Stephen Rippon

Norfolk And Suffolk Hidden Places Series:

The Hidden Places of Norfolk and Suffolk Joy David, 1989 The Hidden Places of East Anglia Joy David Noel-Stevens, Martin Stevens, 1993-12-01 Beyond the Medieval Village Stephen Rippon, 2008-11-27 The varied character of Britain's countryside and towns provides communities with a strong sense of local identity. One of the most significant features of the southern British landscape is the way that its character differs from region to region with compact villages in the Midlands contrasting with the sprawling hamlets of East Anglia and isolated farmsteads of Devon. Even more remarkable is the very English feel of the landscape in southern Pembrokeshire in the far south west of Wales. Hoskins described the English landscape as the richest historical record we possess and in this book Stephen Rippon explores the origins of regional variations in landscape character, arguing that while some landscapes date back to the centuries either side of the Norman Conquest, other areas across southern Britain underwent a profound change around the 8th century AD.

The Hidden Places of England Barbara Vesey, 2000 An easy to use travel guide noted for its wealth of interesting geographical and historical information on the UK. This guide concentrates on the more secluded and less well known visitor attractions and places to eat and stay while covering the more established places of interest. Includes line drawings of each place, addresses and telephone numbers.
