Africa Every Day Oluwakemi M. Balogun, Lisa Gilman, Melissa Graboyes, Habib Iddrisu, 2019-11-12 Africa Every Day presents an exuberant thoughtful and necessary counterpoint to the prevailing emphasis in introductory African studies classes on war poverty corruption disease and human rights violations on the continent These challenges are real and deserve sustained attention but this volume shows that adverse conditions do not prevent people from making music falling in love playing sports participating in festivals writing blogs telling jokes making videos playing games eating delicious food and finding pleasure in their daily lives Across seven sections Celebrations and Rites of Passage Socializing and Friendship Love Sex and Marriage Sports and Recreation Performance Language and Creativity Technology and Media and Labor and Livelihoods the accessible multidisciplinary essays in Africa Every Day address these creative and dynamic elements of daily life without romanticizing them Ultimately the book shows that forms of leisure and popular culture in Africa are best discussed in terms of indigenization adaptation and appropriation rather than the static binary of European foreign global and African Most of all it invites readers to reflect on the crucial similarities

The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC's attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges Biko's

Ghost Shannen L. Hill, 2015-05-21 When you say Black is Beautiful what in fact you are saying is Man you are okay as you are begin to look upon yourself as a human being With such statements Stephen Biko became the voice of Black Consciousness And with Biko's brutal death in the custody of the South African police he became a martyr an enduring symbol of the horrors of apartheid Through the lens of visual culture Biko's Ghost reveals how the man and the ideology he promoted have profoundly influenced liberation politics and race discourse in South Africa and around the globe ever since Tracing the linked histories of Black Consciousness and its most famous proponent Biko's Ghost explores the concepts of unity ancestry and action that lie at the heart of the ideology and the man It challenges the dominant historical view of Black Consciousness as ineffectual or racially exclusive suppressed on the one side by the apartheid regime and on the other by the African National Congress Engaging theories of trauma and representation and icon and ideology Shannen L Hill considers the martyred Biko as an embattled icon his image portrayals assuming different shapes and political meanings in different hands So too does she illuminate how Black Consciousness worked behind the scenes throughout the 1980s a decade of heightened popular unrest and state censorship She shows how in streams of imagery that continue to multiply nearly forty years on Biko's visage and the ongoing life of Black Consciousness served as instruments through which artists could combat the abuses of apartheid and unsettle the rainbow nation that followed Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa

c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof, Andrew Cohen, 2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa

Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's complex history over the past several centuries Women in African Colonial Histories

Susan Geiger, Jean Allman, Nakanyike Musisi, 2002-04 While recognising the inherent violence and brutality of the colonial encounter the essays in this anthology show that African women were not simply the hapless victims of European political rule Riding High Sandra Swart, 2010-01-01 An examination of the role of horses in the colonial economies of South Africa Horses were key to the colonial economies of southern Africa buttressing the socio political order and inspiring contemporary imaginations Just as they had done in Europe Asia the Americas and North Africa these equine colonizers not only provided power and transportation to settlers and later indigenous peoples but also helped transform their new biophysical and social environments The horses introduced to the southern tip of Africa were not only agents but subjects of enduring changes This book explores the introduction of these horses under VOC rule in the mid seventeenth century their dissemination into the interior their acquisition by indigenous groups and their ever shifting roles In undergoing their relocation to the Cape the horse of the Dutch empire in southeast Asia experienced a physical transformation over time Establishing an early breeding stock was fraught with difficulty and horses remained vulnerable in the new and dangerous environment They had to be nurtured into defending their owners ambitions first those of the white settlement and then African and other hybrid social groupings The book traces the way horses were adapted by shifting human needs in the nineteenth century It focuses on their experiences in the South African War on the cusp of the twentieth century and highlights how horses remained integral to civic functioning on various levels replaced with mechanization only after lively debate The book thus reinserts the horse into the broader historical narrative The socio economic and political ramifications of their introduction is delineated The idea of ecological imperialism is tested in order to draw southern African environmental history into a wider global dialogue on socio environmental historiographical issues The focus is also on the

