Select Statutes Other Constitution 4ed:

The Governments of Europe William Bennett Munro, 1925 Social Control of Sex Expression Geoffrey May, 2025-02-03 First published in 1930 Social Control of Sex Expression is a study of the control exercised by Anglo American law over voluntary sex expression Divided into three parts the book starts with the doctrine of sex repression among primitive peoples among the ancient Hebrews and early Christians It then explores the doctrine in English law and the problems of sexual morality and temporal jurisdiction in the second part The last and final part looks at the doctrine in Anglo American law from pre revolutionary America to America today Two facts stand out in relief from this study The one is that the methods of legal control of sex expression have varied widely throughout Anglo American history The other is that the attitude behind the law the doctrine of sexual morality itself has varied not at all The author argues that though the forms of control have changed the fact of control less tangible still persists This is an interesting read for scholars and researchers of sociology law and psychology

A Law Dictionary, Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America, and of the Several States of the American Union John Bouvier, 1891 Red, White, and Kind of Blue? David Schneiderman, 2015-01-01 Situated between two different constitutional traditions those of the United Kingdom and the United States Canada has maintained a distinctive third way federal parliamentary and flexible Yet in recent years it seems that Canadian constitutional culture has been moving increasingly in an American direction Through the prorogation crises of 2008 and 2009 its senate reform proposals and the appointment process for Supreme Court judges Stephen Harper s

Conservative government has repeatedly shown a tendency to push Canada further into the US constitutional orbit Red White and Kind of Blue is a comparative legal analysis of this creeping Americanization as well as a probing examination of the costs and benefits that come with it Comparing British Canadian and American constitutional traditions David Schneiderman offers a critical perspective on the Americanization of Canadian constitutional practice and a timely warning about its unexamined consequences Selected National, European and International Provisions from Public and Private Law Philipp Kiiver,Nicole Kornet,2010 The Maastricht Law Faculty is known for its outstanding expertise in the field of European and comparative law and it attaches great importance to comparative legal studies in its teaching National European and international legal provisions which have proven to be particularly relevant in comparative legal studies assists students academics and practitioners in their comparative law work This expanded and updated second edition of the Maastricht Collection covers the areas of constitutional law administrative law and administrative procedure criminal justice European and international human rights law property law tort law national and European contract law civil procedure private international law company law international business law international tax law For each area a selection of important legal provisions from France Germany the Netherlands and the UK is provided This includes domestic constitutional and statutory provisions provisions from international treaties and instruments of the EU In addition selected sources from the US are provided Sources are reproduced in the original English or are rendered as fresh English translations under critical editorship Unlike many other translations The Maastricht Collection remains true to the content style and syntax of the original texts This allows the reader to appreciate not only the substance but also the authentic form and the beauty of foreign legal sources Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1984-07 Magna Carta William Sharp McKechnie,1914
