Seeing Through the Sun Linda Hogan, 1985      LIFE IT IS WHAT IT IS AS SEEN THROUGH MY EYES KEMY LOREE DERLAGO, 2013-10 As I travel across north America operating a tractor and trailer hauling consumer goods I come across many events of the human spirit and so I write about what I see hoping that it may make you cry make you laugh make you think about life and how precious it is      Seeing Through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari, 2004-01-01 During the later Middle Ages new optical theories were introduced that located the power of sight not in the seeing subject but in the passive object of vision This shift had a powerful impact not only on medieval science but also on theories of knowledge and this changing relationship of vision and knowledge was a crucial element in late medieval religious devotion In Seeing through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari examines several late medieval allegories in the context of contemporary paradigm shifts in scientific and philosophical theories of vision After a survey on the genre of allegory and an overview of medieval optical theories Akbari delves into more detailed studies of several medieval literary works including the Roman de la Rose Dante's Vita Nuova Convivio and Commedia and Chaucer's dream visions and Canterbury Tales The final chapter Division and Darkness centres on the legacy of allegory in the fifteenth century Offering a new interdisciplinary synthetic approach to late medieval intellectual history and to major works within the medieval literary canon Seeing through the Veil will be an essential resource to the study of medieval literature and culture as well as philosophy history of art and history of science

The Alpha and the Omega Louisa Crisp, 2023-04-21 Drawing on scores of deep memories from her many clients Louisa Crisp shows that we can be free By shedding negative emotions traumas and conditioning we shine from the Divine essence that lives within This inextinguishable light cannot be taken from us yet many are choosing to live in fear and judgment in separation The Alpha and the Omega takes us on a breath taking journey from the moment our cosmos began to the present day revealing the cause of separation and the beginning of duality The second part of the book focuses on the life of Jesus the first person who was able to let go of his fears completely and to live in total alignment with Source Many valuable memories are revealed from individuals who lived during that time Louisa shows how we can take steps to free ourselves from emotional turmoil caused by separation from our true self By listening above all to our intuition we can embark on a voyage to the very core of our being This we will discover is the path to enlightenment      The Philosophy of Husserl Burt C. Hopkins, 2011-01-01 Hopkins begins his study with Plato's written and unwritten theories of eid and Aristotle's criticism of both He then traces Husserl's early investigations into the formation of mathematical and logical concepts charting the critical necessity that leads from descriptive psychology to transcendently pure phenomenology An investigation of the movement of Husserl's phenomenology of transcendental consciousness to that of monadological intersubjectivity follows Hopkins then presents the final stage of the development of Husserl's thought which situates monadological intersubjectivity within the context of the historical a priori constitutive of all meaning An exposition of the unwarranted historical presuppositions that guide Heidegger's fundamental ontological and Derrida's deconstructive criticisms of Husserl's transcendental phenomenology concludes the book. By following Husserl's personal trajectory Hopkins is able to show the unity of Husserl's philosophical enterprise challenging the prevailing view that Husserl's late turn to history is inconsistent with his earlier attempts to establish phenomenology as a pure science.

Form without Matter Mark Eli Kalderon, 2015-01-29 Mark Eli Kalderon presents an original study in the philosophy of perception written in the medium of historiography. He considers the phenomenology and metaphysics of sensory presentation through the examination of an ancient aporia. Specifically, he argues that a puzzle about perception at a distance is behind Empedocles' theory of vision. Empedocles conceives of perception as a mode of material assimilation, but this raises a puzzle about color vision since color vision seems to present colors that inhere in distant objects. But if the colors inhere in distant objects, how can they be taken in by the organ of sight and so be palpable to sense? Aristotle purports to resolve this puzzle in his definition of perception as the assimilation of sensible form without the matter of the perceived particular. Aristotle explicitly criticizes Empedocles, though he is keen to retain the idea that perception is a mode of assimilation, if not a material mode. Aristotle's notorious definition has long puzzled commentators. Kalderon shows how, read in light of Empedoclean puzzlement about the sensory presentation of remote objects, Aristotle's definition of perception can be better understood. Moreover, when so read, the resulting conception of perception is both attractive and defensible.

How to Walk in the Supernatural Power of God Guillermo Maldonado, 2011-03-18 Experience Signs Wonders and Miracles Today The supernatural power and authority of God are available for today's believers just as they were during ancient biblical times for healings, miracles, and deliverances. To help you grasp the full revelation of God's supernatural power, Apostle Maldonado shares biblically based insights and tremendous testimonies to show you how to experience God's anointing to be more effective in ministry. Understand and operate in the supernatural. Minister healing to the sick. Hear the voice of God. Protect yourself from deception. Develop a faith for the miraculous. Begin to experience the miraculous in your life. And these signs will follow those who believe. Mark 16:17
