

Far West and edited by the Prophet Joseph Smith, we have in an article by David W. Patten, the following statement:

They who sin against the authority given to him [the before mentioned man of God] sin not against him only, but against Moroni, who holds the keys of the Stick of Ephraim. [JD 1:42, also quoted in MS 1:126]

4. July 1838 - In the same issue of the Elder's Journal (Vol. 1 #3) Joseph Smith answers various questions which were put to him. We quote the 4th question and the answer:

Question 4th. How, and where did you obtain the book of Mormon? Answer. Moroni, the person who deposited the plates, from whence the Book of Mormon was translated, in a hill in Manchester, Ontario County, New York, being dead, undrained again therefrom, appeared unto me, and told me where they were; and gave me directions how to obtain them; I obtained them, and the Urim and Thummim with them; by the means of which, I translated the plates and thus came the Book of Mormon. [JD 1:42-43]

[Mormon Fortress note: "What makes this source so valuable is that it was written and published at about the same time period that Joseph Smith was dictating the portion of the 1838 manuscript (begun in May 1838) that contains the error AND this source was also directly edited by Joseph Smith himself as editor of the Elder's Journal! Even more significant is that, in the case of Times and Seasons, Joseph Smith could not oversee publication when his history went to print but the paper that he actually oversaw contained the correct information identifying the angel as Moroni." (D. Charles Pyle.)]

5. In 1840, History of Mormonism was published (which was a reprint of the 1834, first anti-Mormon book, Mormonism Unveiled). It came out under the name of Elzer D. Howe, but Philastus Hulburt wrote most of it. At any rate the anti-Mormon community knew who it was who gave the plates to Joseph Smith as can be seen by the following paragraph from the book:

After he had finished translating the Book of Mormon, he again buried up the plates in the side of a mountain, by command of the Lord; some time after this, he was going through a piece of woods, on a by-path, when he discovered an old man dressed in ordinary grey apparel, sitting on a log, having in his hand or near by, a small box. On approaching him, he asked him what he had in his box. To which the old man replied, that he had a MONKEY, and for five coppers he might see it. Joseph answered, that he would not give a cent to see a monkey, for he had seen a hundred of them. He then asked the old man where he was going, who said he was going to Chargeol. Joseph then passed on, and not recollecting any such place in that part of the country, began to ponder over the strange interview, and finally asked the Lord the meaning of it. The Lord told him that the man he saw was MURDERER, with the plates, and if he had given him the five coppers, he might have got his plates again. [History of Mormonism p 277]

Although the author obviously likes tall tales, he quite obviously knew just which messenger had to do with the plates - and this in 1840.

6. In the 1844 edition of the Doctrine and Covenants the revelation we know as Section 128 (then Section 106) was first published:

And again, what do we hear? Glad tidings from Cumorah! Moroni, an angel from heaven, declaring the fulfillment of the prophets - the book to be revealed.... (D&C 128:20.)

We have thus shown that in the early days of the Church, essentially everyone, even the apostates, knew that it was Moroni and not Nephi who gave Joseph Smith the plates.
