One Girl School:

One Girl School Jon Blake, 2001 A further six Treetops titles in Oxford Reading Tree's series of fiction with built in progression for pupils aged 7-11. Specially written for children who need the support of carefully monitored language levels the stories are accessible, motivating and humorous. The series is organised into Oxford Reading Tree Stages from Stage 10 to Stage 16 with each stage introducing more complex narrative forms including flashbacks and changes in viewpoint, descriptive writing, extended reading vocabulary and more pages, more text and fewer illustrations. Ideal for both guided reading, group work and independent reading. Phase G features six new stories at the top end of Treetops featuring top children's authors Chris Powling, Paul Stewart, Jon Blake and Margaret McAllister plus talented newcomers Claire Funge and Anna Perera. The stories have the breadth and interest level demanded by top juniors with settings ranging from the Arctic Circle to wartime England via a magical football story with a difference. The stories tackle issues that are important to 10-11 year olds: families change, the environment, bullying, relationships with the humour and style for which Treetops is renowned.

One Girl's Struggle to Grow Up Shirley Anne Carpenter, 2021-05-09 Story of a girl growing up despite several problems and insecurities but a very exciting life nevertheless.

The Handbook of Jamaica for ..., 1890 Report ... New South Wales. Department of Education, 1902

Between Social Skills and Marketable Skills Roman Loimeier, 2009 The present volume is a pioneering study of the development of Islamic traditions of learning in 20th century Zanzibar and the role of Muslim scholars in society and politics based on extensive fieldwork and archival research in Zanzibar 2001-2007. The volume highlights the dynamics of Muslim traditions of reform in pre-colonial, colonial and post-colonial Zanzibar focussing on the contribution of Sufi scholars Qadiriyya Alawiyya as well as Muslim reformers, modernists, activists and a real sunna to Islamic education. It examines several types of Islamic schools: Qur'anic schools, madaris and Islamic institutes as well as the emergence of the discipline of Islamic Religious Instruction in colonial government schools. The volume argues that dynamics of cooperation between religious scholars and the British administration defined both form and content of Islamic education in the colonial period 1890-1963. The revolution of 1964 led to the marginalization of established traditions of Islamic education and encouraged the development of Muslim activist movements which have started to challenge state-informed institutions of learning.
