Selected And Collected Poems:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist. Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today: how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision; how to connect present-day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture; how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral, spiritual, or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena. For Jeffers, as for no other important modern American poet, there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems. The current Selected Poetry, first published in 1938, contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers' lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now, for the first time, all of Jeffers' completed poems, both published and unpublished, are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best-known poems: Tamar, Roan, Stallion, The Women at Point Sur, and Cawdor, as well as a recently discovered long poem Home. There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction. Collected Poems and Selected Prose Charlotte Mew, 2003 New

Collected Poems Marianne Moore, 2024-06-04 A landmark definitive edition of one of our most innovative and beloved poets. The landmark oeuvre of Marianne Moore, one of the major inventors of poetic modernism, has had no straight path from beginning to end. Until now, there has been no good vantage point from which to see the body of her remarkable work as a whole. Throughout her life, Moore arranged and rearranged, visited and revisited a large majority of her existing poetry, always adding new work interspersed among revised poems. This makes sorting out the complex textual history that she left behind a pressing task if we mean to represent her work as a poet in a way that gives us a complete picture. New Collected Poems offers an answer to the question of how to represent the work of a poet so skillful and singular, giving a portrait of the range of her voice and of the modernist culture she helped create. William Carlos Williams, remarking on the impeccable precision of Moore's poems, praised the aesthetic pleasure engendered when pure craftsmanship joins hard surfaces skillfully. It is only in New Collected Poems that we can understand her later achievements, see how she refashioned her earlier work, and get a more complete understanding of her consummate craftsmanship, innovation, and attention to detail. Presented and collected by Heather Cass White, the foremost scholar of Moore's work, this new collection at last allows readers to experience the untamed force of these dazzling poems as the author first envisioned them. Selected Poems Hilda Doolittle, 1988 Like every major artist she challenges the reader's intellect and imagination Boston Herald The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2011-02-07 Following the highly acclaimed Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan poets Alice Notley, Anselm Berrigan and Edmund Berrigan have collaborated again on this new selection of poems by one of the most influential and admired poets of his generation. Reflecting a new editorial approach, this volume demonstrates the breadth of Ted Berrigan's poetic accomplishments by presenting his most celebrated, interesting, and important work. This major second wave New York School poet is often identified with his early poems, especially The Sonnets, but this selection encompasses his full poetic output, including the later sequences Easter Monday and A Certain Slant of Sunlight, as well as many of his uncollected poems. The Selected Poems of Ted Berrigan provides a new perspective for those already familiar with his remarkable wit and invention and introduces new readers to what John Ashbery called the crazy energy of this iconoclastic, funny, brilliant, and highly innovative writer. Praise for The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan: This is a great, great book for all seasons of the mind and heart. Robert Creeley: Thanks to this invaluable Collected Poems, one can hear as never before Ted Berrigan dreaming his dream. The Nation: The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan is not only one of the most strikingly attractive books recently published but is also a major work of 20th-century poetry. It is a book that will darken with the grease of my hands. There is no better way to praise it than by saying: If you enjoy poetry, you should have it. Bloomsbury Review: It's a must-have poetic knockout. Time Out New York Collected Poems C. K. Williams, 2014-09-09 Collected Poems brings together nearly four decades of C. K. Williams's work: more than four hundred poems that, though remarkable in their variety, have in common Williams's distinctive outlook: restless, passionate, dogged, and uncompromising in the drive to find words for the truth about life as we know it today. Williams's rangy, elastic lines are measures of thought, and in these pages we watch them unfold from his confrontational early poems through the open, expansive Tar and With Ignorance. His voice is both cerebral and muscular, capable of both the eight-line poems of Flesh and Blood and the inward soundings of A Dream of Mind, and of both together in the award-winning recent books Repair and The Singing. These poems feel spontaneous, individual, and directly representative of the experience of which they sing: open to life, they chafe against summary and conclusion. Few poets leave behind them a body of work that is global in its ambition and achievement. C. K. Williams is one of them. Collected Poems Galway Kinnell, 2017-12-05 The essential collection by the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner who was one of the true master poets of his generation. The New York Times: In the words of Galway Kinnell, it is the poet's job to figure out what's happening within oneself, to figure out the connection between the self and the world, and to get it down in words that have a lasting shape, that have a chance of lasting. With this deeply probing and restlessly curious sensibility, Kinnell spends decades producing some of American poetry's most beloved and revered works. This comprehensive volume includes Kinnell's expansive poem of immigrant life on the Lower East Side of New York, The Avenue Bearing the Initial of Christ into the New World; his incantatory, book-length poem The Book of Nightmares; and a searing evocation of Hiroshima in The Fundamental Project of Technology It covers the iconic themes of Kinnell's middle years eros family and the natural world in works such as After Making Love We Hear Footsteps The Bear Saint Francis and the Sow and Blackberry Eating And includes the unflinchingly introspective work of his later years Spanning six decades this is the essential collection for old and new devotees of Galway Kinnell a poet of the rarest ability who can flesh out music raise the spirits and break the heart Boston Globe Selected Collected Poems Timothy S. 1945-1975 Robert Creeley, 2006. A collection of Creeley's work gathered from obsolesced collections, small press booklets and little mags. Here one can trace the development of his poetry from its early break with the Eliot/Auden tradition to the development of his own distinct voice in the middle poems such as Words and Pieces, known for their precise, terse and almost minimalist language, as well as his return to the more direct concern for love and humanity. 1950-2012 Adrienne Rich, 2016-06-21. The collected works of Adrienne Rich, whose poetry is distinguished by an unswerving progressive vision and a dazzling empathic ferocity. New York Times A Finalist for the 2017 Pulitzer Prize in Poetry. Adrienne Rich was the singular voice of her generation and one of our most important American poets. She brought discussions of gender, race and class to the forefront of poetical discourse, pushing formal boundaries and consistently examining both self and society. This collected volume traces the evolution of her poetry from her earliest work, which was formally exact and decorous, to her later work, which became increasingly radical in both its free verse form and feminist and political content. The entire body of her poetry is on display in this vast volume, including the National Book Award winning Diving Into the Wreck and her prize winning Atlas of the Difficult World. The Collected Poems of Adrienne Rich gathers and memorializes all of her boldly political, formally ambitious, thoughtful and lucid work, the whole of which makes her one of the most prolific and influential poets of our time. Richard Hugo, who died suddenly in 1982, was in James Wright's words, a great poet true to our difficult life. Making Certain It Goes On brings together as Hugo wished the poems published in book form during his lifetime, together with the moving and courageous new poems he wrote in his last years. This then is the definitive collection of a major American poet's enduring works. Collected Poems 1912-1944 Hilda Doolittle, 2015-01-12. Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog Dylan Thomas, 2012-04-01

Few writers have evoked as successfully the mysteries and adventures of boyhood of young love with its shattered dreams or of death haunting two lads at play none has done it in as fresh and telling phrases with an elation as natural and contagious The Young Dog of the title is of course Thomas himself and this volume of autobiographical stories by the great modern poet who died at 39 while on his third lecture tour in the United States shows his waggish humor at its best his exuberance and verbal magic in spectacular display It also shows him a spinner of tales and a creator of memorable characters There is the grandfather who marches off in his best clothes to be buried in the next town the sardonic senior reporter on a provincial newspaper servant girls who know how to deal triumphantly with a fast talking dandy a twenty year old farmer preaching wildly to boys in a deserted barn a group of respectable worthies who play at literature behind closed