symbolic dimension that led horses to be both feared and desired Even the sensory dimensions of this species interaction with human societies is explored Finally the book speculates about what a new kind of history that takes animals seriously might offer us Plunder for Profit Elijah Doro,2023-04-13 Examines the history of tobacco farming in Zimbabwe to illuminate debates on landscapes people and political economy Locality, Mobility, and "nation" Benjamin Nicholas Lawrance,2007 Introduction conceptualizing periurban colonialism in sub Saharan Africa Mobility locality and Ewe identity in periurban Eweland Intervention and dissent manufacturing the model periurban chief Crisis in an Ewe capital the periurban zone descends on the city Vodou and resistance politico religious crises in the periurban landscape The German Togo bund and the periurban manifestations of nation Eweland to la Republique Togolaise the Guide du Togo and the periurban circulation of knowledge Africa in the World Frederick Cooper,2014-03-24 Of the many pathways out of empire why did African leaders follow the one that led to the nation state whose dangers were recognized by Africans in the 1940s and 50s Frederick Cooper revisits a long history in which Africans were empire builders the objects of colonization and participants in events that gave rise to global capitalism Experiments with Truth Hedley Twidle,2019 Unusable pasts scandalous lives political betrayal confession and collaboration reading narrative non fiction across South Africa s unfinished transition Over the last decades South Africa has seen an outpouring of life writing and narrative non fiction Authors like Panashe Chigumadzi Jacob Dlamini Mark Gevisser Pumla Gobodo Madikizela Antjie Krog Sisonke Msimang Njabulo Ndebele Jonny Steinberg and Ivan Vladislavic have produced a compelling and often controversial body of work exploring the country s ongoing political and social transition with great ambition texture and risk Experiments with Truth is the first book length account of non fiction in South African literature It reads the country s transition as refracted through an array of documentary modes that are simultaneously refashioned and blurred into each other long form analytic journalism and reportage experiments in oral history microhistory and archival reconstruction life writing memoir and the essay It traces the strange and ethically complex process by which real people places and events are shuffled patterned and plotted in long form prose narrative While holding in mind the imperatives of testimony and witness so important to the struggle for liberation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the case studies here are increasingly drawn to a post TRC aesthetic works that engage with difficult inappropriate or unusable elements of the past and the unfinished project of social reconstruction in SouthAfrica The author examines non fictions that are speculative formally innovative and sometimes experimental rather than informational or narrowly journalistic that explore difficult subjects like collaboration complicity confession and have embedded within them their own reflections on the problems of narrating within a scene of unresolved difference In this way southern African materials are placed in a global context and in dialogue with otherimportant non fictional traditions that have emerged at moments of social rupture and transition Hedley Twidle is a writer teacher and researcher based in the English Department at the University of Cape Town He specialises in twentieth century southern African and world literatures as well as creative non fiction and the environmental humanities His essay collection Firepool Experiences in an Abnormal World was published in 2017

Pandemic Genres Neville Wallace Hoad, 2025 As HIV AIDS emerged as a public health crisis of significant proportions across much of sub Saharan Africa it became the subject of local and international interest prurient benevolent and interventionist Meanwhile the experience of Africans living with HIV AIDS became an object of aesthetic representation in multiple genres by Africans themselves These cultural representations engaged public discourse the public policy pronouncements of officials of postcolonial states an emerging global NGO speak and journalism In Pandemic Genres Neville Hoad investigates how cultural production novels poems films around the pandemic supplemented public discourse From Botswana Kenya and South Africa he shows that the long historical imaginaries of race empire and sex underwrote all attempts to bring the pandemic into public representation Attention to genres that stage themselves as imaginary particularly on the terrain of feeling may forecast possibilities for new figurations

Season of Hope Alan Hirsch, 2005 Offers an insight into the circumstances under which the policies were developed implemented and reviewed as well as a study of the outcomes This book addresses questions such as How could an organisation with no previous experience of governing accomplish a peaceful transition to democracy How did they do it and where are they going

Southern Enclosure John H. Cable, 2023-12-15 Historians of the American South have come to consider the mechanization and consolidation of cotton farming the Southern enclosure movement to be a watershed event in the region s history In the decades after World War II this transition pushed innumerable sharecroppers tenant farmers and smallholders off the land redistributing territory and resources upward to a handful of large mainly white operators By disproportionately displacing Black farmers enclosure also slowed the progress of the civil rights movement and limited its impact John Cable s Southern Enclosure is among the first studies to explore that process through the interpretive lens of settler colonialism Focusing on east central Mississippi home of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians Cable situates enclosure in the long history of dispossession that began with Indian Removal The book follows elite white landowners and Black and Choctaw farmers from World War II to 1960 the period when the old labor intensive farm structure collapsed By acknowledging that this process occurred on taken land Cable demonstrates that the records of agricultural agents segregationist politicians and the Bureau of Indian Affairs BIA are traces of ongoing colonization The settler colonial framework rarely associated with the postwar South sheds important light on the shifting categories of race and class It also prompts comparisons with other settler societies states in southern and eastern Africa for instance whose timelines racial regimes and agrarian transitions were similar to those of the South This postwar history of the South suggests ways in which the BIA s termination policy dovetailed with Southern segregationism and at the same time points to some of the shortcomings of the burgeoning field of settler colonial studies
