of literary and cultural studies This text draws together work by leading exponents in the field The essays explore the operations of gender in the production of knowledge and the formation of cultural representations in a wide variety of contexts from German romantic poetry to the literature of AIDS from Victorian ethnography to tabloid constructions of race All of the essays engage in problems of representation intervening in current debates in critical theory
