Seeing Stars:

Seeing Stars Dennis J. Frost, 2020-03-17 In Seeing Stars Dennis J. Frost traces the emergence and evolution of sports celebrity in Japan from the seventeenth through the twenty first centuries Frost explores how various constituencies have repeatedly molded and deployed representations of individual athletes revealing that sports stars are socially constructed phenomena the products of both particular historical moments and broader discourses of celebrity Drawing from media coverage biographies literary works athletes memoirs bureaucratic memoranda interviews and films Frost argues that the largely unquestioned mass of information about sports stars not only reflects but also shapes society and body culture He examines the lives and times of star athletes including sumo grand champion Hitachiyama female Olympic medalist Hitomi Kinue legendary pitcher Sawamura Eiji and world champion boxer Gushiken Yoko demonstrating how representations of such sports stars mediated Japan's emergence into the putatively universal realm of sports unsettled orthodox notions of gender facilitated wartime mobilization of physically fit men and women and masked lingering inequalities in postwar Japanese society As the first critical examination of the history of sports celebrity outside a Euro American context this book also sheds new light on the transnational forces at play in the production and impact of celebrity images and dispels misconceptions that sports stars in the non West are mere imitations of their Western counterparts
