Selected Cantos Of Ezra Pound:

Guide to Ezra Pound's Selected Cantos George Kearns, 1980 Selected Cantos of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, 1970 This selection from the Cantos was made by Ezra Pound himself in 1965 It is intended to indicate main elements in the long poem his personal epic with which he was engaged for more than fifty years His choice includes of course a number of the Cantos most admired by critics and anthologists such as Canto XIII Kung Confucius walked by the dynastic temple Canto XLV With usura hath no man a house of good stone and the passage from The Pisan Cantos LXXXI beginning What thou lovest well remains the rest is dross and so the book is an ideal introduction for newcomers to the great work But it has too particular interest for the already initiated reader and the specialist in its revelation through Pound s own selection of main elements of the relative importance which he himself placed on various motifs as they figure in the architecture of the whole poem
