Excerpt from Select Poems of Thomas Gray Many editions of Gray have been published in the last fifty years some of them very elegant and some showing considerable editorial labor but not one so far as I am aware critically exact either in text or in notes No editor since Mathias A D 1814 has given the 2d line of the Elegy as Gray wrote and printed it while Mathias s mispronunciation of the 123d line has been copied by his successors almost without exception Other variations from the early editions are mentioned in the notes It is a curious fact that the most accurate edition of Gray s collected poems is the editio princeps of 1768 printed under his own supervision The first edition of the two Pindaric odes The Progress of Poesy and The Bard Strawberry Hill 1757 was printed with equal care and the proofs were probably read by the poet The text of the present edition has been collated line by line with that of these early editions and in no instance I have adopted a later reading All the MS variations and the various readings I have noted in the modern editions are given in the notes Pickering s edition of 1835 edited by Mitford has been followed blindly in nearly all the more recent editions and its many errors see pp 84 and 105 foot notes have been faithfully reproduced Even its blunders in the indenting of the lines in the corresponding stanzas of the two Pindaric odes which any careful proof reader ought to have corrected have been copied again and again as in the Boston 1853 reprint of Pickering the pretty little edition of Bickers any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Select Poems of Thomas Gray Gray Thomas,2016-06-23      Select Poems of Thomas Gray William James Rolfe,Thomas Gray,Robert Carruthers,2017-12-22
