Men Are Not Cost Effective:

Men are Not Cost-effective June Stephenson,1995 This provocative and entertaining yet totally fact based look at the cost of crimes in this country the majority of which are committed by men uses documented statistics and numerous anecdotes to provide insight into the problem of why so many boys grow up to be criminals and what can be done about it Men Are Not Cost-Effective June Stephenson,1995-03-01 Prostate Cancer: New Insights for the Healthcare Professional: 2011 Edition ,2012-01-09 Prostate Cancer New Insights for the Healthcare Professional 2011 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Prostate Cancer The editors have built Prostate Cancer New Insights for the Healthcare Professional 2011 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Prostate Cancer in this eBook to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Prostate Cancer New Insights for the Healthcare Professional 2011 Edition has been produced by the world s leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com> Disease Control Priorities, Third Edition (Volume 3) Hellen Gelband,Prabhat Jha,Rengaswamy Sankaranarayanan,Susan Horton,2015-10-29 Volume 3 Cancer presents the complex patterns of cancer incidence and death around the world and evidence on effective and cost effective ways to control cancers The DCP3 evaluation of cancer will indicate where cancer treatment is ineffective and wasteful and offer alternative cancer care packages that are cost effective and suited to low resource settings Main messages from the volume include Quality matters in all aspects of cancer treatment and palliation Cancer registries that track incidence mortality and survival paired with systems to capture causes of death are important to understanding the national cancer burden and the effect of interventions over time Effective interventions exist at a range of prices Adopting resource appropriate measures which allow the most effective treatment for the greatest number of people will be advantageous to countries Prioritizing resources toward early stage and curable cancers is likely to have the greatest health impact in low income settings Research prioritization is no longer just a global responsibility Providing cancer treatment requires adequate numbers of trained healthcare professionals and infrastructure beyond what is available in most LMICs especially low income countries Careful patient monitoring is a requirement of good quality cancer care and this often involves laboratory tests in addition to clinical examination Even if financing were immediately available to build or expand a cancer control system reaching capacity will take many years Theory and Methods of Economic Evaluation of Health Care Magnus Johannesson,2013-03-09 Most economic evaluations of health care programmes at the moment are cost effectiveness and cost utility analyses The problem with these methods is that their theoretical foundations are unclear This has led to confusion about how to define the costs and health effects and how to interpret the results of these studies In the environmental and traffic safety fields it is instead common to carry out traditional cost bene fit analyses of health improving programmes This striking difference in how health programmes are assessed in different fields was the original motivation for writing this book The aim of the book is to try and provide a coherent framework within cost bene fit analysis and welfare economics for the different methods of economic evaluation in the health care field The book is written in an easily accessible manner and several examples of applications of the different methods are provided It is my hope that it will be useful both for teaching purposes and as a guide for practitioners in the field Glenn C Blomquist John D Graham Rich O Connor and four anonymous referees provided helpful comments on previous versions of the manuscript I would also like to express my gratitude to the following persons for helping me to prepare the manuscript Carl Magnus Berglund Carin Blanksvard Ann Brown and Ziad Obeid
