The Mediocracy Dominique Lecourt, 2002-11-17 Dominique Lecourt argues that a counter revolution in French intellectual life has seen the period of the master thinkers of the 1960s succeeded by an era of generalized mediocrity The author discusses how contemporary French ideology is content to legitimize a globally hegemonic neo liberalism

In Lieu of Memory Thomas Nolden, 2006-01-23 This book provides a wide ranging analysis of French Jewish authors born after the Shoah and traces the development of the rich agenda of jeune litt rature juive young Jewish writing from its beginnings in the late 1970s into the 1980s and 1990s when it gained intense momentum Thomas Nolden uses a wealth of biographical information to expound on his central thesis the abrupt interruption of transmission of the Jewish heritage by assimilation migration and near extermination required these writers to reinvent themselves their past and their memories as Jews Nolden provides concise readings of the fiction of more than two dozen writers of both Sephardic and Ashkenazi background living in present day France He demonstrates how contemporary Jewish writing has responded historically culturally politically and aesthetically to developments in French society and in Jewish culture His critical analysis of the major themes concerns and stylistic features of the authors work connects Jewish writing in France to the traditions of Jewish writing both during the Diaspora and in Israel

Cherchez la femme Erika Fülöp, 2011-05-25 Throughout history the most fundamental values at the basis of societal organization and culture were determined and sanctified almost exclusively by men including the values traditionally associated with women such as corporeal beauty purity motherhood or empathy However from ancient times and increasingly toward the end of the second millennium women have succeeded in finding ways to overcome such limits and have made their contributions to the revision of values and to the establishment of new ones Cherchez la femme offers a selection of essays inquiring into the nature of aesthetic linguistic cultural and social values created informed or reformed by women in the French speaking world as well as studies on how the discourse of male power used female figures to strengthen its own position With topics ranging in time from Semiramis s ancient legend to today and in space from Qu bec to Haiti metropolitan France and New Caledonia the
