little known in the 19th and 20th centuries The accomplishment of each is sketched in biographical form that will variously intrigue interest and fascinate readers of varied persuasions Choice Despite social restraints and limited financial resources women have traveled in the past two centuries to virtually every unexplored region of the earth sometimes with a male companion and often leading their own expeditions In this book Tinling offers portraits of some forty five enterprising and intrepid women who have explored uncharted territory investigating the lives and customs of remote human societies study rare plants and wild animals or excavating the ruins of ancient civilizations The subjects include English American and continental European women In addition to detailed biographical essays the author presents comprehensive bibliographical data on the published and unpublished works of the subjects and the articles and books that have been written about them The explorations of these women have yielded impressive contributions to many areas of knowledge including geography archaeology botany zoology and anthropology as well as sensitive accounts of travel and discovery Each of the biographical sketches supplies a chronological listing of the subject s writings and a list of chief bibliographical sources The volume concludes with an annotated list of travel books by women in the English language a general bibliography and an index This book is an appropriate resource for studies in women s history geography social history and anthropology and an appealing choice for women readers with an interest in travel and biography Tiwi Textiles Diana Wood Conroy, Bede

Tungutalum, 2022-12-01 Tiwi Textiles Design Making Process tells the story of the innovative Tiwi Design centre on Bathurst Island in northern Australia dedicated to the production of hand printed fabrics featuring Indigenous designs from the 1970s to today Written by early art coordinator Diana Wood Conroy with oral testimony from senior Tiwi artist Bede Tungutalum who established Tiwi Design in 1969 with fellow designer Giovanni Tipungwuti the book traces the beginnings of the centre and its subsequent place in the Tiwi community and Australian Indigenous culture more broadly Bringing together many voices and images especially those of little known older artists of Paru and Wurrumiyanga formerly Nguuu on the Tiwi Islands and from the Indigenous literature Tiwi Textiles features profiles of Tiwi artists accounts of the development of new design processes insights into Tiwi culture and language and personal reflections on the significance of Tiwi Design which is still proudly operating today Tiwi Textiles is a unique historical document a formidable vindication of the accomplishments of great Indigenous artists and an account of a missing chapter in world art history The book is a wonderful chronicle of a vital and fertile period for Tiwi practice in the emergence of contemporary Indigenous art But it is also a charter for the future Nicholas Thomas FBA FAHA Director Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Cambridge Wood Conroy not only writes intricately and sensitively a vital history of Tiwi art she also firms up the place of fibre and textiles practices in Indigenous art and leaves space for us to consider how art history can shift to become more responsive to the lived realities of Indigenous peoples and our non Indigenous accomplices Tristen Harwood The Saturday Paper Sitting at the Feet of Gurus Deena Burton, 2009-01-26 Deena Burton is well known for her accomplishments as a dancer choreographer producer and scholar of Indonesian Arts In the course of her research she came across the pioneering work of Claire Holt who had written about art and culture in New York and Europe especially the rise of Modern Dance between the first and second World Wars During a trip to Indonesia in 1930 Claire Holt became enamored of Javanese dance She stayed for many years on and off and was among the community of artists and anthropologists living in Bali at that time including Walter Spies Colin McPhee Miguel Covarrubias Margaret Mead and others who were both deeply influenced by this ancient culture and obsessive in documenting Indonesias emergence into the 20th century This book which began as Deenas PhD dissertation is a tribute to her own dedication and that of a kindred spirit Claire Holt and their love for the arts and peoples of Indonesia Pictured above is a young Deena Burton beginning a masked dance

Useless Beauty Ann Elias,2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects such as surreal flowers Aboriginal flowers and war flowers Whether modern or conservative the artists in this study shared an intellectual and emotional passion for flora This was true for men as well as women despite blossoms being a more traditionally feminine subject Through spectacular reproductions of historical and contemporary artworks drawn from collections in Australia the United States Britain and New Zealand Useless Beauty explores how flowers influenced the psyche governed rituals defined identity and brought a psychological dimension to the everyday The peak years for flower centrality in Australian art were between 1920 and 1940 when flowers were known as the apotheosis of useless beauty

Mapping Modernisms Elizabeth Harney,Ruth B. Phillips,2018-11-01 Mapping Modernisms brings together scholars working around the world to address the modern arts produced by indigenous and colonized artists Expanding the contours of modernity and its visual products the contributors illustrate how these artists engaged with ideas of Primitivism through visual forms and philosophical ideas Although often overlooked in the literature on global modernisms artists artworks and art patrons moved within and across national and imperial borders carrying appropriating or translating objects images and ideas These itineraries made up the dense networks of modern life contributing to the crafting of modern subjectivities and of local transnationally inflected modernisms Addressing the silence on indigeneity in established narratives of modernism the contributors decenter art history s traditional Western orientation and prompt a re evaluation of canonical understandings of twentieth century art history Mapping Modernisms is the first book in Modernist Exchanges a multivolume project dedicated to rewriting the history of modernism and modernist art to include artists theorists art forms and movements from around the world Contributors Bill Anthes Peter Brunt Karen Duffek Erin Haney Elizabeth Harney Heather
