Seelenarbeit Roman:

Changing Cultural Tastes Anthony Wayne, 2007-12-01 Changing Cultural Tastes offers a critical survey of the taste wars fought over the past two centuries between the intellectual establishment and the common people in Germany. It charts the uneasy relationship of high and popular culture in Germany in the modern era. The impact of National Socialism and the strong influence from Great Britain and the United States are assessed in this cultural history of a changing nation and society. The period 1920-1980 is given special prominence and the work of significant writers and artists such as Josef von Sternberg and Bertolt Brecht, Elfriede Jelinek and Rolf Dieter Brinkmann, Erwin Piscator and Heinrich Böll is closely analysed. Their work has reflected changing tastes and crucially helped to make taste more pluralistic and democratic.

Twentieth-century German Dramatists, 1919-1992 Wolfgang Iff, James N. Hardin, 1992. Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide career biographies of fifty German, Austrian and Swiss German writers, most of whom had their first significant work published or performed after World War I, each with a list of principal works and a bibliography. Includes a cumulative index.

Contemporary German Fiction Writers Wolfgang Iff, James N. Hardin, 1988. Contains alphabetically arranged essays that provide biographical and critical information about significant contemporary German fiction writers, each with a list of principal works and a bibliography.

New Critical Perspectives on Martin Walser Frank Pilipp, 1994. Critical essays on contemporary German novelist Martin Walser, born 1927, is one of the most prolific contemporary German novelists and one with a place in world literature. His work provides an astute critical commentary in novelistic form on postwar Germany. The present volume comprises essays by eleven Walser experts on various aspects of his writings, with concentration on the novels of the last 15 years, books such as Runaway Horse 1978, The Inner Man 1979, The Swan Villa 1980, Letter to Lord Liszt 1982 and In Defense of Childhood 1991. Parallels and influences discussed in these studies include Schiller, Richardson, Hofmannsthal, Kafka, Thomas Mann, Marcel Proust, Updike, Brecht and Walter Kempowski.

The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel Graham Bartram, 2004-04-05. The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel, first published in 2004, provides a broad-ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the German novel from the 1890s to the present. Written by an international team of experts, it encompasses both modernist and realist traditions and also includes a look back to the roots of the modern novel in the Bildungsroman of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The structure is broadly chronological but thematically focused; chapters examine topics such as gender, anxiety, images of the city, war and women's writing. Within each chapter, key works are selected for close attention. Unique in its combination of breadth of coverage and detailed analysis of individual works and featuring a chronology and guides to further reading, this Companion will be indispensable to students and teachers.
